No. 29 Edn.—The 4th January 1927.—The following revised and unified draft syllabuses of studies for the Government and Government aided secondary schools of East and West Bengal, are hereby published for general information and criticism.

The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 1st March 1927, and any suggestions received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered.

The new syllabuses, with such modifications as may subsequently be made as a result of suggestions sent in response to this notification, are intended to come into force in all Government and Government aided secondary schools in Bengal from the 1st January 1929, variations being permitted, as at present, to suit local circumstances, with the consent of the Inspector of Schools.

J. H. LINDSAY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

ENGLISH SYLLABUSES FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

SYLLABUS A.

Class III.

Speech Training, Writing and Reading.—Systematic training in the sounds of spoken English in connection with the pronunciation of easy words. In the later part of the course, the class should be able to carry on very simple conversation about familiar objects and actions.

The writing of English letters; written and printed small letters first, and then written and printed capital letters. As soon as the letters are known, words and sentences may be practised. Transcription from the black-board and from the reader are essential.

Reading should not be begun until some facility in speech and a fairly large vocabulary of common words have been acquired. A primer should be introduced during the second half of the year. The pupils will then have done a certain amount of reading from the black-board, and if the sentences in the primer are about equal in point of difficulty to those used in the conversational lessons, the transition should be easy.

There should be a considerable amount of reading aloud both by the teacher and by the pupils. Special attention should be paid to pronunciation.

The pupils may be asked to form easy sentences containing words from the primer, and should answer in English questions based on the matter of the primer.

Grammar.—The teaching should be incidental and should include:—Names connected with objects; ways of naming one thing and more than one thing; this and that, these and those, here and there, etc.; words showing action; present time, past time, future time; the numbers 1-20.

Class IV.

Reading.—On similar lines to Class III. Much individual reading aloud is desirable in order to correct mis-pronunciation of words and to secure reasonable fluency. The essential quality to be secured here is not expressiveness but clear utterance.

Pupils should give briefly and in their own words the substance of passages which they have read.

There should be one reader for detailed study. One or more readers should be provided for more rapid reading. The teacher should also read aloud stories or extracts.

Easy sentences from the primer should be rendered into the vernacular. A pupil should not be asked to translate any sentence of which he has not thoroughly grasped the purport.

Poetry.—A number of very simple poems should be read aloud by the teacher and the pupils during the year.

Speech Training and Composition.—Easy conversations about familiar objects and actions, and topics of the reading lessons; stories told by the teacher and retold by the class; descriptions of pictures shown to the class. New words from the readers to be used in simple sentences. The pupils should be encouraged to ask questions so as to show in what direction their vocabulary needs supplementing.

Transcription from the black-board and from readers. Spelling of words in the readers.

Dictation of words and sentences previously learnt in the readers. The average length of a piece should be six lines.

Easy written composition based on the exercises. The subjects should be concrete and simple, e.g., accounts of common sights and experiences, descriptions of pictures, invention and reproduction of stories.

The pupils should possess a fairly complete stock of ideas about a subject before beginning to compose.

Commas and full stops should be required.

Grammar.—Some Grammar has already been taught in connection with the mother tongue; in the English lessons, it should be reviewed.

When the pupils have acquired a reasonable command of ordinary language, they may be told the names of the different parts of speech and their functions in the sentence. They need this knowledge in order to express their own meaning correctly and to ascertain with accuracy the meaning of passages.

Some formal grammar is necessary, and should include:—Division of a sentence into two parts; subject and predicate. Nouns, verbs, pronouns, adjectives and adverbs (without sub-classification); and their uses in simple sentences. Simple forms of sentences. The joining together of simple sentences. The full stop and the comma.

Oral and written work on the above.

Class V.

Reading.—Individual reading aloud from a reader. Special attention should be given to correct pronunciation.

The pupils should use the words of the reader in forming simple sentences, and should be able to answer in English questions based on the matter of the reader. The answers may now be in the form of connected and continuous narrative.

Though the initial difficulties of mechanical reading should by now have been overcome, the teacher will still constantly read aloud to assist the class in improving their standard of reading.

There should be one reader for detailed study; and one or more supplementary readers should be provided. The teacher should also read aloud short stories or extracts.

Sentences from the readers, the purport of which has been thoroughly grasped, should be rendered into the vernacular.

Poetry.—The treatment in Class IV should be continued. The pupils should learn a minimum of forty lines of poetry by heart.

(The main story or leading idea of each poem should be understood by the pupils; it is not necessary for them to understand every word or phrase.)

Speech Training and Composition.—The method used in Class IV should be developed. Sufficient subject matter should be available from within the range of the pupils' experience, e.g., scenes which they have seen, descriptions of persons whom they know or of whom they have read, topics from their reading lessons. In giving accounts of what they have seen, heard or learnt, the pupils should speak for a longer time than in the former class. The teacher should now do less talking and allow the pupils to do more.

Spelling of words in the readers and in connection with mistakes in the composition.

Eight lines of dictation from the readers at a time. Transcription from the black-board and from the readers.

Composition as in Class IV. Graduated stories read aloud by the teacher. Original composition should be introduced, e.g., six sentences on the subject of an oral lesson. Words and phrases from the readers should be used in simple sentences.

Grammar.—The subject should be taught in connection with the reading lessons, and with oral and written composition; and should be based on the vernacular grammar wherever possible. It should include:—Revision of previous grammar in connection with more difficult sentences. Number and gender of nouns and pronouns. Adverbs, prepositions and conjunctions (without sub-classifications). Interjections. The definite and the indefinite articles. The conjugation of the three simple tenses. The verb “to have” and the verb “to be”.

Oral and written answers on the above.

• Class VI.

Reading.—Development of previous work. To read with correct pronunciation from readers; to use the words of the readers in simple sentences; and to answer in English questions based on the matter of the reader.

Reading aloud should be continued, but some silent reading should be introduced. The pupils should now have mastered mechanical difficulties, and be able to recognise and pronounce words rightly. They should now sometimes read as grown up people read, that is, silently. The teacher should exercise general supervision over this reading.

In addition to the reader for detailed study, one or more supplementary readers should be provided.

Passages from the readers and simple stories, the purport of which the pupils have fully grasped, should be rendered into the vernacular. Translation of simple sentences from the mother tongue into English should now be begun.

Poetry.—The treatment in Class V should be continued. A minimum of sixty lines should be learnt by heart.

The poems learnt by heart in the lower classes may sometimes be asked for.

Speech Training and Composition.—As before, plenty of conversation by the members of the class. More difficult sentences should now be used. Fuller connected accounts of what the pupils have seen, heard or learnt should be required. These accounts should more often be substituted for the method of question and answer.

The written composition should include the reproduction of simple stories, and practice in the use of easy idiomatic sentences. The exercises should be on subjects within the range of the experience of the class. About half of the composition should be based on the matter of the reading lessons. Instruction should also be given in elementary points of arrangement, construction and punctuation.

Letters of a simple kind; home topics should be largely dealt with.

Spelling of words in the readers and of composition mistakes.

Dictation of passages from the readers—about ten lines on each occasion.

Grammar.—The use of words is understood by the recognition of their relation to other words, and not by the investigation of themselves. Some formal grammar is necessary, but the function of the parts of speech should receive most attention. The work should include:—Revision of previous work in grammar. Classification of nouns, pronouns, adjectives and adverbs. Cases of nouns and pronouns. The uses of relative, interrogative and demonstrative pronouns. Comparatives and superlatives. The nominative case after the verb. Participles and gerunds. Voices. The conjugation of the remaining tenses. Simple ideas of moods. Auxiliary verbs, eg., may, might, shall, will, should, would, must, can, used. The direct and the indirect objects. Analysis of simple sentences.

Exercises on the above chiefly in connection with errors found in the composition exercises.

• Class VII.

Reading.—Reading aloud should be continued, but it should be less frequent. Silent reading, under the supervision of the teacher, should take its place. In addition to the reader for detailed study, one or more easy supplementary readers should be provided. Sentences should be formed and questions answered in English based on the vocabulary of the readers. The intelligent and expeditious use of a good dictionary should also be taught. More difficult passages from the readers and from compositions should be rendered into English. Translation from the mother tongue into English of easy passages should be prepared orally and then written.

Poetry.—On similar lines to Class VI. The teacher should still read aloud the longer poems. A minimum of eighty lines of poetry may be committed to memory in this class.

(The poems learnt by heart in the lower classes should sometimes be asked for.)

Spoken Language and Composition.—Development of previous work. Free conversation on the substance of the readers should be added. The practice of continuous oral narration should still be employed.

In the composition lessons, a beginning should be made of describing familiar scenes and objects; selections of these should be read out and criticised by the class. Subjects of topical interest, or obtainable from observation, or from books within the pupils' reach should be introduced. More difficult idiomatic sentences based on the matter of the readers should be required.

Short easy letters within the child's experience; directions borrowing and returning books or other articles necessitating replies, e.g., invitations, refusals or acceptances; comparison of schools, towns, recreations.

Spelling of words in the readers and from composition errors. Dictation of passages of the standard of the prescribed readers.

Grammar.—General knowledge of the various parts of speech. Simple rules of syntax including the enlargement of subject and object; the extension of the predicate; clause analysis; compound and complex sentences; nouns, adjectival and adverbial clauses; and elementary instruction in direct and indirect speech.

Class VIII.

Reading.—As above, with more difficult readers. Reading aloud should be continued, but to a lesser extent than formerly. The teacher should occasionally read aloud passages of special literary merit.

Attention should now be paid to facility in silent reading; and for this purpose, supplementary readers should be used as unseen passages. One reader for detailed study should be selected, and at least one or more easy story books for silent reading should be provided. The aim should be to give children a liking for good books and the power of reading them intelligently and quickly.

Writing in the vernacular the substance of a lengthy passage of English read or heard. Translation of easy passages from the mother tongue into English from the vernacular reader prescribed for Class II.

Poetry.—On similar lines to the preceding classes. A general knowledge of a fair number of standard narrative poems should be expected. Poetry should be read aloud by both teacher and pupils. A minimum of one hundred lines of poetry should be committed to memory.

Spoken Language and Composition.—In addition to the continuation of the method used in Class VII, free conversation may now be given a large place in the work. The conversations on the subject matter of the readers should be of a more detailed character.

There should be brief reproduction of stories occurring in the readers. Original composition on interesting concrete subjects should be discussed, outlined on the black-board, and subsequently written. Description should now include description of games. Pupils should be set to get their own information unaided—to use books or works of reference.

The usual business and formal letters; the answering of enquiries and advertisements, and telegrams, should be taught.

Grammar should include the following:—Names and functions of the parts of speech. Familiarity with elementary terms as subject, object, singular, plural, active, passive, auxiliary. Idiomatic use of common words and phrases. Words in common use with different functions. Correct use of prepositions.

Relation of phrases and sentences. Turning statements into questions and questions into statements. Similar action with commands.

Punctuation and paragraphing.

Special differences between the English and the Vernacular grammar (e.g., time values of the tenses).

Correction of grammatical errors.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses for Classes IX and X guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examinations of the Calcutta University which shows what is required at the end of the High School course.

The following should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses :—

- (1) Some reading aloud, but much silent reading under the supervision of the teacher. Both prose and poetry should be included.
- (2) Much practice in simple conversation in order to speak English with correct pronunciation and with some degree of facility, and to understand it when spoken.
- (3) The writing of composition and essays on subjects within the powers of the pupils. The language should be simple and not "lofty;" grammatical correctness and facility should receive attention. Headings should sometimes be given on the black-board, but pupils should be encouraged to collect their own information from books or from works of reference.
- (4) Letters should be written in correct and idiomatic English of a simple character. They should deal chiefly with the practical affairs of life.
- (5) Preference should be given to a training in the English language rather than in English literature—as a preparation for the future professional or commercial duties of the pupils.
- (6) Translation of both kinds should be practised as a preparation for future professional or commercial duties. Special attention should be given to simple idiomatic English.
- (7) Some direct instruction should still be given in correct spelling.
- (8) Little attention should be given to complex grammatical rules. An accurate knowledge of English will be produced rather by careful practice in reading, writing, and speaking English than by mere knowledge of grammatical theory.

SYLLABUS B.

This Syllabus is alternative to Syllabus A : either Syllabus may be used according to the preference of the Head Master, and according to his teaching facilities.

The general principles governing the construction of Syllabus B are :—

- (1) That it is important that a Bengali boy should be enabled to read English with ease and enjoyment at as early a period of his school career as possible.*
- (2) That the child's progress in reading should always be somewhat ahead of his progress in speaking and writing, in order that he may become accustomed to the meaning and correct use of new words and phrases in his reading, before he makes use of them in speaking and writing.
- (3) That progress in reading tends to be more rapid than progress in speaking and writing. (The course in reading is, therefore, kept separate from the course in speaking and writing so that the child may not be retarded in the former, nor hurried in the latter.)

Allocation of Periods.—The periods available for English should be so allocated between the course in reading and the course in speech and writing that the progress of the children in reading should always be in advance of their progress in speech and writing.

Grammar.—The Grammar Syllabus is the same as in Syllabus A. (Teachers are recommended not to devote more time to grammar than is justified by the resulting gain in accuracy of speech and writing.)

* See "Bilingualism—with special reference to Bengal" (Government of India Occasional Reports, No. 13).

Class III.FIRST HALF YEAR.

Reading.—Recognising letters; reading words and sentences formed with those letters. Reading questions and answering them in the vernacular; reading simple directions and fulfilling them. (The questions and directions should sometimes be read aloud to the class for practice in hearing and understanding.)

Speech.—Reading aloud, with great attention to pronunciation.

Writing.—Transcription from the reader. Later, dictation of passages which have been previously read and transcribed.

SECOND HALF YEAR.

Reading.—Reading simple descriptions and stories, and answering questions on them (in the vernacular).

Speech.—Oral drill (vernacular to English) on new words, idioms and sentence forms encountered in the reader. Oral retranslation (viz., translation back into English of sentences translated from the reader into the vernacular). Answering very easy questions in English on pictures in the reader and, later, on stories in the reader. Reading aloud for pronunciation.

Writing.—Transcription from the reader. Dictation (after careful preparation to ensure accuracy).

Class IV.

Reading.—Reading and answering (in the vernacular) questions on the matter read. Listening to reading, and answering (in the vernacular) questions on the matter heard.

(The reader should consist of stories; informative articles and some very simple poetry may be introduced. One or more supplementary readers should be provided.)

Speech.—Oral drill on new words, idioms and sentence forms in the reader. Oral retranslation based on the reader. Answering questions (in English) on passages in the reader. Reading aloud, and recitation from memory of passages (both poetry and prose) from the reader, great attention being paid to correct pronunciation.

Writing.—The children should learn to write what they have previously learned to say correctly, viz., answers to questions, and retranslation of sentences. Transcription. Dictation (after careful preparation). Portions of passages, learned for recitation, may be written out from memory.

Class V.

Reading.—Reading, and answering (in the vernacular), questions on the matter read. Listening to reading, and answering questions on the matter heard. (The reader should contain stories, informative articles and simple poetry. Some prose written in the dramatic form may be included. One or more supplementary readers should be provided.) Writing in the vernacular the substance of passages from the supplementary reader.

Speech.—Oral drill on new words, idioms and sentence forms encountered in the reader. Oral retranslation. Answering questions (in English) on passages in the reader. Reproduction in English of short stories or incidents from stories in the reader. (The aim should be accuracy rather than quantity.) Reading aloud and recitation of poetry and prose. The children should learn the ordinary class directions and conversation, e.g., "Clean the board", "Open your books", etc., in English. Material written in the dramatic form may be acted or recited.

Writing.—Writing answers in English to questions on the reader, writing retranslations previously prepared orally. Reproduction in English of short stories, or incidents from stories in the reader, previously reproduced orally, then written, corrected and rewritten in the correct form. (The aim should be accuracy rather than quantity.) Writing out from memory material, poetry and prose, learned for recitation. Dictation (after careful preparation).

Class VI.

Reading.—Reading and answering (in the vernacular) questions on the matter read. Listening to reading and answering (in the vernacular) questions on the matter heard.

(The reader should consist of stories, articles, poetry, and some prose written in the dramatic form. One or more supplementary readers should be provided.) Substance writing in vernacular (from the supplementary reader).

Speech.—Oral drill on new words, idioms and sentence forms encountered in the readers. Answering questions on passages from the reader. Giving the substance of passages in the reader. Reproduction of stories or longer incidents from stories in the reader. Reading aloud and recitation. Short conversations on subjects within the vocabulary of the class.

Writing.—Writing in English the substance of stories or articles in the reader. Reproduction in English of longer stories or incidents from stories in the reader previously reproduced orally, then written, corrected, and rewritten in the correct form. Writing out retranslation prepared orally. Letter writing (to parents and friends) should be begun.

Class VII.

Reading.—Reading and answering (in the vernacular) questions on the matter read. Listening and answering (in the vernacular) questions on the matter heard. (Ample supplementary readers should be provided and some attention should be paid to facility.) Substance-writing in the vernacular (from the supplementary reader).

Speech.—Oral drill on new words, etc. Giving the substance of passages in the reader. Recitation. Longer conversations on easy subjects.

The children may prepare and deliver to the class short lectures on simple subjects suggested to them or selected by themselves.

Writing.—Writing the substance of stories and articles in the reader. Written retranslations. Short essays descriptive of familiar objects or incidents first prepared orally, then written, corrected and rewritten in the correct form. Writing the substance of short lectures to be delivered by the child himself and of those delivered by other children. Writing letters and replies.

Class VIII.

Reading.—Reading, and answering questions on the matter read. Listening and answering questions on the matter heard.

(Ample supplementary readers should be provided, and attention should be paid to facility. The children should sometimes be required to read and obtain the substance of a fairly long passage within a limited time. The use of books of reference should be taught.)

Speech.—Oral drill on new words, etc. Giving the substance of articles and stories in the reader. Recitation. Conversation. "Little lectures" as in Class VII.

Writing.—Writing the substance of passages in the reader. Retranslations. Descriptive essays written as in Class VII : also easy narrative essays, both first prepared orally, written, corrected and rewritten. Writing the substance of "little lectures". Substance-writing in English from the supplementary reader. Letter-writing, including simple business letters, applications for employment, etc., the correct form of address and conclusion should be carefully taught.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters will frame their own course guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation or School Final Examination.

Silent reading should be encouraged both in and out of class.

Practice in conversation should be continued. English debates on simple subjects. Oral composition should be done as a preparation for written composition.

Essays. Substance-writing in English. Translation.

Letter-writing.—In written work the pupils should be taught to aim at writing a little correctly rather than a great deal incorrectly. Every mistake should be carefully noted by the individual pupil in order that it may never be repeated. Every pupil should possess a dictionary and should be allowed to use it at all times. (There should therefore be no excuse for spelling errors.) The teacher's aim should be to prevent errors, and pupils should be encouraged to ask, whenever they are in doubt as to the correctness of an expression, before committing it to writing.

SYLLABUS IN BENGALI FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class III.

Reading.—A fairly large vocabulary and some facility in reading have already been acquired in the primary stage. In this class, much individual reading aloud, correction of mispronunciation of words and insistence on clear utterance are required. Meanings of difficult words and expressions should be given, and individual readers should be questioned about the portions read. There should be pattern reading by the teacher; and at the end of each lesson, members of the class should give a summary in their own words of what they have read.

One or more supplementary readers should be selected for rapid silent reading. The teacher should occasionally test this reading by means of a few questions.

Poetry.—A number of poems should be selected and read aloud by teacher and pupils. The meaning of every word need not be explained, but the leading ideas of each poem should be understood. A minimum of 40 lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

Speech Training and Composition.—Simple conversations about familiar objects and actions, and topics of the reading lessons; stories told by the teacher, and retold by the class; and verbal descriptions of pictures shown to the class. New words from the readers should be used in simple sentences. The pupils should be encouraged to ask questions so as to show in what way their vocabulary needs supplementing.

Transcription from the black-board and from the readers. Spelling of words in the readers.

Dictation of words and sentences previously learnt in the readers. The average length of a piece of dictation should be six lines.

Easy written composition on concrete and simple subjects, e.g., accounts of common sights and experiences, descriptions of pictures, and reproduction of stories. The pupils should possess a fairly complete stock of ideas about a subject before beginning to write.

Great stress should be placed on simplicity of language.

Commas and full stops should be required.

Grammar.—Parts of a sentence. Nouns, verbs, pronouns, adjectives and adverbs (without sub-classification) and their uses in simple sentences. Examples of simple স্বরসন্ধি (combination of vowels and of consonants) and the connected rules.

Class IV.

Reading.—On similar lines to Class III. Much individual reading aloud is desirable in order to correct mispronunciation of words and to secure reasonable fluency. The essential quality to be secured here is clear utterance.

Pupils should give briefly and in their own words the substance of the passages which they have read.

There should be at least one reader for detailed study and reading aloud. At least two others should be provided for rapid and silent reading under the teacher's supervision. The teacher should also read aloud stories and interesting extracts to the class.

Poetry.—Poems should, of their kind, be first-rate. A number of simple poems should be read aloud by teacher and pupils during the year. At least 60 lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

Speech Training and Composition.—The simple conversations, composition, dictation, transcription and spelling should be continued as in Class III, but in a more advanced way.

Great stress should be placed on simplicity of language.

Grammar.—Revision of previous grammar in connection with more difficult sentences. Number and gender of nouns and pronouns. Formation of common feminine forms of nouns and number of adjectives. Numerals and ordinals. Adverbs and অব্যয় and their uses in sentences. The conjugation of the chief tenses of verbs. More difficult cases of স্বরসন্ধি and ব্যঞ্জনসন্ধি। Easy examples of principal kinds of Samas (কারক) and বিভক্তি।

Translation.—Easy short paragraphs selected from the English textbooks into simple Bengali.

Class V.

Reading.—Individual reading aloud will be continued. Special attention should still be given to correct pronunciation, clear utterance and proper intonation.

Oral summaries of passages read aloud should now be of a more connected and continuous character.

The teacher should still frequently read aloud to the class in order to assist the members in improving their standard of reading.

There should be at least one reader for detailed study and reading aloud; and at least two others for more rapid and silent reading under the supervision of the teacher. The silent reading should be tested both orally and by means of written exercises.

Poetry.—The treatment in Class IV should be continued with more difficult poems. The central idea of each poem should be understood by the class. At least 80 lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

Composition.—The possession by the pupils of a good stock of ideas about a subject before they begin to write is of great importance. It is well for the pupils to collect their ideas and state them orally before beginning to write. The teacher should now do less talking, and allow the pupils to do more.

The written work should include summaries of lessons, simple narrative and descriptive compositions, and construction of sentences based on words and expressions from the readers.

Each composition should consist of several paragraphs, and each paragraph should have its own central idea. Great stress should be placed on simplicity of language.

Punctuation marks should be taught.

Time should still be set apart for the learning of spelling from the readers. The teacher should select paragraphs of about ten lines from the readers for dictation tests.

Grammar.—Revision of previous grammar. Further discussion of ব্যঞ্জনসন্ধি, chief kinds of সমাস, and their uses. Cases of nouns and pronouns. Comparatives and superlatives. Participles and gerunds. Change of voice. Conjugation of principal tenses. Simple ideas of অধুক্তি। Enlargement of subject and predicate. Analysis of simple sentences. Lessons on কৃৎ প্রত্যয়।

Translation.—Short paragraphs from the English text-books into simple idiomatic Bengali. The result should not only be grammatical, but should read smoothly and naturally.

Class VI.

Reading.—As in Class V. In the case of the readers for detailed study, there should be full explanation of difficulties by the teacher, and connected accounts of what has been read by the pupils.

Silent reading under the teacher's supervision and testing of the knowledge thus acquired should be continued.

There should be at least one reader for detailed study and reading aloud; and at least three others for silent reading.

Poetry.—On similar lines to Class V. At least 100 lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

Composition.—The pupils should collect their ideas about a subject beforehand, and state them orally before beginning to write. Fuller connected accounts of what the pupils have seen, heard or learnt should now be required.

The written composition should include descriptions, the invention and reproduction of simple stories, and practice in the use of easy idiomatic sentences. Exercise may also be given in the expansion of ideas contained in proverbs, and in the expansion of the same idea in different ways.

Letter-writing of a simple kind should be taught; home topics should be largely dealt with.

Instruction should be given in elementary points of arrangement and punctuation.

Great stress should be placed on simplicity of language.

Spelling of words in the readers and of the corrected forms of composition mistakes should be continued. Dictation of passages already prepared from the readers should be about 12 lines in length.

Grammar.—Revision of Sandhi and Samas. Rules of যুক্তি and সন্ধি। Formation of nouns from adjectives, and of adjectives from nouns. Cases of nouns and pronouns in greater detail. The extension of the predicate; compound and complex sentences; and noun, adjectival and adverbial clauses. Change of voice; conversion of sentences. কৃৎ and উদ্ভিৎ। Translation.—As in Class V. Long sentences should be avoided.

Class VII.

Reading.—Reading aloud should be continued, but it should be of less frequent occurrence. Silent reading under the supervision of the teacher should be proportionately increased. There should be at least one reader for detailed study and reading aloud, and at least four others for silent reading. The silent reading should be systematically tested.

Each pupil should now possess a dictionary, and should use it constantly for the explanation of difficult words and phrases.

Poetry.—On similar lines to the preceding classes. A general knowledge of a fair number of standard narrative poems should be expected. Poems should be read aloud by both teacher and individual pupils. A minimum of 120 lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

Composition.—This should now include descriptions of familiar scenes, subjects of topical interest or obtainable from observations, or from books within the pupils' reach; selections of these should be read out and criticised by the class. Exercises in the development of outlines.

The reduction of involved sentences into two or more easy ones; the expansion of ideal; and the construction of new sentences using words and expressions found in the readers may be dealt with. More difficult idiomatic sentences should be required.

Short easy letters about matters within the pupils' experience should be written.

Great stress should be laid on simplicity of language and on the proper arrangement of the composition.

Spelling of words from the readers and of the corrected forms of composition errors, and dictation of passages of about 12 lines should be continued.

Grammar.—Derivative nouns and adjectives in common use and sentences containing them. Change of voice. Causative verbs. Idiomatic use of common words and phrases. Exercises in word-building. Use of উপসর্গ, ক্রম and উদ্ভিৎ ।

Syntax of nouns, adjectives, pronouns and adverbs. Comparison of direct and indirect narration in Bengali and English.

Translation.—Comparatively long and difficult passages into idiomatic Bengali. The translation should not be rendered word for word; the phraseology should be altered, if necessary, but the result should really represent the thought of the original.

Class VIII.

Reading.—As in Class VII, but with more difficult readers. Reading aloud should still be continued, but to a less extent than in Class VII. The teacher should occasionally read aloud passages of special literary merit.

The time allowed for silent reading will be increased, but it will be carefully supervised and tested by the teacher. The aims should be to give pupils a liking for good books and the power of reading them intelligently and quickly.

The regular use of the dictionary should be encouraged. The importance of the clear understanding of the main ideas of a lesson in comparison with the explanation of difficult words should be borne in mind.

There should be one reader for detailed study and reading aloud; and at least four others for silent reading.

Poetry.—As in Class VII, with more difficult poems. Both teacher and pupils should still read poems aloud. A minimum of 120 lines of poetry should be learnt by heart during the year.

Composition.—General class conversation on the coming composition should be continued. Composition exercises should be varied and may include the summaries of lessons, expansion and condensation of ideas, descriptions of games, imaginary conversations, and stories made up from pictures. More difficult exercises in the development of outlines.

Pupils should be set to get their own information unaided, and to use books of reference.

Ordinary business and formal letters and the answering of enquiries and advertisements.

Grammar.—Derivative adjectives in common use and sentences containing them. ক্রম and উদ্ভিৎ । Conversion of sentences from one form to another, e.g., from simple to complex, from compound to complex, etc. Expression of ideas in a sentence in different ways. Use of the same word as different parts of speech. Common errors in speech. Differences between Bengali and English grammar. Accent, pauses, metre and grammatical peculiarities in connection with Bengali poetry. Simple figures of speech.

Translation.—Paragraphs from the English text-books should be rendered into idiomatic Bengali; simple Bengali sentences should be insisted upon; regular and systematic exercises should be given.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses for Classes IX and X guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University.

The following should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses:—

- (1) Reading aloud of standard pieces of prose and poetry by both teacher and pupils should be continued.
- (2) Books for silent reading should be carefully chosen; the pupils are thus guided towards a taste for real literature.
- (3) In silent reading, the pupils should acquire skill in the rapid extraction of meaning from the printed page.
- (4) The writing of composition and essays should be on subjects within the powers of the pupils. The language should be of a simple character and grammatically correct. Headings should sometimes be given on the blackboard, but pupils should be encouraged to collect their own information from books or from works of reference.
- (5) Little attention should be given to complex grammatical rules. An accurate knowledge of Bengali will be gained more easily by careful practice in reading, writing and speaking Bengali than by mere knowledge of grammatical theory.
- (6) Translation of both kinds should be practised as a preparation for future professional or commercial duties.

SYLLABUSES ON MATHEMATICS FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN BENGAL.

ARITHMETIC.

Class III.

Notation and numeration to one lakh.

Construction and memorising of multiplication tables up to 12×12 .

The multiplication table used as a division table

Multiplication by 20, 30, etc., and by any two figures.

Division by factors.

Simple addition and subtraction of money.

Multiplication of money to 12 times.

Money table—rupees, annas, pice and pies.

Simple reduction of rupees, annas and pies both ways.

Very simple bazar accounts.

One place decimals approached by measurements in tenths of an inch.

Common fractions, e.g., $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{1}{3}$. Their mental addition and subtraction, both alone and with integers, and multiplication by integers.

Simple problems (mental and otherwise).

Class IV.

Notation and numeration to one crore.

Multiplication by three figures.

Easy long division by two figures.

Problems involving two or more of the simple rules.

Addition and subtraction of money.

Multiplication of money to 100 times.

Short division of money.

Reduction of money.

Easy reduction using the following terms:—

- (i) Yard, foot, inch.
- (ii) Maund, seer, chatak, tola; and other local weights.
- (iii) Local measures.
- (iv) Hours, minutes, seconds

Easy exercises in addition, subtraction and multiplication of decimals.

Division of decimals by 10, 20, 30 and 100.

Very simple Mahajani and Zamindari accounts.

Measurement in twelfths of an inch.

Meaning of vulgar fractions. Finding $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$, $\frac{1}{3}$, etc., of anything.

Simple problems (mental and otherwise.)

Class V.

Revision of previous work.
 Long division of numbers and money.
 Comparison of English and Indian money.
 More difficult exercises of weights and measures using the following terms :—

Maund, seer, chatak, tola ; and other local weights.
 Mile, furlong, yard, foot, inch.
 Local measures.
 Year, month, day, hour, minute, second.

Easy Mahajani and Zamindari accounts.
 Easy averages.
 Prime and composite numbers. H.C.F. and L.C.M. by factors.
 Meaning of vulgar fractions continued, e.g., $\frac{1}{2}$ of $\frac{1}{3}$, $\frac{1}{3}$ of $\frac{1}{2}$.
 Addition, subtraction, multiplication and division of vulgar fractions.
 Method of unity in two steps.
 Measurement of lines to two decimal places, estimating the second place thus—5.32 inches.
 Area of pieces of paper by measurement, e.g., 6.75 inches by 3.24 inches.
 Problems (mental and otherwise).

Class VI.

Revision of previous work.
 Averages.
 Multiplication and division of decimals.
 Simple decimalisation of money.
 Conversion of vulgar fractions into decimal fractions to a given number of places and vice versa (excluding recurring decimals).
 Exercises in square measure.
 Metric measures of length, weight and capacity ; simple calculations.
 Simple cases of unitary method.
 Percentages.
 Profit and Loss.
 Simple interest by decimalisation.
 Mahajani and Zamindari accounts.
 Oral and written problems on the above.

Class VII.

Revision of all previous work.
 More difficult examples with decimal fractions (excluding recurring decimals).
 Multiplication of money by the shortest method in each case, by practice or otherwise.
 Mahajani and Zamindari accounts
 Compound proportion.
 Simple cases of square measure and cubic measure.
 Compound interest by the decimalisation method.
 Oral and written problems on the above.

Class VIII.

Thorough revision of essential rules.
 Mahajani and Zamindari accounts.
 More advanced simple and compound interest.
 More difficult percentages. — Rates of interest.
 Easy recurring decimal fractions.
 Square root.
 Clock sums.
 Problems relating to time and work.
 Oral and written problems on the above.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses for Classes IX and X guided by the Syllabuses of the Matriculation or other equivalent Examinations.

The following should be included :—

Revision of former work.
 More difficult problems in simple and compound interest, and in profit and loss.
 Present worth and discount.
 Stocks and shares.
 Problems relating to time and distance.

MENSURATION.Class VIII.

Properties of right angled triangles. Areas of triangles. Rectangles. Parallelograms and quadrilaterals.

Class IX.

Areas of irregular rectilinear figures and circles.
Length of the circumference of a circle.

Class X.

Revision of former work.
Practical determination of volumes of rectangular solid, sphere, cone and cylinder.

ALGEBRA.Class VII.

The four simple rules.
Use of brackets.
The use of simple formulæ including the following with their application:—

$$(a+b)^2; (a-b)^2; (a+b)(a-b); (a+b)^3; (a-b)^3; (a+b)(a^2-ab+b^2);$$

$$(a-b)(a^2+ab+b^2).$$

Easy simple equations.
Problems leading to simple equations.
Graphs of straight lines.

Class VIII.

Revision of former work.
More difficult multiplication and division
To know the result of $x^a - y^a \div x - y$ in all cases where division is possible; and to apply this knowledge to similar expressions.
H.C.F. and L.C.M. of simple expressions.
Easy fractions.
Easy simultaneous equations.
Problems leading to simultaneous equations.
Plotting of statistics; graphs of simple equations.
Simple problems involving the above.

Classes IX and X.

Revision of former work.
Fuller treatment of simple and simultaneous equations.
Proportion.
Quadratic equations with one unknown quantity.
Problems leading to quadratic equations.
Extraction of square root.
Graphs of pure quadratic equations.
Arithmetical and geometrical progressions.
The elementary laws of indices.

GEOMETRY.Class VI.

Drawing and measurement of straight lines and angles; parallel straight lines; angles of a triangle; construction of triangles and parallelograms.
Theorems on lines, angles, triangles and parallelograms.
Simple problems on lines and angles.

Class VII.PRACTICAL.

Bisections of angles and of straight lines.
Construction of perpendiculars to straight lines.
Construction of an angle equal to a given angle.
Construction of parallels to a given straight line.
Simple cases of construction from sufficient data of triangles and quadrilaterals.

THEORETICAL.

Angles at a point.

If a straight line stands on another straight line, the sum of the two angles so formed is equal to two right angles ; and the converse.
If two straight lines intersect, the vertically opposite angles are equal.

Parallel straight lines.

When a straight line cuts two other straight lines if —

- (i) a pair of alternate angles are equal, or
 - (ii) a pair of corresponding angles are equal, or
 - (iii) a pair of interior angles on the same side of the cutting lines are together equal to two right angles,
- then the straight lines are parallel ; and the converse.

Straight lines which are parallel to the same straight line are parallel to one another.

Triangles and rectilineal figures.

The sum of the angles of a triangle is equal to two right angles.
If the sides of a convex polygon are produced in order, the sum of the angles so formed is equal to four right angles.
If two triangles have two sides of the one equal to two sides of the other, each to each, and also the angles contained by these sides equal, the triangles are congruent.
If two triangles have two angles of the one equal to two angles of the other, each to each, and also one side of the one equal to the corresponding side of the other, the triangles are congruent.
If two sides of a triangle are equal, the angles opposite to these sides are equal ; and the converse.
If two triangles have the three sides of the one equal to the three sides of the other, each to each, the triangles are congruent.
If two right-angled triangles have their hypotenuses equal and one side of the one equal to one side of the other, the triangles are congruent.
If two sides of a triangle are equal, the greater side has the greater angle opposite to it ; and the converse.
Of all the straight lines that can be drawn to a given straight line from a given point outside it, the perpendicular is the shortest.
The opposite sides and angles of a parallelogram are equal ; each diagonal bisects the parallelogram and the diagonals bisect one another.
If there are three or more parallel straight lines and the intercepts made by them on any straight line that cuts them are equal, then the corresponding intercepts or any other straight line that cuts them are also equal.

Class VIII.

PRACTICAL.

Division of straight lines into a given number of equal parts or into parts in any given proportions.

Construction of a triangle equal in area to a given polygon.

THEORETICAL.

Areas.

Parallelograms on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.
Triangles on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.
Equal triangles on the same or equal bases are of the same altitude.
Illustrations and explanations of the geometrical theorems corresponding to the following algebraical identities :—

$$k(a + b + c + \dots) = ka + kb + kc + \dots$$

$$(a + b)^2 = a^2 + 2ab + b^2.$$

$$(a - b)^2 = a^2 - 2ab + b^2.$$

$$a^2 - b^2 = (a - b)(a + b).$$

The square on one side of a triangle is greater than, equal to, or less than the sum of the squares on the other two sides according as the angle contained by those sides is obtuse, right angle or acute. The difference in the case of inequality is twice the rectangle contained by one of the two sides and the projection on it of the other.

Loci.

The locus of a point which is equidistant from two fixed points is the perpendicular bisector of the straight line joining the two fixed points. The locus of a point which is equidistant from two intersecting straight lines consist of the pair of straight lines which bisect the angles between the two given lines.

The Circle.

A straight line drawn from the centre of a circle to bisect a chord which is not the diameter is at right angles to the chord; conversely, the perpendicular to a chord from the centre bisects the chord.

There is one circle and one only which passes through three given points not in a straight line.

In equal circles (or in the same circle) (i) if two arcs subtend equal angles at the centre they are equal, (ii) conversely, if two arcs are equal they subtend equal angles at the centres.

In equal circles (or in the same circle) (i) if two chords are equal they cut off equal arcs; (ii) conversely, if two arcs are equal, the chords of the arcs are equal.

Equal chords in the circle are equidistant from the centre; and the converse.

Class IX.

PRACTICAL.

Construction of tangents to a circle and of common tangents to two circles.

Simple cases of the construction of circles from sufficient data.

Construction of regular figures of 3, 4, 6, or 8 sides in or about a given circle.

THEORETICAL.

The tangents at any point of a circle and the radius through the point are perpendicular to one another.

If two circles touch, the point of the contact lies on the straight line through the centres.

The angle which an arc of a circle subtends at the centre is double that which it subtends at any point on the remaining part of the circumference.

Angles in the same segment of a circle are equal and if the line joining two points subtends equal angles at two other points on the same side of it the four points lie on a circle.

The angle in a semi-circle is a right angle, the angle in a segment greater than a semi-circle is less than a right angle, and the angle in a segment less than a semi-circle is greater than a right angle.

The opposite angles of any quadrilateral inscribed in a circle are supplementary; and the converse. If a straight line touch a circle and from the point of contact a chord be drawn, the angles which the chord makes with the tangent are equal to the angles in the alternate segments.

If two chords of a circle intersect either inside or outside the circle the rectangle contained by the parts of the one is equal to the rectangle contained by the parts of the other.

Class X.

PRACTICAL.

Construction of a fourth proportional to three given straight lines, and a mean proportional to two given straight lines.

Construction of a square equal in area to a given polygon.

THEORETICAL.

Proportion : Similar triangles.

If a straight line is drawn parallel to one side of a triangle, the other two sides are divided proportionally; and the converse.

If two triangles are equiangular, their corresponding sides are proportional; and the converse.

If two triangles have one angle of the one equal to one angle of the other and the sides about these equal angles proportional, the triangles are similar.

The internal bisector of an angle of a triangle divides the opposite sides internally in the ratio of the sides containing the angle and likewise the external bisector externally.

The ratio of the areas of similar triangles is equal to the ratio of the squares on corresponding sides.

HISTORY SYLLABUS FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL Class III.

STORIES OF WORLD HISTORY.

Selections from the following :—

- I.—Sennacherib and Assyria; Nebuchadnezzar and Babylon; the Arts of Egypt, including brickmaking, building cities (Rameses), the Pyramids (Cheops) and embalming (Tutankamen); Cyrus and Persia.
- II.—Hebrew Heroes—Abraham, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, David, Solomon.
- III.—Heroes of Greece—Lycurgus and education; Leonidas and his band of heroes; Themistocles and Salamis; Pericles, the lover of the people and of art; Epiminondas, the saviour of Thebes; Alexander the Great.
- IV.—Roman Heroes—Horatius, Mucius Scaevola, Cincinnatus, Camillus, Marcus Manlius, Scipio and Hannibal, Julius Caesar, Constantine the Great.
- V.—Frankish Heroes—Charlemagne, Clovis.

Class IV.

Outlines of Indian History in story form from the earliest times to the end of the Moghul Period. The Syllabus should include—

- (1) The physical features of India and their influence on the history of the country.
- (2) The earliest inhabitants of India. The Aborigines. The Dravidians.
- (3) The Aryans and their settlements. Vedic civilisation. The Rig Veda. The Caste System.
- (4) Stories of some of the chief Hindu Kingdoms.
- (5) Stories from the two Epics; their historical value.
- (6) Buddhism and Jainism.
- (7) Alexander's invasion and its consequences.
- (8) Chandra Gupta's Empire. Megasthenes' account of India.
- (9) Asoka the Great; his edicts and missions to distant countries.
- (10) The Scythian, Gupta and Harsha Empires.
- (11) Hiuen-tsang's description of India, and the decline of Buddhism.
- (12) The Rajputs; their origin, rise and character.

Outlines of Indian History in story form, continued as shown below—

- (1) Rise and spread of Mahomedanism.
- (2) Early Mahomedan invasions. Mahmud of Ghazni and his work. Muhammad Ghor's invasions and achievements. Prithwira and Jaichand.
- (3) The Slave Dynasty. Personal qualities of the different Sultans.
- (4) The Khilji Dynasty. Jalaluddin and Allauddin.
- (5) The Toghluks Dynasty. Mohammed Toghluks and Feroz Shah. Invasion of Timur.
- (6) Rise of saints and religious teachers; Ramanand, Kabir, Nanak and Chaitanya.

(7) The establishment of the Moghul Empire—

- (a) Babar, the founder of the Empire.
- (b) Humayun ; his defeat and flight.
- (c) Sher Shah, his character and administrative system.
- (d) Akbar ; his policy and his conquests. Greatness of the reign.

(8) The later Moghuls—

- (a) Jehangir, accession and character. Marriage with Nur Jehan ; relations with Europeans.
- (b) Shah Jehan ; his campaign and beneficent rule ; the Taj Mahal ; his unhappy end.
- (c) Aurungzeb ; his character and policy.

Class VI.OUTLINES OF ENGLISH HISTORY.

Stories from a simple reader. The period should extend from the earliest times to the end of the Tudors.

Class VII.

Outlines of the History of India in connection with England, as given below—

- (1) Trade routes to India ; old routes, Cape of Good Hope route, and modern routes.
- (2) Trade between Europe and India and its importance. The English, the French and the Dutch Merchant Companies and their early settlements. The first Charter of the East India Company.
- (3) The French in India ; Dupleix. The English in India ; Clive. English wars and territorial acquisitions in Madras, Bengal and Bombay. Early history of Calcutta.
- (4) The career of Warren Hastings, the first Governor-General ; his administrative reforms.
- (5) Pitt's India Act : Lord Cornwallis ; his administrative reforms ; the Permanent Settlement. Sir John Shore ; his non-intervention policy.
- (6) Lord Wellesley ; his wars with Mysore and with the Mahrattas ; the system of Subsidiary Treaties.
- (7) Lord Minto ; state of Central India ; extension of relation of the British Indian Government with foreign powers outside India ; renewal of the Company's Charter.
- (8) Lord Hastings, his wars with Nepal and with the Mahrattas. Lord Amherst ; the First Burmese War.
- (9) Lord William Bentinck ; his social and administrative reforms ; renewal of the Company's Charter. Lord Auckland ; his policy ; the First Afghan War. Lord Ellenborough ; the Sind War. Lord Hardinge ; the First Sikh War.
- (10) Lord Dalhousie ; the Second Sikh War ; the doctrine of lapse and the annexation policy ; the Second Burmese War ; material progress of the country under Dalhousie.
- (11) Lord Canning ; the Indian Mutiny ; the assumption of direct government by the Crown ; the Queen's Proclamation.

Class VIII.

(i) Outlines of the History of India in connection with England continued as shown below—

- (1) The Mahrattas and their rise ; Sivaji and his successors ; Mahratta systems of war, administration and revenue ; rise of the Peshwas ; Baji Rao and his successors ; origin of the chief existing Mahratta states.
- (2) Mysore.—Hyder Ali ; his wars with the Mahrattas, the Nizam and the English. Tipu Sultan. Restoration of the Hindu Dynasty.
- (3) The Sikhs.—Origin and religion. Guru Govinda ; struggle with Ahmed Shah Abdali. Ranjit Singh and his conquests. The Khalsa. Ranjit Singh's successors.

- (4) India under the Viceroys. Financial reforms. The Orissa and other great famines. The Second and Third Afghan Wars. The Third Barmese War; delimitation of frontier boundaries.
- (5) The King Emperor's Visit and the Imperial Durbar; decisions about Delhi and Bengal.
- (6) India in the Great World War.
- (7) The Reform Act of 1919. The new Indian Constitution.
- (8) Outline of material progress of India under British rule.

(ii) Civics—

The idea of a community; its various forms from a school society to an Empire. The necessity of rules or laws for each community. The necessity of machinery to see that the rules or laws are obeyed.

Need for the security of life and property. Comparison of law and order with might and right.

The ancient method of village self-government by panchayat. The modern method of government by a union board elected by the ratepayers.

The village chaukidar working under the supervision of the panchayat or union board.

The government of towns by municipal commissioners elected by the ratepayers and of the non-municipal areas of districts by district boards. The division of a province into districts and subdivisions.

The government of provinces by the Governor with his Executive Council and Ministers, and with the Legislative Council elected by all ratepayers and taxpayers. The duties of the Provincial Government in respect to the protection of life and property, education, public health, facilities of communication, encouragement of agriculture, industry and trade.

Classes IX and X.

HISTORY OF INDIA.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses for Classes IX and X, guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University, which states that the courses in History shall include "a Reader on the History of England and a Reader on Indian History with special reference to Bengal, including a short account of the administration of British India and of the progress of India under British rule."

The following should be borne in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses:—

- (1) The aim should be to present a solid amount of definite historical knowledge, developing the sense of time and laying more stress on relationships of cause and effect as the pupil grows older.
- (2) The treatment of the subject should be of a continuous nature.
- (3) A text-book should be used and every pupil should possess a copy. The teacher will pass lightly over certain parts, emphasise others by more careful treatment, and from his greater knowledge and more certain insight, introduce much explanation and illustrative matter orally.
- (4) The text-book need not be read in class; the teacher will in his treatment of the matter keep fairly close to the order and context of the successive paragraphs.
- (5) The teacher should set portions of the text to be read at home in advance, with questions set to keep the attention of the boys on what is of real importance. The actual lessons should be devoted to exposition, by a mixture of lecturing and questioning, of what the boys have read.
- (6) Recent history should not be taught by reigns. Some teachers make use of connected stories under such heads as "The Growth of the Empire." Others teach through the lives and careers of the men who played a principal part in them, e.g., the growth of the Moghul Empire through the life and work of Akbar.
- (7) There should be frequent reference to earlier events that bear upon the year's work as well as illustrations from the institutions and customs of to-day.

Class IX.CIVICS.

The State and its duties. Organisation and work of each of the following Departments;—Army, Navy, Police and Jail, Justice, Posts and Telegraphs, Railway, Public Works, Education, Agriculture, Irrigation, Industries, Health, Sanitary, Revenue.

Imperial and Provincial Governments. The district officer and other executive officers of Government in districts. The Services and their recruitment.

The Indian States and their relationship to the British Government. The Chamber of Princes.

The League of Nations ; its successes and hopes.

The questions to be considered by a voter. The rights and duties of a citizen. Public service. Social reform.

Class X.

The State and the encouragement of industries. Protection of inventions. Industrial exhibitions. Free scope for commercial and industrial enterprise.

The State and protective works against famine ; famine relief.

The State and encouragement of thrift. Banking, co-operative credit societies, insurance companies, provident funds.

The State and control of vice. Laws against gambling? Control of the sale of liquor, ganja, and opium.

The municipal council or union board and its duties in regard to public health ; the supply of good drinking water ; and facilities of communication and education.

GEOGRAPHY SYLLABUS FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class III.

1. The points of the compass.
2. Simple outline plans of the class room, of the class room and adjoining room, of the school, and of the school and adjoining streets.
3. To give the children some kind of idea as to what a map means by relating map symbols to the facts of their own experience.
4. To use knowledge to give a very elementary idea of the main geographical facts of Bengal, those receiving most attention which are near the home district and those at a greater distance having less emphasis.
5. To give an account of a few typical peoples whose lives are very obviously controlled by their environment, but which differ from those of the people of Bengal.
6. Observations as to direction of wind, and of the shadow cast by the sun at mid-day throughout the year.

Class IV.

1. The general distribution of land and water masses in the world. The geography of Bengal in more detail. The place of India in the map of the world. The geography of India in general.
2. A number of simple lessons on the world, emphasis being laid more on the people than on the region.
3. Ideas of length, e.g., a foot, a yard, twenty yards. Judging the distance of various prominent objects from the school. Daily observation of the direction of the wind and the character of the weather.
4. Map drawing and map reading, especially in connection with Bengal and India.

Class V.

1. Brief revision of the world geography studied in Classes III and IV.
2. The geography of India in more detail. Broad regional survey of Asia ; contrasts with other continents.
3. Simple ideas about the size and shape of the earth ; movements of the earth ; day and night.
4. Map reading and map drawing, especially in connection with Asia and India.
5. Daily reading of the thermometer and rain-gauge.

Class VI.

1. Broad regional survey of Africa and Australia ; emphasis to be laid on the region rather than on the people.
2. Simple ideas about latitude and temperature ; longitude and time ; rainfall and its causes.
3. Map drawing and map reading, especially in connection with Africa and Australia.
4. Daily observation of the thermometer, rain-gauge and barometer.

Class VII.

1. Broad regional survey of North and South America. Comparison with Africa and Australia as regards belts of climate and vegetation.
2. Simple ideas about the solar system ; movements of the sun and moon ; the phases of the moon ; eclipses and their causes ; the revolution of the earth ; the seasons ; the tides and their causes.
3. Map drawing and map reading, especially in connection with North and South America.
4. Study of the daily weather report.

Class VIII.

1. Broad regional survey of Europe with special reference to Great Britain. Contrasts with other continents.
2. Simple ideas about climate and climatic zones ; winds and their causes ; land and sea breezes ; monsoon winds ; cyclones ; ocean currents.
3. Map drawing and map reading, especially in connection with Europe.
4. Study of the daily weather report.

Classes IX and X.

1. Broad outline of world geography with special reference to the British Empire and including the following :—
 - (a) The more important physical features of each continent.
 - (b) The main facts leading up to climate and vegetation.
 - (c) The major natural regions of the world.
 - (d) The occupations and characteristics of peoples in different regions.
 - (e) A few chief towns.

N.B.—Comparison with Asia and India should constantly be made

NATURE STUDY SYLLABUSES FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class IV.A

1. The parts of a plant.
2. The seed and its helpers—air, warmth and moisture. The growth of the seed.
3. Roots and their work.
4. The function of the stem.
5. Leaves and their work ; examination of shape, margins and veining.
6. The parts of a flower ; identification of a few common garden flowers.
7. Collection and examination of fruits.
8. Observation of plant adjustment to light.
9. Identification of some of the common trees of the neighbourhood.
10. The keeping of a nature diary.
11. Making a collection of wild flowers from the neighbourhood.

B

1. Some observation lessons from insect life, e.g., the ant, bee, spider and mosquito.
2. The simple study of the sparrow and the crow ; observation of their habits.
3. Life history of the frog and the butterfly.

Class V.A

1. The life history of a plant from observation.
2. Study of the growth of a plant from (a) a bean and (b) maize.
3. The action of light on plants.
4. Kinds of roots and their structure.
5. Observation of the time of flowering of plants with the correlative natural phenomena.
6. Recognising and learning the names of a few common wild flowers; the structure of four of them.
7. Food materials of plants; how and where obtained.
8. The plant as a storehouse for food.
9. The relationship between insects and flowers.
10. Seeds and their dispersal.
11. Following the new leaf formation, flower and fruit production and leaf fall of four local trees.
12. The keeping of a nature diary.

1. Insect life in the local tank. Life history of the water-beetle, the water-snail and the water-spider.
2. Studying the habits of the squirrel and the bat.
3. Recognition of a few local birds by sight and by their notes; studying their habits as far as possible.

Class VI.A

1. Examination of a number of the common flowering plants of the neighbourhood with reference to roots, stems, leaves, flowers, fruits and seeds: observation of the functions of each part.
2. Study of a few typical flowers; recognising wild flowers resembling in general structure those studied in the class.
3. Following the seasonal activities of four more trees.
4. Study of a few water-plants of the neighbourhood, especially the lotus lily and the water hyacinth.
5. How some plants protect themselves.
6. Kinds of soil and their suitability.
7. Keeping of nature calendars and diaries.

B

1. The common kinds of fishes and reptiles; their characteristics.
2. Observation of the habits of familiar birds—pigeon, hen, duck, kite, vulture.
3. The structural difference between the herbivorous and the carnivorous animals, and their distinctive habits.

C

Knowledge by observation of the broad phenomena of nature in the different seasons.

NOTE.—The lessons in connection with the above syllabuses should be of as practical a nature as possible. The work may include rambles and excursions to study plants and animals; collection of specimens; records of life histories of animals or plants with drawings; and school gardening.

2. Physical—properties of sand and clay.
3. Behaviour of sand and clay as regards moisture, absorption and retention.
4. Classification of soils according to their physical constitution.
5. Germination of seeds—
 - (a) observation of process;
 - (b) conditions necessary for germination of seeds to be illustrated by experiments.
6. Depths of sowing of seeds of important farm crops (experimental work).
7. A desi plough—its parts and their function (in brief).
8. Ladder—its uses and importance.
9. Rake—its uses.
10. Preparation of seed bed—methods of sowing and their applicability to the different conditions and crops.
11. Tilth—what it is, why important and how secured (pot experiment).
12. Crops—rabi and kharif—preparing a list of rabi and kharif crops and identifying them.
13. Methods of propagation—
 - (a) from seed;
 - (b) from parts of plants.
14. Transplantation, growing and transplanting rice and vegetables such as cauliflower, etc.
15. Kharif crops.

Class VII.

1. Iron plough—its work and efficiency as compared with that of the desi plough.
2. Seed testing—importance of keeping seed pure.
3. Methods of sowing—advantages of drill sowing illustrated by actual field sowing.
4. Interculture—why done; its importance; uses of hoes and harrows (by actual field observation).
5. Study of important weeds growing around the school—their habits and seasons of appearance—methods of eradication where successful.
6. Harvesting and threshing of wheats; methods.
7. Storage of bhusa and grain; methods.
8. Retting of jute and making of ropes.
9. An insect; its description; how to distinguish it from other animals.
10. Useful and injurious insects; study of a few typical ones.

Class VIII.

1. Study of rabi and kharif crops by actually growing them; identification, time, and methods of sowing and harvesting.
2. Fairly full information about the following crops:—
Jute, paddy, sugarcane, tobacco, cotton, rye, sesamum, gram, mung, kalai, maize, juar, wheat.
3. Rotation of crops, why necessary—chief rotations practised under different conditions.
4. Leguminous crops—their importance and crop rotation.
5. Fallowing—its advantage.
6. Manures—why applied. Farmyard manure—its value in agriculture. Other manures applied.
7. Collection and methods of storing farmyard manure. Why pit storage is better than heap storage, etc.
8. Study of common water lifts, importance of water to crops, loss of soil water and how to prevent it.
9. Principles governing cultivation of unirrigated lands and methods of conservation of moisture.
10. Study of chief insect pests—preventive and remedial measures.
11. Insects attacking stored grain—preventive measures.
12. Appraisalment of crops; practice in measurement of fields.
13. Study of different types of jute, paddy, sugarcane, tobacco and cotton.
14. Housing and feeding of cattle; importance of sanitation.

NOTE.—(1) Sowing of vegetables to be started from class IV and to continue till the end of the course. (2) Lessons in all classes to be taken according to the agricultural calendar. (3) Crops to be grown according to the standard rotation of the tract.

SYLLABUS OF SCIENCE IN RELATION TO PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

(The subject should be taught as far as possible by observation and experiment.)

Class VII.

1. The solar system : movements of the sun and moon ; some well-known constellations ; movements of the stars.
2. The sun as the source of light and heat ; sun and shadow & the position of the sun at various times of the day and season.
3. The earth ; its size, shape and constituent parts.
4. Rotation of the earth ; day and night.
5. The phases of the moon ; eclipses and their causes ; comets and falling stars.
6. The revolution of the earth ; the seasons.
7. Latitude and temperature ; longitude and time ; sundials and solar days.
8. The tides ; high, low and spring tides ; their causes ; bores.

Class VIII.

1. Climate and climate zones.
2. Temperature and its measurement. The thermometer ; its principle and construction. Physical conditions which affect temperature.
3. The pressure of the air and its measurement ; the principle of the barometer ; pressure at different altitudes ; effect of the earth's revolution ; simple weather records.
4. Ventilation and its relation to convection ; the cause of winds ; land and sea breezes ; monsoon winds ; cyclones.
5. How air transmits sound ; the cause of the electric spark ; thunder and lightning.
6. Water vapour in the air ; evaporation and condensation in nature —dew and frost ; fogs and mists ; condition of formation.
7. The four kinds of clouds ; their formation and function.
8. Rain and its formation ; measurement of rain ; the rain-gauge ; the relation between temperature and rainfall ; the influence of mountains and winds ; mean annual rainfall ; weather charts.
9. Snow and ice ; glaciers and icebergs ; their formation.
10. Spectrum analysis ; the rainbow and its colours ; explanation of formation.

SCIENCE SYLLABUSES FOR CLASSES IX AND X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses for Classes IX and X guided by the proposed Syllabuses in Elementary Physics and Chemistry, in Experimental Mechanics, and in Botany of the University of Calcutta or of the Education Department.

THE SYLLABUS IN SANSKRIT FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class VII.

(i) The writing of Devanagari script. As soon as the letters are known words and sentences may be practised. Transcription, from the black-board and from the reader is essential.

(ii) Ordinary Sandhis (with illustrations from the Sanskrit reader) ; declension of typical nouns, pronouns and adjectives ; conjugation of verbs in common use such as bhu (भू), kri (कृ), gam (गम), vid (विद्), as (अस्), etc., in lat (लट्), lot (लोट्), lang (लङ्), bidhiling (विधिलिङ्), and lrit (लृट्) ; elementary distinctions of number, gender and simple case endings ; concords* of adjective and noun, nominative and verb ; simple parsing (पद परिचय).

Construction of simple sentences illustrating these.

(iii) Reading of the text-book and explanation of passages. The text-book should be a Sanskrit Primer printed in Devanagari characters and should contain about 30 pages. It should begin with easy sentences about familiar objects and actions within the range of the pupils' experience, and should lead up gradually to short stories and easy poems.

Thirty lines of poetry should be committed to memory. All explanations by the teacher should be in the Vernacular or in English.

(iv) Writing of passages dictated from the reader.

(v) Translations of simple sentences from the Vernacular or from English into Sanskrit.

Class VIII.

(i) Intelligent reading of the Sanskrit reader and explanation of its passages in the Vernacular or English. The Sanskrit reader should consist of about 40 pages; and should contain passages from Hitopodesha, Panchatantra, Vishnupuran, the Ramayana and the Mahabharat, and the Chanakya slokes.

Forty lines of poetry should be committed to memory.

(ii) Fuller knowledge of Sandhis; declensions; case endings and their application; cases; conjugation in ten classes of verbs in all forms except lut (लुट्), lung (लङ्), lring (लृङ्), and ashirling (आशीर्लिङ्); simple कृ० प्रत्यय (कृ०, दा०, लाप्, शङ् and शानिङ्); use of आत्मनेपद; and परस्मैपद; principles of कर्तृवाच्य, कर्मवाच्य and भाववाच्य; elementary knowledge of समास.

Construction of simple sentences illustrating these.

(iii) Construction of sentences with words and expressions learnt from the text-book and the teacher.

(iv) Translation of passages from the Sanskrit reader and of easy unseen passages into the Vernacular or into English; and also translation of simple passages from the Vernacular or English into Sanskrit.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University.

The following points should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses:—

- (i) At the end of the course, the pupils should be able to understand ordinary Sanskrit, and to express very simple ideas in Sanskrit.
- (ii) Grammar and language; rules and examples should be taught together.
- (iii) Proper stress should be laid on distinct pronunciation. Pauses should be determined by the sense of the text at the time of reading.
- (iv) Progressive exercises in written composition and translation both from and to the Vernacular or English should form a regular part of the course.
- (v) The various parts of the course in each class should be taught in correlation with each other.

SYLLABUS IN PERSIAN FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class VII.

(i) The writing of Persian script. As soon as the letters are known, words and sentences may be practised. Transcription from the black-board and from the reader is essential.

(ii) Simple Persian words with their meaning. Compound words with their meaning. All explanation by the teacher should be in the Vernacular or in English.

(iii) Simple accidence including simple ideas of verbs and tenses; substantives and particles; kinds of verbs; tenses, moods and conjugations of verbs.

Construction of simple sentences to illustrate these.

(iv) Reading of the text-book and explanation of passages. The text-book should consist of about 30 pages. It should begin with easy sentences about familiar objects and actions within the range of the pupils' experience; and should lead up gradually to short stories and easy poems.

Thirty lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

(v) Writing of passages dictated from the reader.

(vi) Translation of simple sentences from the Vernacular or English into Persian.

Class VIII.

(i) Accidence including nouns with their kinds, number, gender and case; adjectives and their comparison; pronouns, prepositions, conjunctions and interjections. Conjugations of the different tenses of verbs; active and passive voices.

Construction of simple sentences to illustrate the above.

(ii) Intelligent reading of the Persian reader, and explanation of its passages in the Vernacular or English. The Persian reader should consist of about 40 pages, and should contain easy extracts, easy stories and easy poetical pieces.

Forty lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

(iii) Construction of sentences with words and expressions learnt from the text-book and the teacher. The writing of simple sentences and short stories.

(iv) Translation of passages from the Persian reader, and of easy unseen passages into the Vernacular or English; and also translation of simple passages from the Vernacular or English into Persian.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the University of Calcutta.

The following points should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses:—

(i) At the end of the course, the pupils should be able to understand ordinary written and spoken Persian, to write in Persian, and to express very simple ideas in Persian.

(ii) The reading matter should contain extracts not only from classical writers but also from modern authors.

(iii) Grammar should be taught more by reference to the prescribed texts than by learning by heart from grammar books.

(iv) More time and attention than formerly should be given to translation from the Vernacular or English into Persian and to Persian composition so that students may acquire some facility in writing correct and idiomatic Persian.

(v) The various parts of the course in each class should be taught in correlation with each other.

SYLLABUS IN ARABIC FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.Class VII.

(i) The writing of Arabic script. As soon as the letters are known, words and sentences may be practised. Transcription from the black-board and from the reader is essential.

(ii) Simple Arabic words with their meaning. Compound words with their meaning. All explanations by the teacher should be in the Vernacular or in English.

(iii) Simple accidence including substantives and particles; kinds of verbs; tenses, moods and conjugations of verbs. Construction of simple sentences to illustrate these.

(iv) Reading of the text-book and explanation of passages. The text-book should consist of about 30 pages. It should begin with easy sentences about familiar objects and actions within the range of the pupils' experience, and should lead up gradually to short stories and easy poems.

Thirty lines of poetry should be committed to memory.

(v) Writing of passages dictated from the reader.

(vi) Translation of simple sentences from the Vernacular or English into Arabic.

Class VIII.

(i) Accidence including nouns with their kinds, number, gender and case; adjectives and their comparison; pronouns, prepositions, conjunctions and interjections. Conjugations of the different tenses of verbs; active and passive voices.

Construction of simple sentences to illustrate the above.

(ii) Intelligent reading of the Arabic reader, and explanation of its passages in the Vernacular or English. The Arabic reader should consist of about 40 pages, and should contain easy extracts, easy stories and easy poetical pieces.

Forty lines of poetry should be committed to memory.

(iii) Construction of sentences with words and expressions learnt from the text-book and the teacher. The writing of simple sentences.

(iv) Translation of passages from the Arabic reader and of easy unseen passages into the Vernacular or English; and also translation of simple passages from the Vernacular or English into Arabic.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the University of Calcutta. The following points should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses :—

- (i) At the end of the course, the pupils should be able to understand ordinary written and spoken Arabic, to write in Arabic, and to express very simple ideas in Arabic.
- (ii) Grammar should be taught more by reference to the prescribed texts than by learning by heart from grammar books.
- (iii) More time and attention than formerly should be given to translation from English or the Vernacular into Arabic and to Arabic composition so that students may acquire some facility in writing correct and idiomatic Arabic.
- (iv) The various parts of the course in each class should be taught in correlation with each other.

SYLLABUS IN PALI FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class VII.

(i) Declensions of nouns, pronouns and adjectives (Sabdarūpa), conjugations of simple roots in Vattamānā, ajjatanī, bhabissanti, pancamī, sattami and sandhikappa.

(ii) The following stories should be read for translation into the students' mother-tongue :—

Vānarīnda Jātāka, Sihacamma Jātāka, Sumsumāra Jātāka, Katakamuttī Jātāka, Giridanta Jātāka, Kachapa Jātāka, Javāsākura Jātāka and Kurungamiga Jātāka.

(iii) Simple sentences to be framed in Pali; and simple sentences in English or the Vernacular to be translated into Pali.

Class VIII.

(i) Revision of the portion prescribed for Class VII. Case-endings and their application (Kāraka). Compounds (Samāsa); derivative conjugations (passive, causative, denominative, intensive desideratives and denominatives) and indeclinables.

(ii) The following stories should be read for translations into English :—

Sasajātaka, Commasātākajātaka, Baverujātaka, Gangeyyājātaka, Kosiyājātaka, Suhakhājātaka, Ulukājātaka, Vedabbhājātaka, Phalajātaka, Dadihahavājātaka.

(iii) Simple passages to be translated from Pali into English, and from English into Pali.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University.

The following should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses :—

- (i) Grammar and language, rules and examples should be taught together.
- (ii) The various parts of the course in each class should be taught in correlation with each other.

SYLLABUS IN URDU FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.Class VII.

(i) The writing of Urdu script. As soon as the letters are known words and sentences may be practised. Transcription from the black-board and from the reader are essential.

(ii) Simple Urdu words with their meaning. Compound words with their meaning. All explanation by the teacher should be in the Vernacular or in English.

(iii) Simple accidence including simple ideas of verbs and tenses; substances and particles; kinds of verbs; tenses, moods and conjugations of verbs.

Construction of simple sentences to illustrate the above.

(iv) Reading of the text-book and explanation of passages. The text-book should consist of about 30 pages. It should begin with easy sentences about familiar objects and actions within the range of the pupil's experience; and should lead up gradually to short stories and easy poems.

Thirty lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

(v) Easy conversation. Much stress to be laid on wide vocabulary and correct expression.

(vi) Writing of passages dictated from the reader.

(vii) Translation of simple sentences from the Vernacular or English into Urdu.

Class VIII.

(i) Accidence including nouns with their kinds, number, gender and case; adjectives and their comparison; pronouns, prepositions, conjunctions and interjections. Conjugations of the different tenses of verbs; active and passive voices.

Construction of simple sentences to illustrate the above.

(ii) Intelligent reading of the Urdu reader, and explanations of its passages in the Vernacular or English. The Urdu reader should consist of about 40 pages, and should contain easy extracts, easy stories, and easy poetical pieces.

Forty lines of poetry should be learnt by heart.

(iii) Construction of sentences with words and expressions learnt from the text-book and the teacher. The writing of simple sentences and short stories.

(iv) Easy conversation including simple idioms.

(v) Translation of passages from the Urdu reader and of easy unseen passages into the Vernacular or English; and also translation of simple passages from the Vernacular or English into Urdu.

Classes IX and X.

Head Masters should draw up their own Syllabuses guided by the Syllabus for the Matriculation Examination of the University of Calcutta.

The following points should be kept in mind when drawing up the Syllabuses:—

(i) At the end of the course, the pupils should be able to understand ordinary written and spoken Urdu, to write in Urdu, and to carry on ordinary conversation in Urdu.

(ii) The reading matter should be composed chiefly of extracts from modern authors, and should be in simple language.

(iii) Grammar should be taught more by reference to the prescribed texts than by learning by heart rules from grammar books.

(iv) Special attention should be given to the acquirement of fluent speech in Urdu.

(v) The various parts of the course in each class should be taught in correlation with each other.

THE HANDWRITING SYLLABUS FOR THE SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class III.

Bengali.—Copying of sentences from the blackboard. A copy-book for writing of medium size. Transcription of short paragraphs from the readers. Easy dictation with a minimum of ten words a minute.

English.—Small and capital letters in ordinary use. Small and capital letters as found in printed books. Easy English words and sentences. The figures 1—9. The letter should be taught in groups of similarity of form. The form should be of simple character, and those used in everyday life. All merely ornamental and useless strokes should be avoided.

Copying of letters, words and sentences from the blackboard and readers. A large-hand double-lined copy-book.

Particular attention should be given to the position of the body, the paper and the pen when writing.

All writing should be clean, neat and easily legible. The amount written each lesson should be small. The quality of the writing is of chief importance.

Class IV.

Bengali.—Copy-book writing of ordinary size. Transcription of paragraphs from the blackboard and from readers. Dictation of paragraphs of about ten lines with greater speed than in Class III.

English.—Copy-book writing of medium size. Transcription from blackboard and readers. Easy dictation. Special attention should be given to the spacing between letters of the same word and between successive words; it should be neither cramped nor exaggerated.

Class V.

Bengali and English.—Copy-book writing, transcription and dictation as in Class IV. More attention should be given to rapidity of writing consistent with legibility.

Class VI.

Bengali and English.—Continuation of transcription, dictation and copy-book writing. All writing should now be of ordinary size and with single lines.

All written exercises should be done with the maximum degree of rapidity consistent with full legibility.

SYLLABUS OF MANUAL TRAINING AND HAND AND EYE TRAINING.

Class III.—Cardboard Modelling.

1. To construct a full-sized cardboard scale twelve inches long, showing inches, half inches, quarter inches, eighth inches and (between the 9 and 12 inch marks) divisions of $\frac{1}{16}$ parts of an inch.

2. To construct other cardboard scales of—

- (i) Half full size or 6 inches to the foot.
- (ii) Quarter full size or 3 inches to the foot.
- (iii) One inch to the foot.

3. To construct two cardboard set-squares, one 45° , 45° ; and the other 30° , 60° .

4. To draw out and construct in cardboard the following geometrical solids:—

Cube, rectangular prism, triangular prism, any polygonal prism, rectangular pyramid, triangular pyramid, any polygonal pyramid.

5. To draw out and construct in cardboard simple geometrical solids built up of combinations of the foregoing, and also simple objects leading from the foregoing such as rectangular box with lid, boxes of mat-box pattern, pencil case, pen tray.

6. The pupils should be instructed in the use of gum, paste and glue ; and the scoring knife, cutting board, straight edge, scissors, holders and scales. They should also have some acquaintance with bookbinders' cloth and calico strips for binding edges ; and fancy and coloured surface papers for embellishing and mounting.

7. Cardboard should be used in three thicknesses, viz. : (i) thin, (ii) medium, and (iii) thick, depending on the dimensions of the model to be constructed.

Class IV.

1. With the practice gained in drawing out and constructing the geometrical models in class III, the pupil will now be able to proceed to more difficult but more interesting models.

2. The following models are suggested :—

(a) Cardboard protractor to read 180° .

(b) Box with inclined sides, stool, table, chair, house showing doors and windows, almirah, bed, photograph frame, picture-frame, clock showing face, different shaped vases with flat sides, book-rack, chest of drawers, hinged boxes.

3. The pupil should also be given practice in drawing out and constructing models involving surfaces curved in one direction, such as :—

Cylinder with closed ends, cone, flower-pot, box with curved top, cylindrical pencil case, bath, curved photograph, or picture-frame, water-bucket, flower vases.

This work may be elaborated to include models having curved surfaces meeting in mitred edges such as fancy boxes and vases.

4. The manual instructor should vary or supplement the above suggested models by models of all sorts of simple school-room and domestic articles and utensils.

Class V.

1. In the two previous years the pupils will have mastered the drawing and construction of models involving plane surfaces with various shapes of perimeter, and models involving curved surfaces in one plane. In this class, he should now proceed to construct models involving combinations of the above. This year's course should also include a number of working models.

2. The following models are suggested :—

Folding camp stool and folding deck chair with any suitable cotton material for seats and pins for hinges ; hand lanterns of different shapes ; house with steps ; plinth verandahs ; doors ; windows and roof ; simple brick or masonry railway bridge ; a sun-dial properly graduated ; palki ; country-boat with sculling oar ; agricultural plough.

3. The following working models are suggested :—

Weighing scales ; see-saw ; swing ; wheelbarrow ; gharry ; motor-car ; railway truck ; pull-punkah ; windmill ; railway signal ; child's perambulator.

Class VI.

1. Cardboard modelling involving the use of other materials than cardboard, such as wood sticks, wire, string and pins may be introduced.

2. The following models are suggested :—

Folding household steps ; bed with plank top and mosquito poles ; rocking chair.

3. The following working models are suggested :—

Cycle ; railway locomotive ; country-boat with sails ; paddle steam-boat ; working crane with pulley blocks ; wheel and axle for raising water buckets from a well ; bullock cart ; oil pressing mill ; sugarcane crushing mill ; surki mill.

4. The pupils might collectively construct all the models comprising a railway station including railway sleepers and rails, signals, platforms, booking and station offices, gates, bridges, locomotives and rolling stock. A small part might be carried out by each pupil on a predetermined scale, and the whole finally pieced together.

The same idea might be applied to a market place, village street, etc.

Class VII.

1. The syllabus for this year should be chiefly concerned with wood strip work and should have a bias towards carpentry so as to be introductory to the carpentry courses of the following three years.

2. Models should, however, be constructed involving a use of all the materials of construction used in the preceding years. Any other suitable and available materials may also be pressed into use such as wood; thin turned metal sheets which can be cut and manipulated almost as easily as cardboard and joined at the edges by folded seams; and sheet glass which can be easily cut and used for windows. Portland cement and sand may be used in the walls of model houses, bridges, etc.

3. The following models are suggested :—

Letters of the alphabet with straight limbs only, post and rail wooden fences, wooden gates, various wooden roof trusses of the well-known types, lattice girder bridge, wooden photograph frame, wooden picture frame; models of buildings such as cowsheds, cookhouse, bungalow; masonry or brick bridges.

4. Corrugated iron sheds or godowns should also be made, and brick and mud used for the internal part of masonry.

5. Iron rails and standards should be made from the wire and corrugated iron out of the tinned sheet; doors, wooden frames and woodwork out of the wood strips; and the sheet glass cut to size and used in the windows.

Thatched roofs can be made from dried grass or cocoanut fibre.

6. In cutting, fitting, joining and nailing the woodwork, the pupil should be shown how to use the tenon saw and sawing block, straight edge, marking knife, measuring rule, hammer, nails and try-square; and how to finish smooth with glass paper.

Class VIII.—Woodwork.

1. Preliminary drawing lessons showing the proper use of the drawing board, try-square, set-squares, scales, compass, pencils, papers and drawing-pins. In each lesson there should be a definite connection between the drawing, demonstration and benchwork.

2. The drawing should be confined to plans, side views, sections and isometric projections; and the drawing course should be so arranged as to develop these in order of difficulty. The pupil should be taught to use only the minimum number of views necessary (e.g., an article may possibly be completely represented by a dimension isometric projection only).

3. The use of the following should be demonstrated :—

Bench, footrule, steel rule, carpenters' pencil or mark knife, bench vice, tenon saw, rip saw, try-square, bench-square, trying plane, jack plane, smoothing plane, mallet, firmer chisels, marking gauge, bradawl, carpenter's hammer, screwdriver, gimlet, glass paper, straight edge.

Pupils should not be allowed to sharpen their own tools in this course.

4. The making of definite models or woodwork articles should not be attempted by pupils until they have become familiar with the use of the above tools. They should be given simple wooden test pieces about 12 to 15 inches long, and an inch or two in cross sectional dimensions. These pieces should always be a little longer than the dimensions intended for the finished piece and should be rough sawn only.

5. The execution of the test pieces should involve the following operations :—

Sawing and marking by pencil and square or by gauge; planing, trying, squaring, smoothing, levelling and grooving; making such carpentry joints as mortice and tenon.

6. Towards the end of the year, the pupils may be allowed to make a few simple woodwork articles, such as simple bracket, soap-box, match-box stand, toothbrush rack, inkpot stand, simple picture-frame, wooden rulers, and pointers.

Class IX.

1. The use of the few remaining carpenters' tools should be learnt, and the test pieces should consist of simple woodwork articles. The pupils should work from dimensioned drawings supplied to them. They should also be required to measure a few woodwork articles, draw their measurements to scale, and make reproductions of them.

2. The chief remaining carpenters' tools are as follows :—

Shooting board, wing compass, spokeshave, wood files and rasps, brace and bits, cramps, gauges, bow saw and rabbit plane, dovetail saw, nail punch, mortice chisels, holdfasts, grindstone, water and oil stones.

3. The test pieces or models should also include the operations of glueing and pinning joints, the use of wire and screw nails, counter-sinking, panelling and cutting out designs with fret or bow saw, chamfering, beading and grooving.

4. The pupils should be shown how to grind and sharpen their tools, and keep them in order.

5. The following models or articles are suggested as test pieces :—

Book-shelf, corner bracket, footstool, boxes of various kinds, camp stool, deck chair, small tables of various kinds, flower-pot stand, wooden tray, hanging shelves, wall plaques, drawing board, teasquare, stationery case, curtain brackets and rods, water-pot stand.

Class X.

1. The pupils will continue to make woodwork articles, and they should be of a more advanced nature. They will also learn how to embellish, finish and polish them.

2. The embellishment of woodwork articles by bevelling and chamfering, beading, grooving, simple carving, panelling and piercing, glass papering and French polishing may be attempted in a simple way.

3. The following test pieces or models are suggested :—

Folding table, simple chair, fancy picture-frame, small medicine chest, nest of drawers for stationery or other purposes, cycle stand, hanging towel rail, fern box, wheelbarrow, wash-basin stand, wooden cradle.

4. Any apparatus that would be useful in the school should also be constructed. Such apparatus should include school rulers, pointers, drawing boards, gymnasium and drill apparatus such as bar bells, Indian clubs, horizontal bar, parallel bars, ladder and vaulting horse.

5. Simple examples of wood turning may also be executed by using the ordinary frame and bowstring arrangement as used in the bazars.

List of Requisites for Cardboard Modelling, Wood Strip Work, etc., for Classes III to VII.

Cardboard (white pulpboard) in three thicknesses—thin, medium, thick.

Fancy papers for covering.

Surface paper for folding and mounting (assorted colours).

Bookbinder's cloth $\frac{3}{4}$ " and $\frac{1}{2}$ " wide and gummed (assorted colours) :—

Calico strips.

Glue pot, glue brushes and glue.

Cutting out knife (Leipsic pattern).

Cutting boards about 14" x 10" x 1".

Straight edge steel, 12".

Scissors.

Folders (bone), 5" long.

Steel squares, 16" x 9".

Brass setsquares.

Footrules or scales.

Water hone for sharpening knives.

List of Materials and Tools required for Wood Strip Work in Classes VI and VII.

Materials—Strips of planed wood 12 inches to 18 inches in length of three widths—1", 1½", and 2", and of three thicknesses, ½", ¾", and 1". Wire nails ½", ¾" and 1". Glass paper for smoothing.

Tools.—Sawing block; lead pencils; metal ruler or scale; small hand saw or tenon saw; try-square; carpenter's hammer.

Materials and Tools required for Carpentry Work in Classes VIII, IX and X for each class of 20 boys.

[Woodworkers' benches should each be provided with planing stop and bench screw or vice. Four scholars may work at each bench; and there may be five benches.]

	No.
Bench holdfasts	2
Bench brush	1
Bradawls	8
Screwdrivers	20
Firmer chisels, ½"	5
Firmer chisels, ¾"	10
Firmer chisels, 1"	10
Firmer chisels, 1½"	20
Firmer chisels, 2"	10
Firmer chisels, 2½"	10
Firmer chisels, 3"	10
Mortise chisels, ½"	4
Mortise chisels, ¾"	4
Mortise chisels, 1"	4
Brace and bits (American pattern), set complete	2
Trysquare, 4½"	20
Bevelsquares	5
Wing compasses	4
Steel camp	1
Half round files (various)	12
Marking gauges	20
Gimlets	8
Glass paper, Nos. 0, 1, 1½, one quire of each	1
Glue pot, glue and brushes, set	1
Gouges, ½" to 2"	5
Grindstone with iron trough and grinding support	1
Carpenters' hammers	20
Carpenters' mallets (small)	20
Marking knives	20
Oil stones	3
Pincers	4
Jack planes	20
Smoothing planes	4
Trying planes	4
Steel rules	20
Tenon saws (10 inches)	20
Panel saws	5
Rip saws	4
Bow saws (8 inches)	2
Spokeshaves	8

A sufficiency of the following requisites should also be provided :—

Chalk, carpenters' pencils, foolscap paper, nails, screws, linseed oil, soap, towels, drawing books and paper, dusters, labels, gum brushes and cord.

THE CLAY-MODELLING SYLLABUS FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF BENGAL.

Class III.

1. To model easy common fruits and vegetables, such as peach, mango, orange, apples, lichi, plantain, potato, brinjal, tamarind, radish, tomato.
2. To model simple objects, such as ink-pot, horse-shoe, spear, knife, book, fan, saw, jug.
3. To model in relief a simple flower or fruit or leaf.

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 8668Com.—The 22nd December 1926.—The services of Military Assistant Surgeon H. C. Pownes, officiating Certifying Surgeon of Factories, Barrackpore, are replaced at the disposal of the Medical Department of this Government, with effect from the 23rd December 1926.

No. 8682Com.—The 22nd December 1926.—It is hereby notified for general information that a license described as the "Chittagong Electric License, 1926", as set forth below, has been granted to the Chittagong Engineering and Electric Supply Company, Limited, Chittagong.

THE CHITTAGONG ELECTRIC LICENSE, 1926.

License for the supply of electric energy granted by the Government of Bengal under the Indian Electricity Act, 1910.

License is hereby granted to the Chittagong Engineering and Electric Supply Company, Limited, Chittagong, to supply electric energy in the area with the powers and upon the terms and conditions, all specified below :—

Short Title.

1. This license may be cited as "The Chittagong Electric License, 1926".

Interpretations.

2. The several words, terms and expressions to which by the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, or any statutory modification thereof or by the rules thereunder meanings are assigned, shall have in this license the same respective meanings provided that in this license :—

- (a) The Act shall mean the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, or any statutory modification thereof.
- (b) The expression "the licensees" shall mean and include the said Chittagong Engineering and Electric Supply Company, Limited, and its permitted assigns.
- (c) The expression "deposited map" shall mean the plan of the area of supply hereinafter specified, which has been deposited with the Government in pursuance of the rules under the Act, which plan is signed for the purpose of identification by the Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Commerce Department and by the applicants, the Chittagong Engineering and Electric Supply Company, Limited, Chittagong.
- (d) The expression "unit" shall mean the quantity of energy contained in a current of one thousand amperes flowing under the electromotive force of one volt during one hour.

Security.

3. (a) The period within which under clause 1 (a) of the Schedule to the Act the licensees shall show that they are in a position fully and efficiently to discharge the duties and obligations imposed upon them by the license shall be six months from the date of publication.

(b) The period within which under clause 1 (b) of the Schedule to the Act the licensees shall deposit or secure such sum as therein mentioned and the sum so to be deposited or secured shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Government, under the clause, be six months and Rs. 5,000, respectively.

Area of supply.

4. The area above referred to within which the supply of energy is authorised by this license (the area of supply under the Act) is the whole of the area bounded as follows :—

North—Tippera Pass road, Golpahar road, Katalganj road and Shaik Abdul Khan's Lane including an extended line of the last mentioned road in a due east direction to high water mark of the east bank of the Chaktai khal.

East—High flood water mark of the east bank of the Chaktai khal to a point 100 feet north of the Korbaniganj foot-bridge from where the line is 250 feet to a point where it meets the Chaktai Lane from where the line is 450 feet to a point on the south bank of the Rajkhal river from where the line is 700 feet from the present high water mark of the east bank of the Chaktai khal.

South—The Karnafully river.

West—Present municipal boundary from Golpahar road to Mohestkhal, thence along Halisahar road to Ishan Mistri's hat, thence south to the Karnafully river.

These boundaries are delineated in the deposited map. The area of supply consists of all the area within these boundaries except (1) all land in occupation of the Assam Bengal Railway (coloured yellow in the deposited map) and (2) those lands in possession of the Chittagong Port Trust which are coloured brown in the deposited map.

Powers to lay mains outside area of supply.

5. The licensees may lay down or place electric supply lines for the conveyance and transmission of energy from a sub-station belonging to the Assam Bengal Railway Company, Limited, to the boundary of the area of supply along the route shown on the plan or map attached to the deposited map and marked A.

Limits within which the supply of energy is to be compulsory.

6. (1) The works to be executed to the satisfaction of the Government under clause IV of the Schedule to the Act are the following, namely:—

Transmission line, high tension mains, underground cables, sub-stations, feeders, transformers and distributors and all other works necessary for the commencement of the supply of electric energy to consumers in:—

Station Road.	Buxir Hat Road
Court Road.	Lammar Bazar Road.
Hospital Road.	Sadarghat Road.
Teri Bazar Road.	Strand Road up to Turner Morrison & Co.

(2) If the licensees fail to comply with the provisions of sub-clause (1), the license may be revoked.

(3) The licensees shall submit reports to the Government every six months from the commencement of this license until the compulsory works specified above are completed. The reports shall state in detail the steps taken and progress made in carrying this license into effect.

(4) Six months before the compulsory works are completed the licensees shall submit to Government a draft of the proposed agreement which they intend to use for the supply of energy to consumers.

Nature of the supply and limits of prices to be charged in respect of the supply of energy.

7. (1) The systems of supply shall be as under:—

- (a) A medium pressure alternating current three phase four wire supply at a pressure, at the consumer's terminals, of 400 volts between phases and 230 volts between phase and neutral at a frequency of 50 cycles per second.
- (b) A high pressure alternating current three phase supply at a pressure not exceeding 6,600 volts between phases at a frequency of 50 cycles per second. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Government from time to time to authorise other systems of supply to be adopted for the purpose of this license.

(2) The prices to be charged by the licensees for energy supplied by them shall not exceed the following maxima, namely:—

- (a) Annas eight per unit (combined flat rate) for lights and fans.
- (b) Annas six per unit for motors up to 5 B. H. P.
- (c) Annas five per unit for motors of and above 5 B. H. P.
- (d) Rupee one and annas four per month per lamp of not exceeding 20 watts rating, burning four hours a day and proportionate charges for lamps of higher ratings, provided that any consumer having any other consuming device than electric lamps shall not be entitled to be charged by this rate, and also that the licensees at their option may install meters at the premises of the consumer on any date and thereafter charge him by the units consumed if they have any reason to believe that the consumer uses his lights for more than four hours a day or in any other way tries to evade payment of due charges.

A minimum charge of Rs. 8 per month per kilowatt connected exclusive of meter rent.

Or in the case of a method of charge approved by the Government in accordance with sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 23 of the Act, such maxima as the Government may fix on approving the matter.

Purchase of undertaking.

8. (a) The option of purchase given by section 7, sub-section (2) of the Act shall be exercisable on the expiration of 30 years from the date of the notification of this license and on the expiration of every subsequent period of ten years. The percentage of the value to be determined in accordance with, and for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Act of the lands, buildings, works, materials and plants of the licensees to be added under the second proviso of that sub-section to such value on account of compulsory purchase, shall be 15 per cent.

(b) It is hereby declared that if a generating station is hereafter erected and used in connection with the undertaking it shall form part of the undertaking for the purpose of purchase under section 5 or 7.

(c) During the period of notice prescribed in section 7 (4) of the Act all extensions and outlays of money debitable to the capital account of the licensees shall be subject to the previous approval of the Government

Additions to, variations from, and exceptions from, the Schedule to the Act.

9. In pursuance of section 3, sub-section (2) (f) of the Act, it is hereby expressly declared that clause IV of the Schedule to the Act shall not apply to any generating station to be hereafter erected by the licensees, but the licensees shall take such steps as are necessary to prevent an interruption of the supply of energy to the consumers in the event of the licensees proposing to change their source of supply to any generating station which may hereafter be erected and the licensees shall inform Government of the arrangements they propose to make.

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 153 Marine.—The 21st December 1926.—Mr. L. J. Macdonald, Senior Master Pilot, Bengal Pilot Service, is appointed to act as a Branch Pilot, with effect from the afternoon of the 10th December 1926.

No. 155 Marine.—The 27th December 1926.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 5 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908 (XV of 1908), the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following alteration in the limits of the Port of Calcutta as defined in this department notification No. 18 Marine., dated the 22nd January 1921 :—

ALTERATION.

The portion of Tolly's nala which lies between Hastings Bridge and the entrance to the Kidderpore Dock canal, shall be withdrawn from the limits of the Port of Calcutta.

2. The Governor in Council is also pleased to declare in exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (2) of the said section that the precise extent of the limits of the Port of Calcutta and of the navigable river and channels leading to the said port in which the said Act is in force, shall be as follows :—

PORT OF CALCUTTA.

On the North—A line drawn due east across the river Hooghly from a pillar at the southern boundary of Messrs. D. Waldie and Company's Chemical Works and Distillery at Konnagar in the district of Hooghly on the right bank of the river to a pillar on the left bank of the river near Panihat in the district of the 24-Parganas.

On the South—A line drawn from a masonry pillar placed at the mouth of the Budge-Budge khal to a pillar on the right bank (Howrah side) of the river Hooghly, bearing north-west of the first named pillar.

The limits of the port include to the east and west of the river Hooghly—

- (a) so much of the river Hooghly and the shores thereof as are within 50 yards of high water mark at spring tides;
- (b) all lands comprised in the area occupied by the Kidderpore Docks and the adjoining works constructed for the purposes of such docks;
- (c) so much of Tolly's nala as lies to the west of a line drawn across the nala 25 feet to the west of Hastings Bridge; and
- (d) the petroleum depot at Budge-Budge including all lands, sheds, railway sidings, and other works appertaining to it.

THE NAVIGABLE RIVER AND CHANNELS LEADING TO THE PORT OF CALCUTTA.

On the North—A line drawn across the river Hooghly from a masonry pillar near the Mission House at Kalna on the right bank of the river in the district of Burdwan to a masonry pillar on the left bank of the river.

On the South—A line drawn east and west of the river Hooghly from the Eastern Channel Floating Light Vessel.

The limits of the said river and channels include all parts of the navigable channels called the Eastern and Western channels, and of the river Hooghly between the northern and southern limits and below high water mark at spring tides.

3. In exercise of the power conferred by section 7 of the said Act, and in supersession of all previous orders on the subject, the Governor in Council is also pleased to appoint the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta to be Conservators of the Port of Calcutta and of the navigable river and channels leading to that port within the said limits.

4. This notification shall take effect from the 1st April 1927, from which date notification No. 18 Marine, dated the 22nd January 1921, shall be cancelled.

No. 156 Marine.—The 27th December 1926.—The following draft of amendments which the Governor in Council proposes to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 19 of the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917 (I of 1917), in the rules for the survey of inland steam-vessels published under this department notification No. 90 Marine, dated the 25th April 1890, is published as required by section 74 of the Act for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 5th day of February 1927.

2. Any objection or suggestion regarding the same, which may be sent to the undersigned by any person before the date aforesaid, will be duly considered :—

Draft amendments.

At the end of rule 1 of the said rules the following proviso shall be inserted, namely :—

"Provided that the Chief Surveyor may, in any particular case, admit an application lodged at his office less than three clear days before the day on which it is desired that the survey shall take place."

2. After rule 12 of the said rules the following rule shall be inserted, namely :—

12A. The charge of overtime fees in respect of surveys or inspections wholly or partially carried out between the hours of 5 P.M. and 7 A.M. shall be regulated as follows :—

- (a) Where the Chief Surveyor has admitted an application for survey on less than three clear days' notice and a surveyor is called upon to undertake the survey or inspection of a vessel after 5 P.M. and before 7 A.M., an additional fee of Rs. 50 shall be charged.
- (b) Where a surveyor is detained at the request of the ship-owner or agent after 5 P.M. to complete a survey undertaken between the hours of 7 A.M. and 5 P.M., an additional fee of Rs. 25 shall be charged if the surveyor is released from duty before 6 P.M., and of Rs. 50 if he is detained later than 6 P.M.
- (c) If three days' notice has been given, but official arrangements have not allowed of the work being done between the hours of 7 A.M. and 5 P.M., no additional fee shall be chargeable.
- (d) Where a surveyor has been called under clause (a) or detained under clause (b), the ship-owner or agent shall give information of the fact in writing to the Chief Surveyor, stating the hours during which the surveyor was in attendance.

NOTICES UNDER THE BENGAL ELECTORAL RULES.

To Babu Charu Chandra Sinha, M.A., B.L., Ramkrishnapore Lane, Howrah.

Please take notice that an election petition has been filed by Babu Khagendra Nath Ganguli against your election in the Bengal Legislative Council for setting aside the order of Rai Sahib Bhupendra Nath Mukherji, Returning Officer for the Howrah non-Muhammadian Constituency, dated the 8th November 1926, and that 4th January 1927 has been fixed for the return of the notice.

P. C. DE, President.

Given under my hand this 23rd day of December 1926.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE VICTOR ALEXANDER GEORGE ROBERT BULWER-LYTTON, EARL OF LYTTON, P.C., G.C.I.E., GOVERNOR OF BENGAL.

In the matter of an application under Rule 32, Part VII, of the Bengal Electoral Rules as published in the Government of India, Home Department, notification No. F.213-V., dated Simla, the 30th July 1923, and

In the matter of an application for setting aside the order of Rai Sahib Bhupendra Nath Mukherjee, Acting Magistrate of Howrah and Returning Officer for the Howrah Municipal non-Muhammadian Constituency, dated the 8th day of October 1926, rejecting the nomination papers of the petitioner for election as member of the Bengal Legislative Council from the said constituency and declaring the petitioner's rival candidate, Babu Charu Chandra Sinha, as duly elected from the said constituency.

The humble petition of Khagendra Nath Ganguli, son of Babu Upendra Nath Ganguli, deceased, by caste Brahmin, by profession Vakil High Court, residing at No. 20, Khetra Mitter Lane, Salkia, thana Golabari, in the town of Howrah,

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH—

1. That your petitioner who was a member of the last Bengal Legislative Council, lately dissolved, was a candidate for election to the said Council from the Howrah Municipal non-Muhammadian Constituency and duly filed four nomination papers signed and subscribed by your petitioner, four different proposers and four different seconders, whose names are all borne on the electoral roll of the aforesaid constituency.

2. That the aforesaid nomination papers of your petitioner, complete strictly in accordance with the form prescribed in schedule III of the electoral rules, were duly filed before Rai Sahib Bhupendra Nath Mukherjee, Acting District Magistrate of Howrah and Returning Officer for the aforesaid constituency.

3. That the aforesaid constituency is entitled to return one member only to the Bengal Legislative Council; and at the last election, your petitioner and Babu Charu Chandra Sinha were the two rival candidates.

4. That, on the 8th day of October 1926, the date fixed by the said Returning Officer for the scrutiny of the nomination papers, your petitioner's rival, the aforesaid Babu Charu Chandra Sinha, raised an objection that your petitioner's nomination papers should be rejected as they did not show whether the names of your petitioner and of his proposers and seconders were included in the list of male or female voters of the constituency and the learned Returning Officer gave effect to the aforesaid objection and rejected all the four nomination papers of your petitioner by one order dated the same day, i.e., the 8th day of October 1926. A copy of the said order is annexed hereto and marked "A".

5. That your petitioner is advised and submits that the aforesaid order of the Returning Officer is bad and unsustainable; and your petitioner accordingly begs to move your Excellency on the following amongst other

Grounds:

First.—For that the learned Returning Officer was wrong in rejecting the nomination papers of your petitioner, although the said nomination papers complied with all the requirements of the electoral rules.

RESOLUTION ON THE SIXTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT CINCHONA PLANTATIONS AND FACTORY IN BENGAL
FOR THE YEAR 1925-26.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Cinchona.

(CALCUTTA, THE 4TH JANUARY 1927.)

RESOLUTION—No. 153Can.

READ—

The sixty-fourth annual report of the Government Cinchona Plantations and Factory in Bengal, for the year 1925-26.

READ ALSO—

The reports of the previous three years.

Mr. C. C. Calder held charge of the office of Superintendent throughout the year.

1. The Government Cinchona Department works two plantations, one at Mungpoo and the other at Munsong, both in the district of Darjeeling, and has also a factory at Mungpoo where quinine and its by-products are manufactured from the bark of trees grown in these plantations and also from Java bark obtained from the Government of India. The area under cinchona at the end of the year was 3,153 acres, showing an increase of 93 acres over the previous year's area of 3,060. The quantity of bark harvested was 538,783 lbs. as against 432,553 lbs. in the previous year. The full outturn could not however be utilised in the factory as there was a large stock of Java bark which required to be treated first. On the whole 1,039,912 lbs. of bark were treated in the factory against 935,998 lbs. in the previous year.

There is considerable difficulty in securing suitable soil for further extension of the plantations. The result of the experiment in the Latpanchor Spur is not hopeful, and the proposal for an experiment in the Samsing area is under examination.

2. The quantity of factory-produce sold during the year was 42,551 lbs. against 43,143 lbs. in the previous year. The decrease was due to a decrease in the sale of Cinchona Febrifuge which had an exceptionally large sale in the previous year. The sale-rates of Quinine Sulphate and other quinine salts which were reduced in the previous year were further reduced during the year under review. Receipts from sales amounted to Rs. 7,58,290, and the total expenditure was Rs. 3,72,870. The profit and loss valuation gives a balance of Rs. 1,93,566 on the profit side, and although this last item was less than in the previous year, the financial results on the whole have been satisfactory.

The preparation of a working plan for the plantations based on an up-to-date survey of the trees, which are now bearing bark and can be expected to bear bark in the next twenty years, is urgently needed.

In the absence of such a survey the figures given for stock in the profit and loss accounts cannot be held to be accurate. Nevertheless there does not seem to be any apprehension of the plantations falling below their present output in the near future, and the thanks of Government are due to Mr. Calder for his efficient administration of the department.

ORDER—Ordered that this resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette and that a copy with a copy of the report be submitted to the Government of India.

By order of the Governor in Council,

F. A. SACHSE,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO ENQUIRE INTO THE CONDITIONS IN BENGAL JAILS.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Jails.

CALCUTTA, THE 15TH JANUARY 1927.

RESOLUTION—No. 685R.J.

IN view of various irregularities that have come to notice in the administration of the jails of the Presidency, and especially in view of the murder of Rai Bhupendra Nath Chatterji Bahadur in the Alipore Central Jail on 28th May 1926, the Governor in Council has decided to appoint a Committee to enquire into the present state of discipline among the staff and inmates in the jails of Bengal and the efficiency and trustworthiness of the subordinate staff and the adequacy of the supervision. The Committee will suggest remedies for all defects that come to their notice, and will also take into consideration the recommendations of the Indian Jails Committee which relate to the management of Central and District Jails, and will advise Government as to the steps which are most urgently necessary to give effect to the main recommendations of that Committee in this respect.

2. The constitution of the Committee will be as follows :—

Chairman—The Hon'ble Mr. Justice H. G. Pearson, Bar-at-Law.

Members—Mr. W. A. Marr, C.I.E., I.C.S., and Khan Bahadur Abdul Momen.

Secretary—Babu Jitendra Chandra Mazumdar, M.A., B.L.

3. The Committee will assemble in Calcutta on January 25th and will submit their report by the middle of April.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the resolution be forwarded to the Chairman and each member of the Committee, for information.

Ordered also that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order of the Governor in Council,

F. A. SACHSE,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

Secondly.—For that the learned Returning Officer was wrong in observing that in none of the nomination papers of the petitioner the description of the subdivision in which the names of your petitioner, his proposers and seconders are entered was not given, as it was not mentioned whether their names were included in the list of male or of female voters; whereas the only recognised subdivision into which the electoral roll was subdivided were the different wards of the municipality and the said nomination papers distinctly stated the description of the respective wards to which your petitioner, his proposers and seconders belonged and their numbers on the electoral roll of the said wards.

Thirdly.—For that the decision of the learned Returning Officer is clearly wrong, in as much as the "subdivision" referred to in schedule III of the electoral rules refers to subdivision into electoral areas (such as the different wards of the municipality in the present case) and does not contemplate any classification of voters according to their sex.

Fourthly.—For that the classification of voters into "male" and "female", and the heading "male electors" printed on the electoral roll of the Howrah Municipal non-Muhammadan Constituency is unauthorised and illegal and can have no reference to the "subdivision" contemplated in schedule III of the electoral rules, in view of the fact that no such expression as "males" or male electors" as signifying a subdivision of the electoral roll appears in the forms prescribed by the Government for the preparation of the electoral roll.

Fifthly.—For that the learned Returning Officer ought to have held that the classification of voters into "male" and "female" was not only unauthorised and illegal, but also inexhaustive, inasmuch as "eunuchs" who may be eligible as voters would not come under either of the said divisions.

Sixthly.—For that under the regulations for the preparation of electoral rolls for the Bengal Legislative Council, authority is given for preparation of separate electoral rolls for separate electoral areas only; contemplating one electoral roll only for one electoral area, comprising both male and female voters, and, in fact, voters of all denominations living in that electoral area; any further subdivision of such electoral roll according to the sex of the voters is unauthorised, illegal and not included within the "subdivision" referred to in schedule III of the electoral rules.

Seventhly.—For that, in accordance with the rules for the preparation of the electoral rolls the registering authority at the previous election divided the Howrah non-Muhammadan Municipal Constituency into as many electoral areas as there were wards in the municipality, and one electoral roll was prepared for each such area comprising voters of all sexes and denominations; and, this year too your Excellency's Government directed the registering authority to bring up the said electoral rolls up to date.

Eighthly.—For that the nomination papers filed by your petitioner complied with the requirements of schedule III of the electoral rules inasmuch as they did give the correct descriptions of the wards or electoral areas into which the electoral roll had been legitimately subdivided as also the numbers on such electoral rolls which your petitioner, his proposers and seconders bore on such rolls.

Ninthly.—For that the nomination papers of your petitioner having complied with all the requirements of law, and there being no doubt as to the identity of your petitioner, his proposers and seconders, the learned Returning Officer was in error in rejecting the nomination papers.

Tenthly.—For that the learned Returning Officer was in error in thinking that the unauthorised classification of voters according to their sex was what was contemplated by "subdivision of electoral roll" mentioned in schedule III of the electoral rules.

Eleventhly.—For that, in view of the fact that your petitioner, his proposers and seconders are all registered on the electoral roll of the Howrah non-Muhammadan Municipal Constituency—a fact not disputed by the rival candidate—and in view of the descriptions given in the nomination papers, the learned Returning Officer was in error in holding that your petitioner, his proposers and seconders were not qualified to stand for election or to propose or to second; and under regulation, XXI, clause (2), the said learned Returning Officer should have held the production of the election roll as conclusive proof of the right of your petitioner, his proposers and seconders.

Twelfthly.—For that, at any rate, in view of the fact that female voters were not eligible to offer themselves as candidates for election to the Bengal Legislative Council, the learned Returning Officer ought to have held that the omission to state the sex of the petitioner or that of his proposers or seconders did not vitiate the nomination papers.

Thirteenthly.—For that there could not have been any doubt as to the identity of your petitioner, his proposers or his seconders in at any rate two of the four nomination papers filed by your petitioner inasmuch as the numbers in the electoral roll against the names of your petitioner, his proposers and seconders in those nomination papers were much higher than the last serial number in the list of female voters in those wards.

Fourteenthly.—For that your petitioner is informed that in other parts of the province the omission to state sex was not considered as non-compliance with the requirements of schedule III of the electoral rules, and nomination papers of candidates were accepted after scrutiny in spite of such omission.

Fifteenthly.—For that even the same learned Returning Officer who rejected your petitioner's nomination papers on the ground that they did not specify whether the candidate, his proposers and seconders were "male" or "female", immediately after such rejection, accepted, after scrutiny, the nomination papers of Mr. Manmatha Nath Roy, M.A., B.L., a candidate for election to the Bengal Legislative Council from the Howrah Rural non-Muhammadian Constituency, although none of the nomination papers of the said Mr. Manmatha Nath Roy contained the sex descriptions of the candidate, his proposers and his seconders.

6. That your petitioner is depositing the sum of rupees one thousand only in cash.

7. That your petitioner is informed that his rival candidate, Babu Charu Chandra Sinha, who was declared elected by the Returning Officer, filed his election expenses on the 10th day of November last.

And your petitioner prays that it be determined that—

- (a) the order of the Returning Officer rejecting your petitioner's nomination papers was wrong and unsustainable ;
- (b) your petitioner's nomination papers should be accepted ;
- (c) the aforesaid Babu Charu Chandra Sinha's election be declared void ;
- (d) a fresh election should be held from the Howrah non-Muhammadian Municipal Constituency ;
- (e) The petitioner be declared entitled to the costs of this petition.

And your Excellency's petitioner, as in duty bound, will pray.

I, Khagendra Nath Ganguli, son of Upendra Nath Ganguli, deceased, by caste Brahmin, by profession Vakil, High Court, residing at No. 20, Khetra Mitter Lane, Salkia, thana Golabaree, district Howrah, do hereby declare that the statements contained in the above petition are all true to my knowledge except those which are distinctly stated therein as being true to my information, or as submission to His Excellency.

Signed by me, at Howrah Bar Library, this the 22nd day of November 1926.

COPY OF ORDER.

I have scrutinised the eligibility of the candidate Babu Khagendra Nath Ganguli, the proposer and seconder, and find that in none of the nomination papers (serial numbers 1, 2, 12 and 13) the description of the subdivision, viz., numbers of candidate, proposer and the seconder in which the names of the persons concerned are entered, is not complied with according to the rules, i.e., it is not mentioned whether their number in the electoral roll are in the list of male or female voters. This objection is taken by the rival candidate Babu Charu Chandra Sinha, and as I find that the description mentioned above, of the subdivision, i.e., of male or female voter, in which the names of the persons concerned are entered must also be given, and these have not been done, they are respectively not qualified to stand for election, to propose and to second the nomination.

The objection, though of a technical character, must however be considered valid as it is noted that the strict compliance of the description of the subdivision in which the name of the person concerned is entered must also be given.

(Returning Officer).

RESOLUTION.

Delhi, the 22nd November 1926.

No. A-637.—Under the provisions of the Indian Copyright Act, 1914, copyright in Government publications vests in the Crown, and any reproduction, without consent, of a work first published by Government ordinarily constitutes an infringement of copyright. The Government of India consider it desirable that the public should be at liberty to reproduce certain Government publications and they are pleased to grant general permission to reproduce—

- (a) Any matter which has appeared in the Gazette of India, except,
 - (i) Acts of the Indian Legislature,
 - (ii) Matter not first published by the Government of India,
- (b) Acts of the Indian Legislature, subject to the conditions that these are reproduced together with original materials, e.g., commentaries.
- (c) Vernacular translation of Acts of the Indian Legislature.
- (d) Reports of any Committee appointed by the Government of India or the Indian Legislature.

2. Permission to reproduce other Government publications will be given in special circumstances. Applications for permission should be forwarded to the Surveyor-General in the case of maps, charts, plans and other documents published by or on behalf of the Survey of India and to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Department of Industries and Labour in all other cases.

3. In the case of works first published by local Governments, application for permission to reproduce such works should be made, in the absence of any special orders passed by the local Government, to the local Government concerned.

PART B.

CANTONMENTS—REGULATIONS.

No. 1616.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 280 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following further amendments to the Cantonment Account Code, 1924, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section, namely:—

1. After rule 4-A of the said Code, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“4-B. Pies shall ordinarily be eliminated from all receipts, other than receipts of revenue which are fixed by or under the law.”

2. In rule 26 of the said Code, after the word “daily” the words “or, where this is inconvenient, at regular intervals to be fixed by the Cantonment Authority” shall be inserted.

3. After clause (c) of rule 38 of the said Code, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(d) to adjust a refund of income made in the year in which the income was originally received, in which case the amount refunded shall first be charged under “Refunds” to the head of expenditure corresponding to the head of receipt to which it was originally credited (or if there be no such head, to “Miscellaneous refunds”) and then adjusted monthly by deduction from that head and from the head of receipt. No adjustment is necessary in the case of refunds of income received in a previous year.”

JALPAIGURI, the 21st December 1926.

GOVERNMENT DIPLOMA IN ACCOUNTANCY OF THE SYDENHAM COLLEGE OF COMMERCE AND ECONOMICS, BOMBAY.

1. The examination for the above Diploma will be held at (1) the Sydenham College of Commerce and Economics, Hornby Road, Bombay, (2) the Government Institute of Commerce, Law College Buildings, Madras, (3) the Government Commercial Institute, Bow Bazar Street, Calcutta, (4) the Muir Central College, Allahabad, and (5) the Government High School, Rangoon, from 2-30 to 5-30 P.M. (Standard Time) from Tuesday, the 5th April to Monday, the 11th April 1927. At the Calcutta centre the examination will be held from 3 P.M. to 6 P.M. (Standard Time) instead of from 2-30 to 5-30 P.M. No paper will be set on Sunday, the 10th April 1927. At the Rangoon centre the Standard Time of Burma will be observed.

2. Applications for admission to the examination must be forwarded, on the prescribed printed form, to the Secretary to the Accountancy Diploma Board so as to reach his office in the Sydenham College Building, Hornby Road, Bombay, on or before the 31st January 1927, with a fee of Rs. 50 per candidate. Cheques and Drafts sent in payment of fees must be payable in Bombay.

3. Applications will be accepted from—

(a) Qualified students of the Sydenham College of Commerce and Economics, Bombay, the Davar's College of Commerce, Bombay, the Batliboi's Accountancy Training Institute, Bombay, the Government Institute of Commerce, Madras, the Government Commercial Institute, Calcutta, the Faculty of Commerce, Lucknow University, Lucknow, the Coronation Commercial College, Karachi, and the Government of Burma Accountancy Institute, Rangoon,

(b) Graduates of the Statutory Universities of India or of the United Kingdom, and

(c) Holders of auditor's certificates granted by a Local Government under the Indian Companies Act, 1913.

4. Applications from under-graduate ex-students of a college or institute recognized by the Accountancy Diploma Board must be submitted through the Principal of the college or institute from which the candidates appeared on the last occasion.

5. Candidates are required to be in the examination hall by 2-15 P.M. (Standard Time) every day and will not be allowed to leave the same on any account till 3 P.M. (Standard Time). At the Calcutta centre the candidates will be required to be in the examination hall by 2-45 P.M. (Standard Time) every day and will not be allowed to leave the same on any account till 3-30 P.M. (Standard Time).

6. Candidates are required to bring with them pencils and pens; they will not be allowed to bring any paper or blotting paper with them.

7. Candidates must not write their names on the answer-books supplied to them. Every candidate must write on his answer-book the register number allotted to him by the undersigned.

8. The register number allotted to each candidate will be communicated in the third week of March 1927 direct to him at the postal address of the candidate as given in his application form; this will be the only information supplied about his register number.

9. The examination will be conducted in the following order from 2-30 to 5-30 P.M. (Standard Time) at all the centres except at Calcutta, where the time will be from 3 P.M. to 6 P.M. (Standard Time):—

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. The forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Notice.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Forecast of the Winter 71 (Sesamum) crop of Bengal, 1926-27.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1924-25, the area under oil in Bengal has represented some 2.9 per cent. of the total area under oil in British India.]

Character of the season.—Excepting in some districts of West Bengal, weather at the sowing time was generally favourable. Excessive rain in September retarded growth, but favourable conditions in October improved the crop. In East and North Bengal, a good outturn is expected to be reaped, but in West Bengal the prospects are less satisfactory owing to drought.

Area sown.—The total area sown with the crop this year is estimated at 52,900 acres against 47,300 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to District Officers' estimates, the outturn of the crop for the province as a whole works out at 92 per cent. of the normal, against 94 per cent. last year. Taking 6½ maunds as a normal rate of yield per acre, the gross outturn for the province is estimated at 10,900 tons this year against 10,000 tons last year, or an increase of about 9 per cent.

R. S. FINLOW,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 29th December 1926.

Summary.—During the week light to moderate rainfall was nearly general in the Presidency, Dacca and Chittagong Divisions. In the other divisions, the fall was generally scattered. Transplantation of tobacco seedlings and sowings of spring crops are nearly finished. Harvesting of winter paddy and potatoes and replantation of summer rice are progressing favourably. The condition and prospects of standing crops are generally fair except in the district of Bakarganj where the standing paddy crop has been damaged to some extent owing to untimely rain and high wind. The average price of common rice for the province has fallen by about 0·08 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

4. Notification No. 3400 L.S.-G., dated the 11th November 1925, relating to the establishment of a union board at Sindurkusumbi in police-station Paba, is hereby cancelled.

No. 4480M.—The 23rd December 1926.—Whereas the Commissioners of the Dinajpur Municipality have ordered that a survey be made of the lands situated in that municipality, and the provisions of the Calcutta Survey Act, 1887 (Bengal Act I of 1887), consequently apply to that municipality by virtue of section 223A of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884);

And whereas it is expedient that certain appointments should be made under the said Calcutta Survey Act, 1887, for the purposes of the said survey;

Now, therefore, the Governor in Council is pleased—

(1) in exercise of the power conferred by section 3 of the Calcutta Survey Act, 1887, to appoint the Collector of Dinajpur to be the Superintendent of the said survey and Sub-Deputy Collector, Babu Praphulla Chandra Banarji, to be the Assistant Superintendent of the said survey; and

(2) in exercise of the power conferred by section 11 of the same Act, to appoint the Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division to be the authority to whom appeals referred to in that section shall lie.

No. 8L.S.-G.—The 4th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 22 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act, 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885), the Governor in Council is pleased to approve the election, by the members of the Faridpur District Board, of Khan Bahadur Maulvi Alimuzzaman Chowdhry to be their Chairman.

No. 15M.—The 5th January 1927.—The following draft of an order which the Governor in Council proposes to make under section 241 (4) of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on the 5th March 1927, and any objection or suggestion which may be received by the undersigned through the District Magistrate before that date will be duly considered :—

Draft order.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (4) of section 241 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), and at the request of the Commissioners of the Nabadwip Municipality in the district of Nadia, made at a meeting, the Governor in Council is pleased to extend section 241 of the said Act to the said municipality.

2. This cancels notification No. 2037 T.M., dated the 24th September 1904.

No. 21M.—The 5th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 27 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), the Governor in Council is pleased to appoint Babu Abhoyapada Singha, B.Sc., M.B., as a Commissioner of the Daihat Municipality in the district of Burdwan, vice Babu Jagadananda Banerji.

No. 23M.—The 5th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 27 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), the Governor in Council is pleased to appoint Munshi Abdus Sobhan to be a Commissioner of the Dhulia Municipality in the district of Murshidabad, vice Maulvi Abdul Sardar, deceased.

No. 65M.—The 10th January 1927.—In pursuance of section 16, read with clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Calcutta Burial Boards Act, 1889 (Bengal Act IV of 1889), the Governor in Council is pleased to nominate Babu Haridas Das, Assistant Engineer, to be a member of the Burial Board for Calcutta for the Hindu community, vice Rai Sarada Charan Mitra Bahadur, Executive Engineer, retired.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

No. 2500 P.H.—The 22nd December 1926.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 38 of the Puri Lodging-house Act, 1871 (Bengal Act IV of 1871), and in supersession of all the previous by-laws on the subject, the Governor in Council approves and confirms the following by-laws which have been framed for the town of Nabadwip, in the district of Nadia, with the assent of the Civil Surgeon and the Health Officer of the town appointed under the Act :—

By-Laws.

conservancy.

1. The Magistrate may require the owners or occupiers, or the owners and occupier of any house or land, within fifteen days, to repair and make efficient any privy, latrine, urinal, drain or cesspool, or any receptacle or utensil used in connection therewith or to remove any privy, latrine, or urinal, or to close any cesspool which is situated on such house or land. Whoever being an owner or occupier of any house or land fails to comply with any requisition issued under this by-law, shall be liable, for every such default, to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further penalty not exceeding Rs. 5 for every day during which the default is continued after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of service on him of any such requisition.

Encampment, lodging and halting places.

2. Every punda or other person who brings pilgrims to Nabadwip and every pilgrim himself shall be bound to furnish the Magistrate or Health Officer with any information they may require as to the lodging and state of health of such persons in the town of Nabadwip.

And every such pandit or person or pilgrim shall, on the occurrence of any cases of cholera or other contagious or infectious diseases or of an accident in his lodging or encampment, inform the Health Officer of the same.

3. (a) When granting a certificate under section 5 of the Act, the Health Officer shall determine the number of lodgers that each house can accommodate, allowing (1) 20 superficial feet for each person and (2) 200 cubic feet of air space for each person.

(b) Sufficient latrine accommodation shall also be provided, not being ordinarily less than three privies and one urinal for every 100 permissible lodgers.

(c) The owner or in his absence the person in charge of any licensed house shall keep one sweeper for every 100 pilgrims.

(d) Every lodging house shall be provided with at least one well for every 100 permissible lodgers. It shall be kept clean and provided with a masonry platform and proper drain. Each well shall be thoroughly cleaned once a year and disinfected at such times and in such manner as the Magistrate shall prescribe.

4. No lodging house shall be used as a brothel or for the purpose of prostitution.

5. The Health Officer or District Magistrate may cause to be destroyed or disinfected all infected clothing, bedding or other articles, and may cause to be disinfected any infected house within the limits of the town of Nabadwip. The Committee may at its discretion award compensation to any person whose property is so destroyed.

No. 3 P.H.—The 4th January 1927.—The Governor in Council is pleased to withdraw the orders specified in the Marine Department notification No. 118 Marine, dated the 12th September 1919, under which the regulations 44 to 53 in Part VIII of the rules published with that department notification No. 16 Marine, dated the 6th March 1917, for the prevention of the spread of dangerous, infectious or contagious diseases and the disposal of dead bodies on vessels were made, as a temporary measure, applicable to vessels leaving a port in this Presidency for a port in Burma or for any other port in India.

No. 18 P.H.—The 5th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 351 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), the Governor in Council is pleased to confirm all the by-laws framed by the Commissioners of the Jamalpur Municipality, in the district of Mymensingh, under section 350 of the said Act, and published for information with notification No. 1984 P.H., dated the 1st October 1926.

No. 23 P.H.—The 5th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (3) of section 349 C of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, as amended by Bengal Act II of 1914, the Governor in Council is pleased to declare Part XIB of the said Act, as so amended, to be in force in the Baruipore Municipality in the district of the 24-Parganas.

No. 25 P.H.—The 5th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (1) of section 349 D of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, as amended by Bengal Act II of 1914, the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that one Sanitary Inspector of the second class shall be appointed by the Baruipore Municipality in the district of the 24-Parganas.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Delhi, the 21st December 1926.

No. G. (B)-3 (6).—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (V of 1923), the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that the following further amendments shall be made in the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1924, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the said Act, namely :—

After regulation 148 of the said Regulations the following regulations shall be inserted, namely :—

148-A. Steam pipe fittings and connections.—The fittings connected with main steam pipes included in the steam piping through which steam passes directly from a boiler to a prime mover or other first-user, exclusive of the boiler stop valve and engine or first-user stop valve, shall comply with the requirements specified below.

148-B. Superheaters not forming integral parts of Boilers.—(a) Rectangular sectioned headers, or steam boxes, and tubes of superheaters shall be constructed in accordance with the requirements of Regulations 106 and 104 respectively and on completion the superheater shall be subjected to hydraulic test to double the working pressure of the boiler to which it is to be attached.

(b) Where size permits a spring loaded safety valve of not less than 1½ inches in diameter constructed in accordance with the requirements of Regulation 125 shall be fitted to the steam box or header.

148-C. Steam Receivers, Separators, etc.—(a) The shells of steam receivers, steam separators, steam driers, catch waters, drop legs, interceptors, etc., may be made of wrought iron, wrought steel or cast steel.

(b) (i) When made of wrought iron or wrought steel the shells shall comply with the requirements for boiler drums.

(ii) The working pressure for the parts shall be determined by the formulae prescribed for corresponding parts of boilers and the hydraulic test pressure to which the vessel shall be subjected on completion shall be that prescribed for boilers.

(iii) When longitudinal seams of vessels over 15 inches in internal diameter are welded the seams shall be covered by butt straps.

(iv) For welded seams the standard co-efficient C of Regulation 45 (a) to be used in determining the working pressure shall be 3.0 for both welded and welded and strapped seams. The strength percentage to be allowed for the weld shall be 50 and J, the strength percentage to be allowed for welded and strapped seams shall be determined in accordance with Regulation 57.

(v) No shell plate shall be less than $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in thickness.

(vi) The radius of curvature at the flange of flanged end plates shall not be less than four times the required thickness of the end plate.

(vii) Branches for attachment of steam piping shall be flanged and be either flanged and rivetted or welded to the vessel.

(c) (i) Where made of cast steel the shells shall comply with the requirements of Regulations 140 and 141.

(ii) The working pressure for flat end plates of cast steel shall be determined by the formulae for flat end plates of wrought steel.

(d) Suitable arrangements for drainage shall be fitted to all vessels intended for use in the separation of condensed steam in steam piping. Where automatic drainage is not provided a glass water gauge of substantial make to indicate the water level in the vessel and a substantial drain cock or valve shall be fitted.

148-D. Valve Chests.—(a) Chests of stop valves, isolating valves, reducing valves, etc., forming parts of wrought iron or wrought steel main steam piping shall be made of cast or wrought steel in accordance with the requirements of Regulations 140 and 141 for cast steel chests.

(b) When the main steam pipes are made of copper the valve chests above mentioned may be made either of cast or wrought steel or of bronze in accordance with the requirements of Regulations 140 and 141.

148-E. Other fittings and mountings.—(a) No chest or flange or blank flange of cast iron shall be attached directly to main steam pipes or form part of main steam piping. Couplings or sockets shall not be used for connecting pipes or fittings.

(b) Blank flanges shall be of mild steel and be of substantial make.

(c) Valve chests of bronze up to 3 inches diameter of bore may be attached directly to iron or steel steam pipes. The attachment shall be by means of flanges and bolts.

(d) Drain cocks and valves may be attached to steam pipes either by flange and bolts or be screwed into a boss formed on the pipe.

The 23rd December 1926.

No. F.-25-IV.—26-Police.—His Majesty the King, Emperor of India, has been pleased to confer the King's Police Medal, and in two cases a bar to the medal previously awarded, on the following officers and men of the Indian Police establishments :—

Name of officer and rank.

Statement of services for which in particular the decoration has been conferred.

Bengal.

9. Satyendra Nath Mukerjee, Sub-Inspector of Police, Calcutta.

On the 4th April 1926 this officer whilst on hulla duty learnt that rioting was going on in Colootolla Street in his section. He proceeded immediately to the scene of occurrence and found that a man had been killed on the street and that the murderer, a local goonda of repute, had absconded. He proceeded to trace the murderer, and came across him leading and inciting a large mob 1½ hours later in Harinbari Lane. He immediately closed with the murderer, who was armed with a bloodstained chopper with which it was subsequently ascertained that he had committed the murder. The Sub-Inspector had with him only three constables, and desperate attempts were made by the murderer to free himself. The Sub-Inspector held on till re-inforcements came up and eventually removed the murderer to Police Headquarters. The murderer was subsequently found guilty and sentenced to death by the High Court. This Sub-Inspector ran great personal risk and displayed great courage and devotion to duty in arresting this desperado from amid an excited mob.

This officer was also responsible for the discovery of property looted and for the arrest of the accused in a communal dacoity which occurred during the riots on the 2nd April in which the accused were subsequently convicted by the High Court. He has also taken a prominent part in suppressing the cocaine traffic and gambling in his section and in arresting smugglers.

10. Robin Neil, Sergeant, Calcutta Police.

On the 3rd April 1926 during the communal riots in Calcutta whilst on duty in Chitpur Road this officer was confronted by a large crowd immediately south of his beat. A private motor car which was passing was attacked by a hooligan who dashed out of the crowd and deliberately broke the wind screen with a lath and wounded the driver. Sergeant Neil immediately pursued the man and arrested him in face of a threatening crowd. The same day whilst on rounds on his motor cycle Sergeant Neil found a big burly Muhammadan committing a murderous assault on a Hindu in Mechua Bazar Street. Sergeant Neil pursued the Muhammadan, chased him into a dwelling house, arrested him, made him get into his side car and took him to Sukea Street Police Station. They were attacked by a mob the whole way down Mechua Bazar Street. His action on this occasion undoubtedly saved the Hindu's life. In addition whilst on patrol work with his cycle he broke up and dispersed several unlawful crowds.

| 11. George John Adamson, Sergeant, Calcutta Police. | On the 25th April 1926 during the second phase of the April riots in Calcutta this Sergeant was in charge of an armoured car in Beadon Street. He encountered a large hostile crowd which attacked the car. He left the car in company with one of the crew and dispersed the crowd at the point of his revolver after firing one shot. On the 27th April whilst again in charge of an armoured car in Mechua Bazar he encountered one of the worst mobs in the city and on this occasion displayed very great qualities of initiative and control. The mob had just murdered a police officer and were looting and murdering in the locality. Sergeant Adamson fired a warning shot from the armoured car and then ordered two bursts of controlled machine gun fire. This had the desired effect and was sufficient to disperse one of the most dangerous mobs dealt with during the riots. Sergeant Adamson displayed very great gallantry and very high qualities of leadership on both the occasions referred to. |
| 12. David Fisher, Assistant Commissioner of Police, Calcutta. | Mr. Fisher joined the Calcutta Police as an Inspector in 1908, and was promoted to the rank of Assistant Commissioner in November 1918. He remained in charge of the Police Training College until March 1920 when he took charge of the headquarters for a year. He has been permanent Assistant Commissioner at headquarters since 1923. During the whole of the non-co-operation movement in 1921 Mr. Fisher performed meritorious service in dealing with the non-co-operation campaign and displayed qualities of tact, patience and organisation. He has been responsible during the last three years for the discipline and order of the headquarters force, including the European Sergeants. This has been carried out by Mr. Fisher with conspicuous success. In connection with the two outbreaks of rioting in April 1926 Mr. Fisher again displayed a very high capacity for organisation and initiative. He participated in the worst of the riots and on all occasions led his men with conspicuous gallantry and success. In addition the manner in which he distributed and controlled his forces during the riots called for the highest praise. His services during this whole period were invaluable and were characterised by extreme patience, foresight and endurance. He has shown great devotion to duty and administrative ability. |
| 13. Frank Austin Tucker, Station Officer, Calcutta Fire Brigade. | Mr. Tucker joined the Calcutta Police in 1912, and in the following year his services were transferred to the Calcutta Fire Brigade, where he has risen to the position of Station Officer. He is in charge of one of the most important fire stations, which he has administered in an extremely able manner. He did exceptionally good work during the fire which occurred at Writers' Buildings in 1921, for which he was rewarded. During the Calcutta riots in April 1926 the brunt of extinguishing the fires fell to his lot: he attended the majority of the calls, and showed conspicuous ability in dealing with an unprecedented situation. In a great measure it was due to him that, in spite of the incendiarism indulged in by the rioters, no lives were lost and that the fires were confined to the premises of origin. During the riots he rescued, and safely delivered to the Postmaster-General mail bags which were being ransacked by the rioters in a mail van the driver of which had been murdered. He was also responsible for the rescue of an Indian mail van attendant from an assault by the rioters, and had him conveyed to hospital. Throughout his service he has shown great devotion to duty, often at considerable personal risk, and on more than one occasion he has received serious injuries at fires. |

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION

Delhi, the 4th December 1926.

No. F.-128—I-26—A.C.—Under rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules the Governor General has been pleased to order the publication in Gazette of India of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, and the Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly published for general information :—

BILL NO 45 OF 1926.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes hereinafter appearing ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

• Short title and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1927.

(2) It shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1927.

Amendment of section 10, Act XI of 1922

2. In sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(a) after clause (vi) the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

“(vii) in respect of the replacement of animals which have been used for the purposes of the business otherwise than as stock in trade and have died or become permanently useless for such purposes, the difference between the original cost to the assessee of the animals replaced and the amount, if any, realised or realisable in respect of the carcasses or animals, as the case may be"; and

(b) after clause (ix) the following proviso shall be inserted, namely :—

" Provided that nothing in clause (viii) or clause (ix) shall be deemed to authorise the allowance of any sum paid on account of any cess, rate or tax levied on the profits or gains of any business or assessed at a proportion of or otherwise on the basis of any such profits or gains".

Amendment of section 14, Act XI of 1922

3. In clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 14 of the said Act, after the words "his share in the firm" the words "at the time of such assessment" shall be added.

Insertion of new section 25A in Act XI of 1922

4. After section 25 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

Assessment in case of partition of Hindu undivided family

"25A. (1) Where any separation of interest occurs in any year among the members of a Hindu undivided family of which any income, profits or gains have not been assessed to tax before the date of such separation, a separate assessment shall be made in respect of such income, profits or gains or, where such income, profits or gains have accrued or arisen or been received during a period exceeding one year, in respect of the income, profits or gains of each year or part of a year included in such period, and the sum or sums payable as tax in respect of such income, profits or gains shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 14, be payable by the members or portions of the family who or which have become separate, in proportion to their respective shares in the family property as finally determined for the purpose of the separation.

(2) When any such separation occurs, notice of the separation shall be given to the Income-tax Officer within fifteen days thereof and, if such notice is not so given, the Income-tax Officer may direct that to the amount of tax recoverable under sub-section (1) in respect of any assessment there shall be added by way of penalty such sum not exceeding that amount as he may determine.

Amendment of section 26 Act XI of 1922

5. For section 26 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted, namely :—

Change in ownership of business, profession or vocation

"26. (1) Where any change has occurred in the constitution of a firm of which any income, profits or gains have not been assessed to tax before the date of such change, such income, profits or gains shall be deemed to be income, profits or gains of the firm as constituted at the time of the making of the assessment, and the assessment in respect thereof shall be made accordingly.

(2) Where any person has succeeded to any business, profession or vocation of which any income, profits or gains have not been assessed to tax before the date of such succession, a separate assessment in respect of such income, profits or gains, or, where such income, profits or gains have accrued, arisen or been received during a period exceeding one year, a separate assessment in respect of the income, profits or gains of each year or part of a year included in such period, shall be made on the person engaged in the business, profession or vocation at the time of the making of such assessment, and the sum payable as tax in respect of such income, profits or gains shall be the sum which would have been so payable if the succession had not occurred.

Explanation.—Where any person has succeeded to the business of a registered firm, the assessment shall be made as if the firm had continued to be a registered firm.

Amendment of section 35, Act XI
of 1922

5. In sub-section (1) of section 35 of the said Act,—

(a) before the words “the Income-tax Officer may” the following words shall be inserted, namely:—

“The Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner may, at any time within one year from the date of any order passed by him in appeal or, in the case of the Commissioner, in revision under section 33 and ”:

(b) for the words “of the assessment” the words “of the appeal, revision or assessment, as the case may be,” shall be substituted;

(c) for the words “such assessee” the words “the assessee” shall be substituted; and

(d) in the proviso, for the words “the Income-tax Officer” the words “the Commissioner, the Assistant Commissioner or the Income-tax Officer, as the case may be” shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 42, Act XI
of 1922

7. For sub-section (1) of section 42 of the said Act the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

(1) All profits or gains accruing or arising to any person, whether directly or indirectly, from any property in British India or from any business carried on or transacted in British India by such person or, in the case of a person not resident in British India, by any agency or branch in British India on his behalf, shall, notwithstanding that they are not received in British India, be deemed, within the meaning and for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 4, to be income accruing or arising within British India and shall be chargeable to income-tax under the head “Property” or the head “Business”, as the case may be, and, in the case of a non-resident person, shall be charged in the name of the agent of such person, and such agent shall be deemed to be for all the purposes of this Act the assessee in respect of such income-tax:

Provided that any arrears of tax may be recovered also in accordance with the provisions of this Act from any assets of a non-resident person which are, or may at any time come, within British India.

(1A) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount of the profits or gains which shall be deemed to have accrued or arisen in British India in respect of any merchandise exported from British India shall be the profits or gains which would have accrued or arisen if such merchandise had been sold at the port of export after delivery on board ship.

(1B) Nothing in sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) shall be deemed to relieve from liability to tax any profits or gains which have been received in British India by or on behalf of any person.

(1C) Where any profits or gains have accrued or arisen to any person directly or indirectly from the sale in British India by him or by any agency or branch on his behalf of any merchandise exported to British India by him or any agency or branch on his behalf from any place outside British India, the whole profits or gains arising from such transaction shall be deemed to have accrued and arisen and to have been received in British India, and no allowance shall be made under clause (ix) of sub-section (2) of section 10 in respect of any buying or other commission whatsoever not actually paid, or of any other amounts not actually spent, for the purpose of earning such profits or gains."

Amendment of
section 46,
Act XI of 1922

8. After sub-section (1) of section 46 of the said Act the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :—

"(1A) For the purposes of sub-section (1) the Income-tax Officer may direct the recovery of any sum less than the amount of the arrears and may enhance the sum so directed to be recovered from time to time in the case of a continuing default, so however that the total sum so directed to be recovered shall not exceed the amount of the arrears payable."

Amendment of section 48,
Act XI of 1922

9. To section 48 of the said Act the following sub-sections shall be added, namely :—

"(4) For the purposes of this section, "total income" includes, in the case of an person not resident in British India, all income, profits and gains wherever arising, accruing or received, which, if arising, accruing or received in British India, would be included in the computation of total income under section 16.

(5) Nothing in this section shall entitle to any refund any person not resident in British India who is neither a British subject as defined in section 27 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, nor a subject of a State in India."

4 and 5 Geo
5, c 17

Amendment of section 56,
Act XI of 1922

10. The proviso to section 56 of the said Act shall be omitted.

Insertion of new section 65A
in Act XI of 1922
Condition requisite for registration of a firm

11. After section 65 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

"65A. Nothing in clause (14) of section 2 shall be deemed to require an Income-tax Officer to register the prescribed particulars in regard to any firm if he is not satisfied that the profits and gains of the firm are distributed to the partners therein in proportion to their individual shares as specified in the instrument of partnership."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. It has been held that draught animals and other live stock are not "plant" within the meaning of section 10(2) (vi) of the Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922). But as horses, bullocks, elephants, etc., used for draught purposes are analogous to "plant", it is proposed in clause 2(a) of the Bill to permit an assessee in computing his income from business to deduct as a business expense the cost of the live stock purchased for use in his business (not as stock in trade) to replace his stock so used.

2. The Calcutta High Court have held that road cess levied on coal mines is an admissible deduction from the assessable profits of the mine. The cess though nominally levied on immoveable property is actually calculated with reference to the annual profits of the mines. It is, therefore, a tax on profits and generally speaking anything that is of the nature of a tax on profits is not allowed as a deduction in assessing income-tax. Moreover the Central Government have always contended that provincial or local taxes on profits should not take precedence of Central taxes on the same profits and, if this principle is sacrificed, serious loss to Central revenue may result. Clause 2(b) of the Bill makes it clear that an assessee is not entitled to deduct, in computing income, any sums paid to a local authority in respect of any tax (cess, rate, etc.) assessed on the basis of profits even though it may be nominally imposed on immoveable property.

3. The Act is silent as to the correct procedure for the assessment in the year following the one in which partition is effected in a Hindu undivided family. Clause 4 of the Bill provides for assessment in such cases.

4. There are conflicting rulings pronounced by the Bombay and Allahabad High Courts as to how the assessment should be made in the year after there has been a change in the "constitution" of an assessee, where, for example, a firm has become a Company. While the Allahabad High Court have held that where a firm has become a Company, the assessment should be made as though the firm were still in existence at the time of assessment, the Bombay High Court have ruled that the assessment should be made as though the Company had been in existence when the profits that have to be taxed were earned. Clause 5 of the Bill follows the Allahabad High Court ruling and also extends to income-tax the principle of the proviso to section 36 under which where there has been a change in the personnel of firm, the partners of the firm at the time of assessment are assessed to super-tax on the profits of the firm in the previous year with reference to the shares that each then holds.

5. It is necessary to confer on the Assistant Commissioners of Income-tax and Commissioners of Income-tax the power to rectify mistakes in their appellate or review orders which they do not at present possess. Clause 6 of the Bill confers such powers.

6. Clause 7 of the Bill makes the law more definite in regard to the assessment of the profits of (1) export trade conducted by (a) residents and (b) agencies or branches in British India of non-residents and (2) import trade conducted by agencies or branches in British India of non-residents. Section 42 of the Act which deals with the assessment of non-residents is vague and this is neither satisfactory from the view of the Government nor fair to the tax-payer. Moreover conflicting decisions on this subject have been pronounced by the High Courts of Madras, Calcutta and Rangoon.

7. At present an Income-tax Officer has no power to impose a penalty of less than the maximum amount mentioned in section 46 of the Act. It is considered desirable to empower an Income-tax Officer to impose a penalty less than the maximum and to increase it successively up to the maximum should the default in payment of tax be persisted in by the assessee.

8. Following the British Income-tax law, it is proposed to withhold the grant of refunds under section 48 (small income relief) in respect of dividends of Companies and interest on Indian securities from non-residents who are not British subjects or subjects of Indian States, while refunds to non-resident British subjects or subjects of Indian States will be allowed and calculated not with reference as at present to the claimant's total income taxable in British India, but with reference to his total income wherever derived which would be taxable if it accrued, arose or was received in British India. To non-residents who are not British subjects except subjects of Indian States there seems to be no reason why India should be more generous than the United Kingdom. As the law at present stands, large sums are refunded to non-resident share-holders many of whom may be in receipt of considerable income in other countries and the non-resident therefore enjoys an unfair advantage over residents in British India. Clause 9 of the Bill gives effect to the above proposal.

9. At present many bogus partnership deeds are produced for registration before the Income tax Officers under section 2 (14) of the Act even when the accounts are incomplete and show no division of profits amongst the partners. It appears, therefore, desirable to provide that a firm should not be registered unless it not merely files a deed of partnership specifying the partners' shares, but also actually divides the profits in accordance with those shares. Clause 11 of the Bill gives effect to the proposal.

P. L. SUBARWAL,
Personal Assistant to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 8th January 1927.

Summary.—Excepting light rainfall in the districts of Darjeeling, Rangpur and Dacca, the week was practically rainless. Harvesting of winter paddy is well advanced and transplantation of summer rice continues. Sowings of spring crops and transplantation of tobacco seedlings are finished. Standing crops are thriving well. The average price of common rice for the province has fallen by about 1·28 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

Open Competition of 1927.

An open Competitive Examination for admission to the Indian Civil Service will be held in London in 1927. The viva voce test (Subject 6) will be held in July and each candidate will in due course be informed when he is to appear. The question papers for some written tests of Section B subjects will probably be set in the week beginning 24th July. The examination in Section A subjects which are taken by all candidates will begin on the 1st August.

The number of persons to be selected at this examination will be announced hereafter.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 16th May 1927, an application on the prescribed form, a copy of which is sent herewith. No allegation that an Application Form or a letter respecting such Form has been lost or delayed in the post will be considered by the Commissioners unless the person making such allegation produces a Post Office Certificate of Posting. Candidates who delay their applications until the last days will do so at their own risk.

Acknowledgments of such Application Forms are sent, and any candidate who has filled up and returned the printed Application Form but has not received an acknowledgment of it within four complete days should at once write to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, Burlington Gardens, London, W. 1. Failure to comply with this provision will deprive the candidate of any claim to consideration.

*Candidates will be notified in June of the date and place fixed for their viva voce test and of the manner in which the fee (£ 8) is to be paid. The Time Table of the written part of the examination will be posted early in July to the address given on the Form of Application, and will contain instructions as to the time and place at which candidate are to attend.*

NOTE.

If Open Competitive Examinations for the following services, viz:—

Eastern Cadetships in the Colonial Service ;
Junior Grade of the Administrative Class in the Home Civil Service ;

should be held in 1927 concurrently with the Open Competitive Examination for the Indian Civil Service, candidates duly eligible in respect of age, etc., will be admitted to compete for any two or all three of these services, subject to the following conditions:—

(1) Every successful candidate who may have been admitted to compete for either the Indian or the Colonial Service or both, as well as for the Home Service, will be called upon to declare, immediately after the announcement of the result of the competitions, whether he prefers his name to remain on the list of candidates for the Indian or Colonial Service or on the list of candidates for the Home Service.

The name of any candidate who fails to declare his choice when called upon to do so will be removed from the list of candidates for the Home Service.

(2) Every successful candidate who may have been admitted to compete for both the Indian and Colonial Services will be called upon to declare, immediately after the announcement of the result of the competitions, whether he prefers his name to remain on the list of candidates for the Indian Service or on the list of candidates for the Colonial Service.

The name of any candidate who fails to declare his choice when called upon to do so will be removed from the list of candidates for the Colonial Service.

(3) All declarations of choice are irrevocable.

(4) Candidates for all three or any two of the above-mentioned services will be required to pay a consolidated fee of £ 8.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

November, 1926.

November, 1926.

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.Regulations for admission to the Indian Civil Service.

* * The following Regulations, made by the Secretary of State for India in Council, are liable to alteration from year to year.

1. An examination for admission to the Indian Civil Service, open to all qualified persons, will be held in London in July and August of each year for such number of appointments to that Service as the Secretary of State may on each occasion determine. The date of the examination will be announced beforehand by the Civil Service Commissioners.

2. Save as hereinafter provided a candidate must be a British subject. If the candidate (being a British subject) or his father or his mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance then at the time of his birth his father must have been a British subject or the subject of a State in India and such father must be or must have continued to be until his death a British subject or the subject of such State in India. Provided that a ruler or subject of any State in India in respect of whom the Governor-General in Council has made a declaration under section 96 A of the Government of India Act may be considered eligible.

3. A candidate must have attained the age of twenty-one, and must not have attained the age of twenty-four on the first day of August of the year in which the examination is held.

4. A candidate who is a Native of India must obtain a certificate of age and qualification under Regulations 2 and 3 issued under notification of the Government of India, No. 1114, dated 12th September 1918, and signed, should he be a resident in British India, by the Secretary to Government of the Province, or the Commissioner of the Division within which his family resides, or, should he reside in a Native State, by the highest Political Officer accredited to the State in which his family resides.*

5. A candidate must be free from disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the Indian Civil Service.†

6. A candidate shall satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that his character is such as to qualify him for employment in the Indian Civil Service.

7. No person who, in a previous year, accepted the offer of a nomination as a Selected Candidate for the Indian Civil Service and subsequently resigned his position as a Selected Candidate, will be admitted to the examination.

8. Should the evidence upon the above points be prima facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, the candidate, on payment of the prescribed fee, will be admitted to the examination. The Commissioners may, however, in their discretion, at any time prior to the grant of the certificate of qualification hereinafter referred to, institute such further inquiries as they may deem necessary; and if the result of such inquiries in the case of any candidate should be unsatisfactory to them in any of the above respects he will be ineligible for admission to the Indian Civil Service, and, if already selected, will be removed from the position of a probationer.

9. The examination will include the following subjects.‡ The numerical value is shown against each subject.

SECTION A.—Candidates are to take up all the subjects in this section.

	Marks.
1. Essay	100
2. English	100
3. Present Day	100
4. Everyday Science	100
5. Auxiliary Language	100
6. Viva Voce	300

SECTION B.—OPTIONAL SUBJECTS.—Candidates are allowed to take up subjects in this section up to a total of 1,000 marks.History.

7. English History to 1660	200
8. British History, 1660—1914	200
9. European History, either Period 1 or Period 2	200
10. European History Period 3	200

* Candidates should be careful to see that the wording of this certificate of age and qualification is strictly in accordance with the form laid down in Rules VII and IX of Government of India notification No. 1114, dated 15th September 1918.

† The Civil Service Commissioners will regard no person as constitutionally fitted for appointment to the Indian Civil Service who has not been satisfactorily vaccinated within the last seven years.

‡ A Syllabus defining in general terms the character of the examination in the various subjects is sent herewith.

SECTION C.—An Extra Numerum subject may be offered carrying 100 marks and chosen from the following :—

General Anthropology.

Special Anthropology.

An auxiliary language.

10. The auxiliary language in Section A or Section C will be tested by means of translation from the language. The following languages may be offered: French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Danish, Russian, Latin, Ancient Greek.

No candidate may offer any language or General Anthropology or Special Anthropology twice in the examination.

No candidate may offer in Sections A and C together two languages of the group Italian, Spanish, Portuguese or two of the group Norwegian, Swedish, Danish.

Only a candidate who takes two modern languages in Section B may offer Latin or Ancient Greek as an auxiliary language.

Instead of an auxiliary language a candidate whose mother tongue is an Indian language may offer as subject 5 either General Anthropology or Special Anthropology.

11. In subjects 50 to 67 the civilization subject associated with a language can only be taken by candidates who offer the language itself for examination.*

12. A candidate desiring to offer subject 24 or any of the subjects 31 to 43 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank. For Astronomy (29), Geography (44), the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (46), and Agriculture (47), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

13. From the marks assigned to candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

14. Moreover, if a candidate's handwriting is not easily legible a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.†

15. A list of the competitors shall be made out in order of their proficiency as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each competitor, and in that order so many competitors, up to the determined number of appointments, as are found by the Civil Service Commissioners to be qualified by examination, shall be designated to be Selected Candidates for the Indian Civil Service, provided that they appear to be duly qualified in other respects.

Should any Selected Candidate become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled or not. In the former case the candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a Selected Candidate.

16. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made in the handwriting of the candidate, at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE GROUP OF COMPETITIONS.

Syllabus.

For such competitions as may be held in London in the year 1927 for appointment to the following services:—

Indian Civil Service.

Junior Grade of the Administrative Class in the Home Civil Service.

Colonial Service: Eastern Cadetships.

Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service.

Consular Services (General, Levant, and Far East) and Intelligence Officer Grade in the Department of Overseas Trade.

Evidence of Training.—Candidates who desire to offer any of the subjects 24, 29, 31-44, 46 (Physical Anthropology branch only), or 47 must send to the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission, so as to arrive not later than 16th May 1927, the evidence of training described below. Such evidence should be in the form of a certificate signed by a responsible officer of the institution, and may be sent in advance of the form of application. In the case of an institution not situated in the British Isles, the certificate must state that the institution in which the work has been done is authorized to prepare candidates in that subject for a degree. A candidate who has been refused permission to take one of these subjects will be allowed to substitute another subject within the regulations, provided the substitution is made within the time allowed for sending in application forms.

SECTION A.

1. Essay.—An essay to be written on one of several specified subjects.

2. English.—A paper of questions to test the understanding of English and the workmanlike use of words. An optional exercise in the writing of verse will be included.

* e.g., a candidate desiring to offer subject No. 51 (Roman Civilization) must also offer subject, No. 50 (Latin Language).

† It is notified for general information that the number of marks deducted for bad handwriting may be considerable.

3. Present Day.—Questions on contemporary subjects, social, economic, and political. A liberal choice of questions will be given. Effective and skilful exposition will be expected.

4. Everyday Science.—In this subject such knowledge will be expected as candidates will have who have studied science intelligently at school and have since then kept their eyes open. A liberal choice of questions will be given. Attention should be paid to orderly, effective, and exact expression.

5. Auxiliary Language.—Passages dealing with history and politics may be set, but no technical matter. Verse is not excluded. Accuracy and skill in the use of English will be expected.

6. Viva Voce.—The examination will be in matters of general interest, not in matters of academic interest; it is intended to test the candidate's alertness, intelligence, and intellectual outlook. The candidate will be afforded an opportunity of furnishing the record of his life and education. On the interview and record the Commissioners judge the value of the candidate's personality for each service for which he is entered. His value may differ for different services and in that case the mark by which the Commissioners express their decision will differ for different services.

SECTION B.

HISTORY. Subjects 7-10.—Candidates should know something of the original authorities, of the principles of historical criticism, and of the principles and the facts of geography in relation to history. They must be prepared to draw sketch maps.

7, 8. English History to 1861, British History 1860-1914.—The history will be taken as a whole; politics, economics, and constitution will be considered as mutually affecting each other, and all together as the outcome of the common life of the nation. Literature will not be excluded. Candidates will be expected to know so much of European history as will make the external action of this country fully intelligible and will explain those movements at home which had their beginnings abroad, e.g., the Renaissance, the Reformation, and the reactions in this country of the French Revolution. In subject 8 the outstanding incidents and movements in the history of British possessions will be included.

9, 10. European History.—Period 1, from 400 to 1494; Period 2, from 1494 to 1763; Period 3, from 1763 to 1914.

Although a fixed date is given for the beginning of a period, candidates will be expected to know in general outline how the initial position was reached. The history of the American continent, of India, and of the Far East, will be included in so far as it influences European fortunes in an important degree.

11. General Economics.—The subject will be treated as a whole, and candidates should be prepared to illustrate the theory by the facts and to analyse the facts by the help of the theory. The history of economic thought will be included.

12. Economic History.—Candidates will be expected to have a general acquaintance with the early economic history of England; but special attention will be paid to the economic development of the British Isles and other portions of the Empire during the last two or three centuries, and so much knowledge of European and American conditions will be expected as is necessary for the understanding of British economic history.

13. Public Economics.—The questions will deal with the main forms of State action, central and local, in the economic sphere, together with public finance.

14. Political Theory.—Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of political theory and its history, political theory being understood to mean not only the theory of legislation, but also the general history of the State and its connection with kindred studies such as Ethics, Psychology, Jurisprudence, Public International Law, and Economics. Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of original authorities.

15. Political Organization.—This will include Constitutional Forms (Representative Government, Federalism, etc.) and Public Administration, central and local. The history of institutions is not included, but candidates will be expected to know the earlier stages from which existing institutions have directly developed.

16. Constitutional Law.—The Constitutional Law of the United Kingdom and of the British Empire, and the Law of English Local Government.

17. Private Law.—The following branches of English Private Law:—the Law of Real and Personal Property (including the Law of Succession), Contracts and Torts.

18. Roman Law.—Roman Private Law and its history studied in connexion with the Institutes of Gaius and Justinian, including the history of the legislative and judicial processes. Passages will be set for translation and comment, but credit will not be given merely for capacity to translate the texts.

19. International Law.—Public International Law.

20. Moral Philosophy.—The history of the subject will be included. Candidates will have an opportunity of showing their strength either in Ancient Philosophy or in Modern Philosophy.

21. Metaphysics.—As for Moral Philosophy.

22. Logic.—The subject will be interpreted in a wide sense. Epistemology in its bearing on logical problems will be included, together with Formal Logic and Scientific Method. Questions may be set on Mathematical Logic, i.e., on the Logic of Mathematics, Symbolic Logic, and the Logic of Probability; and also on the history of Logic. A considerable choice of questions will be allowed.

23. Psychology.—Questions on the history of the subject may be included.

24. Experimental Psychology.—A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank.

MATHEMATICS. Subjects 25-28.—The use of the slide-rule and of mathematical tables will be allowed.

25. Lower Pure Mathematics.—Geometry of two and of three dimensions according to Euclid (synthetic geometry), to Descartes (analytical geometry), and to Monge (descriptive geometry, dealing with three-dimensional figures by the use of plan and elevation). The method of vectors including scalar and vector products, with applications. Only the main properties of conics and quadrics, including those of poles, polars and polar planes, are expected.

Algebra: Complex numbers; uniformly converging infinite series; the elements of the theory of equations, including the numerical solution of algebraic equations, but not including the formal solution of the cubic and quartic.

Infinitesimal calculus of real variables to partial differentiation and multiple integrals, with applications to geometry. Candidates should be able to deal with the types of differential equations occurring in elementary mechanics.

The proof of Taylor's series will not be required.

No great skill will be expected in solving complicated problems of an elementary nature. The questions will involve the use of mathematical instruments.

26. Higher Pure Mathematics.—Lower Pure Mathematics together with:—

The geometry of curves and surfaces. Tensor calculus.

Elementary analysis, including simple functions of a complex variable and contour integration.

Differential equations in one independent variable. Elementary treatment of partial differential equations, with special reference to the differential equations of mathematical physics. Existence theorems are excluded.

Mathematical theory of probability, including theory of errors, method of least squares, curve fitting, and correlation.

Calculus of finite differences, including numerical integration and summation and linear difference equations.

A considerable choice of questions will be allowed, so that full marks may be obtained by covering about half the range stated.

27. Lower Applied Mathematics.—Statics, hydrostatics, dynamics, elementary theory of electricity and magnetism, including the induction of currents. Questions will be of an elementary character, but will not be confined to two dimensions; they will involve the use of the calculus. Candidates are free to use differential equations, but a knowledge thereof will not be necessary to answer the questions. Attention will be paid to problems which arise naturally and to general principles; artificial problems will be avoided. The questions will involve the use of mathematical instruments.

28. Higher Applied Mathematics.—Lower Applied Mathematics together with:—

Statics to a more advanced stage, including graphical treatment.

Dynamics to the equations of Euler and Lagrange and including the theory of the vibration of strings and other simple systems.

Hydrodynamics, including the elementary theory of the motion of solids through a liquid, surface waves, and vibrations in gases.

Elasticity, including the elements of the vibrations of rods, plates and bars.

Electricity and magnetism.

Thermodynamics, kinetic theory of gases, radiation.

A considerable choice of questions will be allowed, so that full marks may be obtained by covering about half the range stated.

29. Astronomy.—Geometrical optics will be included.

A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of practical training in an observatory.

30. Statistics.—Frequency distributions, averages, percentiles, and simple methods of measuring dispersion; graphic methods; elementary treatment of qualitative data, e.g., investigation of association by comparison of ratios, consistency of data: the practice of the simplest graphic and algebraic methods of interpolation.

Practical methods used in the analysis and interpretation of statistics of prices, wages and incomes, trade, transport, production and consumption, education, etc.; the more elementary methods of dealing with population and vital statistics; miscellaneous methods used in handling statistics of experiments or observations.

Elements of modern mathematical theory of statistics:—frequency curves and the mathematical representation of groups generally; accuracy of sampling as affecting averages, percentages, the standard deviation; significance of observed differences between averages of groups, etc.; the theory of correlation for two variables.

NATURAL SCIENCE. Subjects 31-42.—The standard of the higher division of a science will be that which is required in the main subject for an honours degree at the universities. The standard for the lower division of a science will be that required in a subject subsidiary to the main subject whether required at the final degree examination or at a preceding examination.

A candidate who desires to offer a science must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training in that science in an institution of university rank; the period of training required is one academic year, whether the candidate offers the higher division or the science of the lower division or both divisions.

- | | |
|----------------------------|--|
| 35. Lower Botany. | } —Vegetable Physiology will be included in each division. |
| 36. Higher Botany. | |
| 37. Lower Geology. | } —Mineralogy will be included in each division. |
| 38. Higher Geology. | |

43. Engineering.—Strength of materials; theory of structures; mechanism and dynamics of machines; heat and thermodynamics; surveying; hydraulics, including hydraulic machines; electricity and magnetism.

The subject will be treated in a general manner and the questions will be confined to the more elementary parts of the subject. The candidate will be expected to be familiar with graphical methods and to have some skill in mechanical drawing.

A candidate who desires to offer Engineering must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training for at least one academic year in an institution of university rank.

Geography.—Geography as understood in the universities, not excluding topics which concern geography jointly with other subjects such as economics, history, physics, botany, and geology. There will be a practical test which will necessitate a knowledge of cartographical methods and notations, and for this test drawing instruments may be required.

A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training for at least one academic year in an institution of university rank.

45. General Anthropology.—Primitive culture in its various aspects; knowledge and technique, economic pursuits (food collecting, hunting, fishing, domestication of animals, agriculture); the general scheme of primitive social organization; early religion and magic, mythology, beliefs, rituals and ceremonial. Candidates will be expected to show some knowledge of the customs, institutions and beliefs of living races of rude culture rather than knowledge of prehistoric, archaeology, or evolutionary or historical conjectures.

46. Special Anthropology.—Candidates will choose between Social Anthropology and Physical Anthropology.

Social Anthropology.—A fuller knowledge of primitive social organization will be here expected: the tribe, the village community, kinship grouping and the family. Study of the manner in which law works among primitive people and of their forms of administering justice. The economic organization of the primary pursuits and industries ; the types of distribution, exchange and trade. Exchange and the beginnings of currency. Adjustments of European economic systems, law and morality to races on an earlier level or of a different type of culture. Early forms of magical and religious belief and ritual. The relation between faith and knowledge in primitive societies.

Physical Anthropology.—Physical Anthropology, Prehistoric Archaeology and Technology. Candidates will be expected to have such knowledge as may be acquired by laboratory and museum work, consisting mainly in the handling and study of specimens and exhibits. The subject will be treated with special, but not exclusive, reference to peoples of rude culture, including prehistoric civilization.

A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training in an institution of university rank.

47. Agriculture.—Agricultural chemistry, agricultural botany, and agricultural zoology will be included.

A candidate who desires to offer this subject must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of training in an approved institution.

48, 49. English Literature.—Period 1, from 1350 to 1700 ; Period 2, from 1660 to 1914.

Candidates should be prepared to show a first-hand knowledge of some of the works of the following authors and of their place in the history of their country :—

PERIOD 1.

Chaucer
Malory
Spenser
Shakespeare

Bacon
Milton
Bunyan

PERIOD 2.

Dryden
Congreve
Defoe
Swift
Addison
Pope

Fielding
Johnson
Burke
Goldsmith
Burns

Scott
Jane Austen
Wordsworth
Coleridge
Shelley

Keats
Dickens
Carlyle
Tennyson
Browning

Questions on other writers will not be excluded, but, on the whole, the questions will be directed to the best-known authors and their best-known works. Candidates should know so much of the history as is necessary to understand the literature in its relation to other activities of the nation.

Questions will not be set on the history of the language before Chaucer, nor, in general, on its morphological or phonological changes since his time ; the history of workmanship, style, and prosody will not be excluded.

CIVILIZATIONS AND LANGUAGES. Subjects 50-67.—In these the civilization subject associated with a language can be taken only by candidates who also offer themselves for examination in the language itself.

In the questions of civilization, history and literature will, as far as possible, be brought into close relation. In history, candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of the original authorities. They must also be prepared to answer questions on historical geography and to draw sketch maps. The questions on literature will require first-hand knowledge of the authors ; and the authors dealt with will be those which candidates ought to have read. Passages of literature may be set for comment on matters of social, political, legal or other historical importance. Questions on philology and the older forms of the languages may be set, but will not be compulsory. In the question papers on civilization, candidates will not be required to write their answers in the foreign language.

In the conversation test importance is attached to pronunciation. The study of phonetics is an important aid to correctness of pronunciation, and candidates who take modern languages will be expected to have studied phonetics in connection with the language or languages taken.

50. Latin Language.—Translation, and prose or verse composition. The composition paper will be so arranged that candidates may confine themselves to prose composition or to verse composition or, if they prefer, may take some prose and some verse.

51. Roman Civilization.—Roman History and Latin Literature. The outlines of the history and development down to 180 A.D. should be known; but the main stress will be laid on the period 133 B.C. to 117 A.D.

52. Greek Language.—As for Latin.

53. Greek Civilization.—Greek History and Literature. In history the main stress will be on the period 510 B.C. to 323 B.C.

54. French Language.—Translation, free composition, set composition and conversation.

55. French Civilization.—French History and Literature. The outlines of the history and development prior to 1589 should be known; the period from 1589 to 1660 in somewhat more detail; but the main stress will be on the period from 1660 to the present day.

56. German Language.—As for French.

57. German Civilization.—German History and Literature. Candidates should know in outline the history of the Medieval Empire, of the growth of the German cities, of the Reformation in Germany, and of the Thirty Years War; but the main stress will be on the period from the accession of Frederick the Great to the present day.

58. Spanish, Italian, Language.—As for French.

59. Spanish Civilization.—Spanish History and Literature. In history the main stress will be on the periods from the Union of Castile and Aragon under Ferdinand and Isabella to the liberation of the Netherlands, and again from 1800 to the present day.

Italian Civilization.—Italian History and Literature. In history the main stress will be on the 15th century and the first half of the 16th century, and again on the period from 1789 to the present day. Sufficient should be known of the earlier period to understand the position of the Pope and the Emperor in Italy, the rise of the towns, and the position of Dante in history.

60. Russian Language.—As for French.

61. Russian Civilization.—Russian History and Literature. Something should be known of the history since the accession of Peter the Great, but the main stress will be on the period from 1800 to the present day. Only the broadest outlines of the history prior to Peter the Great will be required.

62. Arabic Language.—Translation, free composition, set composition, conversation. The examination will be in the modern language.

63. Arabic Civilization.—Arabic History and Literature. The main stress in both history and literature will be on the period from the middle of the 6th century A.D. to the middle of the 13th century A.D.

64. Persian Language.—Translation, free composition, set composition, conversation. The examination will be in the modern language.

65. Persian Civilization.—Persian History and Literature. The main stress in both history and literature will be on the period 1000 A.D. to 1500 A.D. Candidates will be expected to have a general knowledge of the history of Persian before 1000 A.D. and from 1500 A.D. to the present time.

The following applies only to candidates for the Indian Civil Service:—

66. Sanskrit Language.—Translation, prose composition, and questions on Vedic and Sanskrit grammar. Both Vedic and classical Sanskrit passages will be set for translation; composition will be required in classical Sanskrit alone.

67. Sanskrit Civilization.—Sanskrit literature and the history of the civilization and thought of India from the Vedic period to A.D. 1200.

PROCEDURE.

Immediately the results of the examination are known, each successful candidate will be summoned to attend at the Civil Service Commission to be medically examined and to state their choice among the services open to them and among the various departments, provinces or colonies. That statement of choice is irrevocable.

EVIDENCE OF AGE.

A candidate born in the United Kingdom must not send in a birth certificate with this form but must be prepared to produce it when required.

A European or Anglo-Indian who was born in India must be prepared to produce when required a certificate of baptism from the district in which he or she was baptized. If this does not also mention the date of birth it must be accompanied by a statutory declaration by one of the candidate's parents, stating the date and place of birth.

An Indian born in India must send in with this form a certificate under Government of India notification No. 1114 of 12th September 1918. If the candidate's family is resident in British India the certificate must be signed by the Secretary to the Government of their province or by the Commissioner of their Division. If they reside in an Indian State it must be signed by the highest Political Officer accredited to that State.

FEE.

Fees are not to be forwarded by candidates. Instructions respecting the manner of payment of the fee prescribed (£8), and respecting the time and place of the examination, will be sent to candidates before the examination.

EXAMINATIONS OF SELECTED CANDIDATES FOR THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

Regulations made under section 97 of the Government of India Act for the Probation in the United Kingdom and the further examination of Selected Candidates for the Indian Civil Service.

* * The following Regulations, made by the Secretary of State for India in Council, are liable to alteration from year to year.

(1) Candidates selected at the Open Competition held in London will be required to remain in the United Kingdom on probation for one or two years, as may be decided by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

(2) Candidates selected at the Open Competition held in India and candidates selected in India otherwise than by competitive examination will be required to proceed to the United Kingdom on probation for a period of two years.

ONE-YEAR PROBATIONERS.

(3) One-year probationers will, at or about the end of the year of probation, undergo an examination called the Final Examination. The subjects and the marks allotted to them are as follows :—

Compulsory Subjects—

1. Indian Penal Code	...	200	5. The principal vernacular language or the substituted subject	...	600
2. Code of Criminal Procedure	...	200	6. Riding	...	200
3. The Indian Evidence Act	...	200
4. Indian History	...	400

Optional Subjects, one only to be taken --

7. Hindu and Mohammedan Law	400
8. A classical language selected from Sanskrit, Arabic, Persian, Pali	400

TWO-YEAR PROBATIONERS.

(4) Two-year probationers will undergo two examinations—the Intermediate Examination at the end of the first year of probation and the Final Examination at or about the end of the second year.

(5) The subjects of the Intermediate Examination and the marks allotted to them are as follows. All the subjects are compulsory.

1. The principal vernacular language or the substituted subject	...	400	4. Law of Evidence and Criminal Law	...	200
2. Phonetics	...	200	5. Indian History	...	200
3. Jurisprudence	...	200	6. Notes of Cases	...	200
			7. Economics	...	200

(6) The subjects of the Final Examination and the marks allotted to them are as follows :—

Compulsory Subjects—

1. The principal vernacular language or the substituted subject	...	600	4. The Indian Evidence Act	...	200
2. Indian Penal Code	...	200	5. Notes of Cases	...	400
3. Code of Criminal Procedure	...	200	6. Indian History	...	400
			7. Economics	...	400
			8. Riding	...	200

Optional Subjects, one only to be taken—

9. Hindu and Mohammedan Law	400
10. A classical language selected from Sanskrit, Arabic, Persian, Pali	400

ONE-YEAR AND TWO-YEAR PROBATIONERS.

(7) The principal vernaculars prescribed for the various provinces are shown in the following table:—

Madras	Tamil or Telugu.
Bombay	Marathi.
Bengal	Bengali.
United Provinces	Urdu.
Punjab	Urdu.
Burma	Burmese.
Bihar and Orissa	Hindi.
Central Provinces	Hindi.
Assam	Bengali.

(8) A candidate assigned to a province the principal vernacular language of which is a language with which he is familiar, or is a language closely allied to one with which he is familiar, will not be examined in that language but in the substitute or substitutes named below. A candidate assigned to Madras who is familiar with either Tamil or Telugu, but not with both, will offer the other for examination; if he is familiar with both Tamil and Telugu he will be examined in the appropriate substitute or substitutes.

In the circumstances stated the substitute for the vernacular language for a One-Year Probationer is British History; for a Two-Year Probationer it is British History at the Intermediate Examination and European History at the Final Examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners will in each case decide whether a candidate is to study the principal vernacular or the substituted subject or subjects.

(9) The ordinary session of the Final Examination for the testing of Riding will take place in advance of the rest of the Final Examination, and a special session will when necessary be held at a later date for the benefit of any candidate who may have failed at the ordinary session.

Candidates who at the ordinary session satisfy the Commissioners that they are sufficiently at home in the saddle for the efficient performance of all duties required of members of the Indian Civil Service will be awarded marks ranging between 101 and 200 according to the degree of proficiency displayed.

Candidates who at the ordinary session fall short of this adequate proficiency but show such minimum proficiency as is evidence that with a moderate amount of practice they can attain full proficiency, will receive marks ranging between 1 and 100; they will be allowed to proceed to India and will on their arrival there be subjected to such further tests in riding as may be prescribed by their Local Government, and shall receive no increase to their initial salary until they have passed such tests to the satisfaction of that Government.

Any candidate who at the ordinary session fails to show a minimum proficiency will be examined again at a special session. If he then attains adequate proficiency he will not be subjected to further tests in India. If he attains minimum proficiency he will be allowed to proceed to India under the same condition as if he had attained minimum proficiency at the ordinary session. No credit in marks will be given for any performance at a special session.

Probationers may also be examined in riding at such time or times as the Commissioners may appoint during the course of the probationary period.

A candidate who fails at the end of the period of probation to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that he has reached the minimum standard of proficiency in riding will be liable to have his name removed from the list of Selected Candidates.

(10) Such deductions as the Civil Service Commissioners may consider necessary will be made from the marks assigned to candidates at the Intermediate and Final Examinations in order to secure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

(11) The Civil Service Commissioners will prepare lists of the candidates in order of merit; the order for the one-year probationers being based on the sum of the marks obtained by the candidates at the Open Competitive and Final Examinations, the order for the two-year probationers being based on the sum of the marks obtained by the candidates at the Intermediate and Final Examinations.

(12) The Selected Candidates whose performance in the compulsory subjects of the Final Examination is such as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners, and who have also satisfied the Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, and conduct during the period of probation, shall be certified by the Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Indian Civil Service, provided that they shall comply with the regulations in force, at the time, for that Service.

(13) If any candidate is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending the Final Examination, the Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held in the following year, or at a special examination. A Selected Candidate absent for such adequate cause from the Intermediate Examination may, under similar conditions, be allowed to appear at the Intermediate Examination a year later or at a special examination or may be excused the Intermediate Examination and allowed to appear for the Final Examination in regular course.

Any candidate who at the Intermediate Examination shall appear to have wilfully neglected his studies, or to be physically incapacitated for pursuing the prescribed course of training, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of Selected Candidates.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

made by the Civil Service Commissioners with the authority of the Secretary of State for India in Council:—

(i) Selected Candidates will be allotted to the various provinces upon a consideration of all the circumstances, including their own wishes; but the requirements of the Public Service will rank before every other consideration.

(ii) An allowance of £300 a year, or, in the case of Selected Candidates possessing an Indian domicile, an allowance of £350 a year will be given to any candidate who passes his probation at one of the Universities or other Institutions that have been approved for the purpose by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

In the case of Selected Candidates on probation for one year the allowance will be payable in four equal instalments on the following dates respectively: December 24th after his selection, March 25th, June 25th and after signature of Covenant on appointment to the Service.

In the case of Selected Candidates on probation for two years the allowance will be payable in eight equal instalments, the first on the December 24th after selection, the second to the seventh on the six following quarter days and the eighth after signature of Covenant on appointment to the Service.

The payment of the various instalments of the allowance except the final instalment, and, in the case of the two-year probationers, the instalment payable at the end of the first year of probation, will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State through the Civil Service Commissioners of a certificate that the candidate has fulfilled up to date the requirements of the authorities and shown satisfactory conduct at the approved institution.

If an Indian Government Scholar becomes a Selected Candidate for the Indian Civil Service, his scholarship stipend shall cease to be paid with effect from the 1st October of the year in which he becomes a Selected Candidate. He may, however, provided he has executed the agreement referred to in (iv) below, be granted on, or at any time after, the 1st October, an advance on account of the instalment of the allowance payable on the 24th December.

The whole probation must ordinarily be passed at the same institution. Migration will not be permitted except for special reasons approved by the Secretary of State.

N.B.—The Secretary of State for India gives notice that the amount of the allowances will be reconsidered in 1927, with a view to a possible reduction with effect from the instalment payable in December 1927.

(iii) A first class passage to India will be engaged for Selected Candidates with a view to their proceeding to India during the November following their Final Examination.

(v) Each candidate will be required before receiving the first instalment of his allowance to execute an agreement binding himself and one surety jointly and severally to refund all moneys he may have received from the Secretary of State for India in the event of:—

(1) his failure to pass the Final Examination within the time prescribed by the Regulations, and to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his fitness for admission to the Indian Civil Service, or

(2) his subsequent failure to execute the usual Covenant, and to proceed to India, as and when he shall be directed by the Secretary of State for India.

(v) All candidates obtaining certificates will be also required to enter into Covenants, by which, amongst other things, they will bind themselves to make such payments as under the rules and regulations for the time being in force they may be required to make for the pensions of their families. The stamps payable on these Covenants amount to £ 1.

(vi) Candidates appointed to the Indian Civil Service after undergoing one year's probation will be senior to those appointed in the same year after undergoing two years' probation. The seniority of candidates of each class inter se will be determined by the order in which their names appear on the lists referred to in clause (11) of the Regulations.

(vii) Candidates who fail to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners at the Final Examination held in any year will be definitely rejected, and will not be allowed to present themselves for re-examination, unless it shall appear to the Secretary of State in Council, after reference to the Civil Service Commissioners, that such failure is due to circumstances wholly exceptional and beyond the control of the candidate.

(viii) "Overseas pay" will not be admissible to Indian members of the Indian Civil Service selected at Open Competitive Examinations held in London in 1925 and subsequent years.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Baghat for December 1926.

I. Character of the season.—During the month rainfall was general throughout the province, the precipitation being above the normal everywhere except in Midnapore and Darjeeling, where the fall was a little in defect of the normal. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Harvesting of winter paddy and potatoes and transplantation of summer rice were progressing favourably. Transplantation of tobacco seedlings and sowings of spring crops were nearly completed. Cutting and pressing of sugarcane continued.

III. State of standing crops.—The condition of standing spring crops was promising.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The outturn of winter tal was estimated at 92 per cent. of the normal. The prospects of cotton, sugarcane and other spring crops were reported to be fair.

V. Damage to standing crops.—Some damage to paddy crop by untimely rain and high wind in the latter part of the month was reported from Khulna and Bakarganj.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of live-stock was on the whole fair. Sporadic cases of cattle-disease were, however, reported from ten districts. Rinderpest in epidemic form still continued in the Sunderbans area in the district of Bakarganj.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—No scarcity of fodder was reported from any of the districts.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second half of the month the price of the cheapest quality of rice rose in 5 districts, fell in 14 and remained stationary in the rest of the Presidency. The prices ranged from 5 seers in Howrah to 7 seers 4 chitaks in Murshidabad.

IX. Condition of agricultural population.—The condition of agricultural population was generally reported to be fair.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 13th January 1927.

Summary.—During the week light rain fell over the greater part of the Presidency. It has helped cultivation for autumn crops and has probably benefitted standing rabi crops, with the possible exception of magi mustard. Reaping of winter paddy is approaching completion and threshing continues. Transplantation of summer rice is progressing favourably. The average price of common rice for the province has fallen by about 1 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

CALCUTTA, THE 17TH JANUARY 1927.

RESOLUTION No. 252F.

In view of the recent fall in the rate of interest on the rupee borrowing by the Government of India, His Excellency the Governor in Council has decided that the rate of interest which is now paid on deposits in the Special Provident Funds on bonus or contributory terms and other Provident Funds, and which is intended to correspond to the rate of interest on the rupee loans by the Government of India should be reduced from $5\frac{1}{2}$ to $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent, with effect from the 1st April 1927. The rate will apply to deposits and also to the balance at credit of subscribers on the 31st March 1927.

The funds concerned are :—

- (1) Electrical Adviser's Fund
- (2) Civil Veterinary Department Provident Fund.
- (3) Special Provident Funds on bonus or contributory terms, other than the provident funds of officers employed on the dredgers in the Irrigation Department.

2. No definite period is fixed during which the reduced rate of interest will hold good. It will be liable to revision, should there be disparity between it and the rates at which the Government of India raise their rupee loans at the time. Six months' notice will be given to subscribers before any alteration is made.

Ordered that the Resolution be forwarded to the several departments of the Government of Bengal and be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Governor in Council,

APPENDIX.

Provisions for the determination of domicile.

1. A person can have only one domicile.

2. The domicile of origin of every person of legitimate birth is in the country in which at the time of his birth his father was domiciled or, if he is a posthumous child, in the country in which his father was domiciled at the time of the father's death.

3. The domicile of origin of an illegitimate child is in the country in which at the time of his birth his mother was domiciled.

4. The domicile of origin prevails until a new domicile has been acquired, and a new domicile continues until the former domicile has been resumed or another has been acquired.

5. (1) A person acquires a new domicile by taking up his fixed habitation in a country which is not that of his domicile of origin.

(2) Any person may, if the law of any country so provides, and subject to any such provisions, acquire a domicile in that country by making, in accordance with the said provisions, a declaration of his desire to acquire such domicile.

EXPLANATION 1—A person is not to be considered as having taken his fixed habitation in a country merely by reason of his residing there in His Majesty's civil or military service or in the exercise of any profession or calling.

EXPLANATION 2—A person does not acquire a new domicile in any country merely by reason of residing as part of the family or as a servant of any ambassador, consul, or other representative of the Government of another country.

6. The domicile of a minor follows the domicile of the parent from whom he derives his domicile of origin:

Provided that the domicile of a minor does not change with that of his parent if the minor is married or holds any office or employment in the service of His Majesty or has set up with the consent of the parent in any distinct business.

7. After marriage a woman acquires the domicile of her husband if she had not the same domicile before, and her domicile during the marriage follows the domicile of her husband:

Provided that if the husband and wife are separated by the order of a competent court, or if the husband is undergoing a sentence of transportation, the wife becomes capable of acquiring an independent domicile.

8. Save as otherwise provided above, a person cannot, during minority, acquire a new domicile.

9. An insane person cannot acquire a new domicile in any other way than by his domicile following the domicile of another person.

10. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, a person who—

(a) was born and has been educated exclusively in Asia and had not at the date of his appointment resided out of Asia for a total period exceeding six months, or

(b) had before that date claimed or been deemed to be a native of India for the purpose of his appointment to any office under the Government or of the conferment upon him by Government of any scholarship, emoluments or other privilege, shall be deemed to have had his domicile in Asia on that date.

11. If any question arises as to the domicile of any officer at the time of his appointment, the decision thereon of the Local Government shall be final.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT, BENGAL.

NOTIFICATION.

1. A Sussex Trust Scholarship of £ 175 per annum with a free second class passage to England will be available in 1927 for a boy or girl of the Anglo-Indian and domiciled community in Bengal, preference being given to an inhabitant of Calcutta.

2. The object of the scholarship is to provide for higher general or professional education or business training. It will be tenable in the United Kingdom for three years, subject to the usual condition of good behaviour and satisfactory progress.

3. Selection will be restricted to those who appear to the administrator to be likely by age, ability, physical qualifications and social circumstances to justify the opportunity provided, and preference will be given, other things being equal, to a candidate who has been educated in a European school in Bengal and whose parents or guardians are prepared to contribute an additional sum of £ 125 a year towards the expenses of the scholar's education in the United Kingdom. As far as possible, selection will be restricted to candidates whose age will be about the normal age of entry to the course proposed.

4. Intending candidates are requested to apply to the Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, Industries Building, 49-A, Free School Street, Calcutta, from whom a schedule of particulars required may be obtained.

5. The selected candidate must be prepared to lodge £ 40 with the High Commissioner for India, London, for initial expenses before leaving for England.

6. Application should reach the Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, not later than the 1st March 1927.

The Elliott Prize for Scientific Research for 1927—1931.

IN accordance with the Government of Bengal, General Department, revised notification No. 112 T.-Edn., dated the 5th May 1917, published in Part I, page 667 of the Calcutta Gazette, 1917, the Elliott Prize for Scientific Research for 1927 will be awarded to the author of the best original essays giving the results of original research or investigation made by the candidates in Geology and Biology (including Pathology and Physiology) published during the years 1923—1926, inclusive.

In accordance with the notification cited above, the Elliott Prize for Scientific Research for 1928 will be awarded to the author of the best original essay giving the results of original research or investigation made by the candidate in Mathematics and published during the years 1924—1927, inclusive.

Any native of Bengal, or Bihar and Orissa, or any Anglo-Indian or domiciled European residing in Bengal, or Bihar and Orissa, may compete for the prize.

The essays of competitors must be sent in so as to reach the President of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, 1, Park Street, Calcutta, by the end of June of this year. Author's reprint must be submitted and not manuscripts. The prize will be awarded to the best competitor and be conferred publicly at the Annual General Meeting of the Asiatic Society of Bengal in February, 1928.

Preference will be given to researches leading to discoveries likely to develop the industrial resources of Bengal or of Bihar and Orissa.

The value of the prize will be not less than Rs. 210. In the event of no essay being deemed of sufficient merit no prize will be awarded.

The prizes for the next four years will be allotted as follows :—

1928	... Mathematics.
1929	... Chemistry.
1930	... Physics.
1931	... Geology and Biology (including Pathology and Physiology).

All essays submitted must have been published during the four calendar years immediately preceding that for which the prize is given.

Calcutta, the 20th January 1927.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

First Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1926-27.

NOTE—On an average of the five years ending 1924-25, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on has, in the five years ending 1924-25, averaged (a) 40·7 and (b) 14·6 per cent., respectively.

Explanatory.—Four forecasts of the wheat crop are published. This forecast deals only with the area sown and the general condition of the crop in its early stages.

Acreage.—According to the estimates of the District Officers the total area sown amounts to 128,700 acres as against 130,600 and 130,500 acres, reported, respectively, in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Character of the Season.—The rainfall in September and the early part of October was adequate for the preparatory tillage and for the sowings of the crop which generally took place at the normal time. The drought, however, which followed and continued up till the middle of December, has affected the growth in some districts, viz., Birbhum, Bankura, Rajshahi and Malda. The present condition is reported to be fair, on the whole.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

CALCUTTA, THE 21ST JANUARY 1927.

RESOLUTION—No. 370 Marine.

The Governor in Council is pleased to nominate the following gentlemen as representatives of European and Indian Commerce of Calcutta. respectively, on the Advisory Pilot Committee constituted in Bengal Government Resolution No. 3817 Mne., dated the 25th November 1924, for the year 1927 :—

Mr. P. H. Browne, C.B.E., of Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Company.
Mr. Satyendra Nath Sircar, of Messrs. Kerr Tarrack and Company.

By order of the Governor in Council,

J. A. WOODHEAD,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

ADMINISTRATION OF WARDS', ATTACHED AND TRUST ESTATES IN THE PRESIDENCY OF BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1332 B.S. (1925-26).

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Land Revenue.

CALCUTTA, THE 24TH JANUARY 1927.

RESOLUTION—No. 1103 L.R.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the Administration of Wards', Attached and Trust Estates in the Presidency of Bengal for the year 1332 B. S. (1925-26).

READ ALSO—

The reports of the preceding three years.

1. Four estates, including Santosh (6 annas) were released from the management by the Court of Wards during the year, but ten new estates were added, of which the most important was the Kakina estate which, however, carried with it a heavy liability. The total rent demand of the estates under the Court's management was Rs. 136·7 lakhs as against Rs. 110, 105 and 107 lakhs in the preceding three years. Of the total of Rs. 136·7 lakhs, over 22 lakhs must be classed as doubtful debts. There was a slight fall in the percentage of collection, but it was still 110·7 per cent. of the current demand.

2. The total of the debts outstanding at the close of the year was Rs. 85·6 lakhs; and though according to the schemes of repayment these debts should have been reduced to Rs. 30·5 lakhs, the Governor in Council recognises the difficulties in carrying out these schemes fully, and notices with satisfaction that the debts of one large estate were all liquidated during the year, and the debts of four other estates were repaid well in advance of their schemes.

3. The cost of management proper was 13·2 per cent. of the current demand, but His Excellency regrets that so much as 8 per cent. should have been spent in addition on law charges. It is satisfactory, however, that the Court found it possible to disburse the minimum rates of 1 per cent. for education and 3 per cent. for agricultural and sanitary improvements in the solvent estates.

4. The thanks of the Governor in Council are due to the Board of Revenue for the administration of the estates under the management of the Court of Wards. He also notices with pleasure the good work done by the managers mentioned in the report.

By order of the Governor in Council,

F. A. SACHSE.

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

CALCUTTA, the 21st January 1927.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 18th January 1927.

Summary.—During the week light to moderate rainfall was general throughout the Presidency. Preparatory tillage for jute and other autumn crops is progressing favourably in East and North Bengal. Reaping of winter paddy is almost finished and threshing continues. Harvesting of early spring crops has commenced. Cutting and pressing of sugarcane continues. Prospects of standing crops are satisfactory but for damage to paddy and potatoes in some districts by the recent rain. The average price of common rice for the Presidency has fallen by about 1·08 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

No. 320 L.S.-G.—The 28th January 1927.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (k) of sub-section (2) of section 101 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (Bengal Act V of 1919), the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) are pleased to make the following amendments in the rules published under notification No. 1998 L.S.-G., dated the 3rd July 1920, as subsequently amended :—

Amendments.

Add the following note at the end of rule 2 of the said rules :—

NOTE.—In the case of railway holdings occupied by railway servants, the railway company shall be regarded as the occupier, and no individual railway servants residing in such holdings should be included in the list.

2. Substitute the following for rule 4 :—

4. The Government or a local authority or a railway company owning or occupying buildings in the union may be assessed in consideration of the annual value of the total property which the Government or such authority or railway company may possess within the union :

Provided that the total amount of the rate annually payable by the Government or such authority or railway company to the union board shall not exceed the maximum of Rs. 84.

Explanation (1) :—The gross annual rent which the property might be reasonably expected to fetch shall be deemed to be the annual value thereof.

Explanation (2) :—If the property consists of land and building and the actual cost of the erection of the building can be ascertained or estimated, the annual value of the property shall in no case be deemed to exceed an amount which would be equal to seven and a half per centum on the cost of the building in addition to a reasonable ground rent for the land comprised in the property.

NOTE.—Railway companies are not liable to payment of the union rate until they are notified as liable under section 135, Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890).

No. 158 Mns.—The 30th December 1926.—In exercise of the power conferred by the third proviso to section 27 of the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1917 (I of 1917), as modified by the Governor-General in Council in pursuance of the proviso to section 73 of the said Act by notification of the Government of India in the Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 282-S., dated the 27th March 1926, the Governor in Council is pleased to authorise the persons mentioned below to grant the permits referred to in that proviso :—

The Port Officer, Calcutta.

The Port Officer, Chittagong.

Explanation.—An inland motor-vessel of 20 brake horse-power and under, the length of which does not exceed 30 feet measured from the fore part of the stem to the after part of the sternpost which is used exclusively for personal recreation by the owner, his family or friends, is exempted from carrying a certificated Master or Engineer, but may be navigated by the owner or other person in charge of such vessel possessing a permit to be granted under this notification by the Port Officer of Calcutta or Chittagong on application.

No. 159 Marine.—The 30th December 1926.—The following draft rules, which the Governor in Council in exercise of the power conferred by section 29 of the Inland Steam-Vessels Act, 1917, proposes to make regarding the certification of engineers and engine-drivers of inland motor-vessels, are published as required by section 74 of the Act, for the information of the persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft rules will be taken into consideration on or after the 28th February 1927, and any observations or suggestions with regard thereto received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered.

Draft rules for the certification of engineers and engine-drivers of inland-motor vessels.

Qualifications for certificates of competency as second class engine-drivers of inland motor-vessels.

1. A candidate for a certificate of competency as second class engine-driver of an inland motor-vessel must have attained the age of 21 years and must possess one of the following qualifications, namely :—

(a) He must have served for not less than four years in India or a British Colony or for not less than three years in the United Kingdom, Europe, the United States of America or Japan as an apprentice in the making, fitting and repairing of motor or marine steam engines, and in addition one year in the engine-room of a motor-vessel ; or

(b) He must have served for a period of not less than four years in the engine-room of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power of which period not less than one year must have been served as serang, principal tindal or chief greaser :

Provided that of the four years mentioned above one-third may be served in the engine-room of a steam-vessel of not less than 40 nominal horse-power ; or

(c) He must have served for a period of not less than five years in the engine-room of a motor-vessel of not less than 85 brake horse-power of which period not less than one year must have been as serang, tindal or chief greaser :

Provided that of the five years' service mentioned above one-third may be served in the engine-room of a steam-vessel of not less than 15 nominal horse-power ; or

(d) He must have served for a period of not less than two years in charge of the engines of a factory or mill under a certificated engineer as well as a period of not less than one year in the engine-room of a motor-vessel of not less than 85 brake horse-power as serang, tindal, or chief greaser ; or

(e) He must have served for at least six months with a second class engine-driver's certificate for steam-vessels or with a certificate of a higher grade in the engine-room of a motor-vessel of not less than 85 brake horse-power as serang, tindal or chief greaser.

2. The candidate must satisfactorily pass a viva voce examination on the working of the various types of internal combustion engines and be able to name the principal parts of the machinery.

3. The candidate must know what attention is required by the various parts of the machinery, understand the use and management of the different valves, cocks, pipes, and connections, and be familiar with the various methods of supplying air and fuel to the cylinders.

4. The candidate must be able to describe the chief causes which may make the engine difficult to start and to explain how he would proceed to remedy any defects connected therewith ; he must also be able to show that he understands the mechanism of the starting and reversing arrangements and that he is competent to deal with defects therein.

5. The candidate must be able to overhaul the engine, to adjust the working parts and to put the engine together again in good working condition. He must also understand how to make good the result of ordinary wear and tear to the machinery and how to correct defects from accidents.

6. The candidate must be familiar with the nature and properties of the various fuel oils used in internal combustion engines. He must understand what is meant by "flash point".

7. The candidate must know the danger resulting from leakage from the fuel oil tanks and must understand the precautions to be taken against explosion. He must also be able to take the necessary precautions to guard against the escape of inflammable vapour from the vaporizer when the engines are stopped. He must know how to deal with fire should it break out.

8. The candidate must also be able, if required, to show his practical knowledge by actually working the engines of a motor-vessel in presence of the examiner.

9. The candidate must possess a working knowledge of the auxiliary steam-boilers and machinery connected therewith, viz., electric light engines, steering engines, evaporators and pumps.

Qualifications for certificate of competency as first class engine-driver of inland motor-vessels.

10. A candidate for a certificate of competency as first class engine-driver of an inland motor-vessel must have attained the age of 22 years and must possess one of the following qualifications, namely :—

(a) He must have served for not less than one year as engine-driver on regular watch on the main engines of a motor-vessel of not less than 565 brake horse-power whilst holding a second class engine-driver's certificate for motor-vessels ; or

(b) He must have served for a period of not less than 18 months as second driver with a second class engine-driver's certificate for motor-vessels in charge of a watch on the main engines of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power ; or

(c) He must have served for a period of not less than four years in the engine-room of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power, of which period not less than one year must have been served as chief greaser, serang or principal tindal whilst holding a second class engine-driver's certificate for motor-vessels.

If the motor-vessel is of not less than 170 brake horse-power then he must have served at sea or on inland waters, for a period of not less than five years in such vessel, of which period not less than two years must have been served as serang, principal oilman or chief greaser whilst holding a second class engine driver's certificate for motor vessels ; or

(d) He must have served for a period of not less than 18 months with a second class engine-driver's certificate for motor-vessels as driver in charge of the engines of a motor-vessel of not less than 113 brake horse-power ; or

(e) He must have served for not less than two years as serang, principal tindal or chief greaser with a second class engine-driver's certificate for motor-vessels in a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power ; or

(f) He must have served for not less than three years in charge of the engines of a factory or mill under a certificated engineer as well as for not less than one year in the engine-room of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power as assistant engineer, serang, principal tindal or chief greaser whilst holding a second class engine-driver's certificate for motor-vessel; or

(g) He must have served for not less than three years as engine-driver on regular watch on the main engines of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power whilst holding a first class engine-driver's certificate granted under the Inland Steam-Vessels Act; or

(h) He must have served for not less than four years as engine-driver on regular watch on the main engines of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power whilst holding a second class engine-driver's certificate granted under the Inland Steam-Vessels Act; or

(i) He must hold an engine-driver's certificate for sea-going steam ships granted under the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, and must have served on regular watch on the main engines of a motor-vessel of not less than 226 brake horse-power for a period of not less than one year.

11. He must pass a viva voce examination similar to that required by rules 2 to 9 for a second class engine-driver's certificate but more advanced.

Qualifications for certificates of competency as engineers of inland motor-vessels.

12. A candidate for certificate of competency as engineer of an inland motor vessel must have attained the age of 22 years.

13. He must possess the following qualifications, namely:—

(a) He must have served for not less than five years in India or a British Colony, or for not less than four years in the United Kingdom, Europe, the United States of America, or Japan, as an apprentice engineer or journeyman at the making, fitting and repairing of steam or motor engines such as would be recognised as affording useful training for a marine engineer. No time served before the age of 15 will be accepted. Not less than three years in India or a British Colony and two years in the United Kingdom, Europe, the United States of America or Japan of this period must have been spent at fitting, erecting or repairing internal combustion engines. The remaining two years may have been spent either wholly or in part on the work of this nature, or at an approved technical school as mentioned in the rules for examination of sea-going engineers.

Service as journeyman will be considered as equivalent to apprenticeship, but no time served before the age of fifteen is reached will be accepted.

Workshop service other than the above may be accepted if it is considered useful training for a motor engineer, but all such cases must be submitted to the examiner for consideration before the candidate is examined, and at least an additional three months of qualifying service on marine internal combustion engines, either in the works or on regular watch in the main engine-room of vessels propelled by these engines, must have been performed in respect of each twelve months of workshop service of this nature, or other than on the making or repairing of internal combustion engines so accepted. If the service is not altogether satisfactory a longer additional period than that specified may be required.

Any deficiency in the requisite five or four years' workshop service may be made up by service afloat on regular watch in the main engine-room of a vessel of not less than 565 brake horse-power propelled by internal combustion engines.

If the vessel is a sea-going vessel one and a half times the period of deficiency must be served, and if an inland vessel two and a quarter times the period of deficiency will be required. Thus a candidate who has no workshop service must put in $7\frac{1}{2}$ or 6 years as the case may be in a suitable sea-going vessel: or $11\frac{1}{4}$ or 9 years as the case may be in an inland vessel in lieu of his apprenticeship.

(b) In addition to the workshop service as above described or the alternative service afloat, the candidate must have spent 18 months at sea as engineer on regular watch on the main engines of a sea-going ship propelled by internal combustion engines of not less than 565 brake horse-power or 27 months in a similar inland vessel.

14. He must write a legible hand and have a good knowledge of arithmetic up to and including vulgar and decimal fractions, and square root. He must also be able to work out questions relating to spring or lever-loaded safety and relief valves; consumption of oil and stores; capacities of tanks, bunkers, etc., speed of vessel, and other similar problems; and be able to calculate suitable working pressures for air receivers of given dimensions, and the stress per square inch on crank and tunnel shafts and other parts of the machinery when the necessary data are furnished.

15. He must be able to give a clear explanation of the principles on which oil, gas or other internal combustion engines work, including the methods of ignition, to point out the differences between them, and to show by means of illustrative sketches and otherwise that he understands the details of the construction of those in general use.

16. He must be familiar with the various methods of supplying air and fuel to the cylinders in the different types of engines, the construction of the apparatus for carburetting, atomising, or gasifying the fuel, and the means for cooling the cylinders, pistons, etc.

17. He must have a satisfactory knowledge of the process employed in the construction of internal combustion engines in the workshop, and of the methods used in fitting the machinery on board ship.

18. He must know what attention is required by the various parts of the machinery and understand the use and management of the difference valves, cocks, pipes and connections.

19. He must be able to state and describe the chief causes which may make the engines difficult to start and to explain how he would proceed to remedy any defects arising therefrom. He must also be able to show that he understands the mechanism of the starting and reversing arrangements, and is competent to deal with defects therein.

20. He must understand how to make good the results of ordinary wear and tear to the machinery; how to test the fairness of shafting, etc., how to correct defects from accident, delay, etc., and how a temporary or permanent repair could be effected in case of derangement or total breakdown.

21. He must understand the construction of the pressure gauge, barometer, thermometer, and other instruments used in the engine-room, and the principles on which they work.

22. He must understand the construction and working of centrifugal, bucket, and plunger pumps, and the principles on which they act.

23. He must understand the construction and working of air compressors, gas producers, steering engines, electric light engines and dynamos, electric motors, refrigerating, hydraulic and other auxiliary machinery found on board ship.

24. He must possess a good working knowledge of the construction and management of auxiliary steam boilers and machinery and be familiar with the prominent facts relating to combustion, heat and steam.

25. He must be familiar with the nature and properties of the various oils, etc., generally used in internal combustion engines; must understand what is meant by the "flash point"; and have a knowledge of the explosive properties of gas or the vapour given off by these oils, etc., when mixed with definite quantities of air; and be thoroughly conversant with the danger of exposing such gas or vapour to a naked light; or of allowing any leakage from the oil tanks, particularly into the vessels, bibles, and unventilated spaces, or from gas producers, pipes, vaporizers, etc.

26. He must thoroughly understand the precautions to be taken against fire or explosion from oil or gas, and know how to deal with fire should it break out. He should also be familiar with the action of wire gauze diaphragms when placed in pipes and connections to oil tanks, etc., for the purpose of preventing the explosion or ignition of oil vapour therein.

27. He must be able to explain the principle, construction and arrangement of primary and secondary batteries and induction coils so far as is necessary for the efficient management of an oil engine.

28. He must be able to take off and calculate indicator diagrams and understand the action of the gas in the cylinder as shown thereby.

29. He must be able to make a dimensioned working sketch or drawing of some simple part of the machinery.

30. Engineers in possession of (steam) certificates of competency as first or second class engineers are also eligible for certificate as engineer of inland motor-vessels under the following rules:—

(a) He must have served for not less than six months as an assistant engineer on regular watch on the main engines of a sea-going ship propelled by internal combustion engines of not less than 565 brake horse-power or nine months in a similar inland-vessel whilst holding a first class certificate of competency for sea-going steamships granted or recognised as valid under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894. He must also satisfy the examiners that he is fully conversant with internal combustion engines and be able to show both in writing and in viva voce examination that he has satisfactory knowledge of the subjects covered by rules 15 to 20 and 25 to 28 of these rules; or

(b) He must have served for not less than twelve months as an assistant engineer on regular watch on the main engines of a sea-going ship propelled by internal combustion engines of not less than 565 brake horse-power or 18 months in a similar inland-vessel whilst holding a second class certificate of competency for sea-going steam ships granted or recognised as valid under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894. He must also satisfy the examiners that he is fully conversant with internal combustion engines and be able to show both in writing and in viva voce examination that he has satisfactory knowledge of the subjects covered by rules 15 to 20 and 25 to 28 of these rules.

No. 140Mne.—The 26th November 1926.—Owing to the decision of Government to close down the office of the Agent for Government Consignments with effect from the 1st April 1927, the staff employed in that office, a list of which is herewith published, will lose their employment with effect from that date. To alleviate the hardship thereby incurred, the Government of Bengal desire that, as far as is practicable, the members of the staff of the Agent for Government Consignments should be appointed to vacancies occurring in offices either in or outside Calcutta. The Heads of the various Departments of Government have been separately asked to give a prior claim to applicants whose names are in the accompanying list, when vacancies arise in their offices after the 31st March 1927.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), Mr. Karuna Kumar Das Gupta, Assistant Inspector, shall draw pay, as hitherto, in the scale Rs. 300—30—600.

3. Probationary period.—Assistant Inspectors and officers directly recruited as Inspectors shall be on probation for the first two years after their appointment, and shall draw no increment after that period unless confirmed.

4. Application of overseas pay.—Overseas pay shall be drawn only by officers who at the date of their appointment had their domicile elsewhere than in Asia; and for the purposes of this rule domicile shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Appendix to these rules.

5. Confirmation of existing orders.—All existing orders relating to the conditions of service, pay, allowances, and pensions of Inspectors and Assistant Inspectors of Factories, Bengal, in so far as they are not inconsistent with these rules, are hereby confirmed.

APPENDIX.

Provisions for the determination of domicile.

(See Rule 4.)

1. A person can have only one domicile.
2. The domicile of origin of every person of legitimate birth is in the country in which at the time of his birth his father was domiciled, or if he is a posthumous child, in the country in which his father was domiciled at the time of the father's death.
3. The domicile of origin of an illegitimate child is in the country in which at the time of his birth his mother was domiciled.
4. The domicile of origin prevails until a new domicile has been acquired, and a new domicile continues until the former domicile has been resumed or another has been acquired.
5. (1) A person acquires a new domicile by taking up his fixed habitation in a country which is not that of his domicile of origin.
(2) Any person, may, if the law of any country so provides, and subject to any such provisions, acquire a domicile in that country by making, in accordance with the said provisions, a declaration of his desire to acquire such domicile.

Explanation 1.—A person is not to be considered as having taken up his fixed habitation in a country merely by reason of his residing there in His Majesty's civil or military service or in the exercise of any profession or calling.

Explanation 2.—A person does not acquire a new domicile in any country merely by reason of residing as part of the family or as a servant of any ambassador, consul, or other representative of the Government of another country.

6. The domicile of a minor follows the domicile of the parent from whom he derives his domicile of origin :

Provided that the domicile of a minor does not change with that of his parent if the minor is married or holds any office or employment in the service of His Majesty or has set up with the consent of the parent in any distinct business.

7. After marriage a woman acquires the domicile of her husband if she had not the same domicile before, and her domicile during the marriage follows the domicile of her husband :

Provided that if the husband and wife are separated by the order of a competent court, or if the husband is undergoing a sentence of transportation, the wife becomes capable of acquiring an independent domicile.

IN accordance with the Government of Bengal, General Department, revised notification No. 112 T.-Edn, dated the 5th May 1917, published in Part I, page 667 of the Calcutta Gazette, 1917, the Elliott Prize for Scientific Research for 1927 will be awarded to the author of the best original essays giving the results of original research or investigation made by the candidates in Geology and Biology (including Pathology and Physiology) published during the years 1923—1926, inclusive.

In accordance with the notification cited above, the Elliott Prize for Scientific Research for 1928 will be awarded to the author of the best original essay giving the results of original research or investigation made by the candidate in Mathematics and published during the years 1924—1927, inclusive.

Any native of Bengal, or Bihar and Orissa, or any Anglo-Indian or domiciled European residing in Bengal, or Bihar and Orissa, may compete for the prize.

The essays of competitors must be sent in so as to reach the President of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, 1, Park Street, Calcutta, by the end of June of this year. Author's reprint must be submitted and not manuscripts. The prize will be awarded to the best competitor and be conferred publicly at the Annual General Meeting of the Asiatic Society of Bengal in February, 1928.

Preference will be given to researches leading to discoveries likely to develop the industrial resources of Bengal or of Bihar and Orissa.

The value of the prize will be not less than Rs. 210. In the event of no essay being deemed of sufficient merit no prize will be awarded.

The prizes for the next four years will be allotted as follows :—

1928	... Mathematics.
1929	... Chemistry..
1930	... Physics.
1931	... Geology and Biology (including Pathology and Physiology).

All essays submitted must have been published during the four calendar years immediately preceding that for which the prize is given.

Rules for Half-yearly Examination in the Art of TeachingMEMORANDUM.

THE half-yearly examination in the Art of Teaching for the teachers of boys' schools teaching through the medium of English, in the Rajshahi Division, will be held at the Jalpaiguri Zilla School on Monday, the 2nd May 1927, and the day following, if necessary. The examination of teachers of vernacular and classical subjects will also be held on that day at the same school.

2. The examination will consist of—

- (a) A practical examination of class management.
- (b) A practical test of ability to teach by giving two lessons to a class. The subject and the scope of the lesson will be communicated to each candidate later on.
- (c) An oral examination in which the candidate will have to answer some questions on the art of teaching, object lessons, class control, organization and discipline.

3. The following books on the art of teaching are recommended:—

(a) For teachers of vernacular and classical subjects—

- 1. Uchcha Siksha Sahachar, by D. N. Neogi.
- 2. Nimna Siksha Suhrid, by P. Mukherjee.
- 3. Uchcha Siksha Suhrid, by P. Mukherjee.
- 4. Bidyalaya Bidhayak Bibidha Bidhan, by A. N. Adhikari.
- 5. Bhugol Siksha Pranali, by Imdadul Haque.
- 6. Teachers' Manual, by Macmillan & Co.

(b) For Matriculate teachers—

- 1. D. Salmon's Art of Teaching.
- 2. Wren's Indian Teacher's Guide.
- 3. Wren's Direct Method of Teaching English.
- 4. Yate and Rajagopalchari's Direct Method.
- 5. Imdadul Haque's Bhugol Siksha Pranali.

(c) For Graduates and I. A. passed teachers—

- 1. The books recommended under (b).
- 2. Landon's Principles and Practice of Teaching and Class Management.
- 3. Raymont's Principle of Teaching.
- 4. Suggestions for the Consideration of Teachers (Board of Education, Whitehall).
- 5. Talks to Teachers (James).

Intending candidates from high schools, Government, aided and unaided, are directed to send in their applications, through the headmasters of the schools in which they are employed, to this office at least a fortnight before the date of examination, and teachers of middle schools, through the Deputy Inspectors, at least three weeks before the date. Every candidate will be required to produce his University or other certificates at the time of examination. A statement containing information on the following points should accompany the applications:—

- 1. Name.
- 2. Father's name.
- 3. Age on the 31st March 1927.
- 4. Name of the candidate's native district, subdivision and village.
- 5. The last examination which the candidate passed and the year in which the candidate passed it.
- 6. Period of service as a teacher.
- 7. Name of the appointment which the candidate now holds and the date from which he has been holding it.

In the Court of the Fourth Sub-Judge of Dacca.

TITLE SUIT No. 193 of 1926.

Revati Mohan Das, son of late Babu Gour Chandra Das of 109, Walter Road, police-station Sutrapur, in the town of Dacca, plaintiff, versus

1. Jatindra Mohan Ghosh, common manager in suit No. 1 of 1886 (Bengal Tenancy Act), District Judge's Court, Dacca, resident of Mabarakdi, police-station Matlabganj, district Tippera.
2. Sreenati Jagat Lakshmi Devi, wife of Babu Sriah Chandra Chatterjee, at present residing at Patlakhan Lane, police-station Sutrapur, district Dacca, defendants.
3. Lalit Kumar Roy Chowdhury, son of late Raj Kumar Roy Chowdhury, Boalia, police-station Matlabganj, district Tippera.
4. Guru Charan Poddar, son of unknown of Bisnadi, police-station Chandpur, district Tippera.
5. Anwar Ali Sarkar, son of late Muhammad Safi Sarkar of Ekklapur, police-station Matlabganj, district Tippera, pro-defendants.

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern that the common manager, late Raj Mohan Guha, appointed in suit No. 1 of 1886 in the Court of the District Judge of Dacca under Bengal Tenancy Act (section 93) in the interests and for the benefit of the estate had taken from Revati Mohan Das, plaintiff in above-mentioned suit No. 193 of 1926, a loan of Rs. 30,000 on a mortgage bond executed by him on the 5th Magh 1322 B.S. with the permission and under order of the District Judge and mortgaged the properties under his control and management and hereinafter described in the schedule below and the said common manager had therewith paid of the former mortgage debts and decretal amount against the said estate.

Now the aforesaid plaintiff Revati Mohan Das has filed the above suit on the said mortgage bond in this Court, claiming a sum of Rs. 41,786-13-9 and prayed for a mortgage decree in preliminary form for the said amount with cost and interest for the period of suit till realisation and in default of payment within the time of grace after the preliminary decree, for a final decree for realising the said dues by the sale of the mortgage properties, and also in case there be any deficit, for realising the balance out of the other assets in the hands and under the control of the common manager.

In the above suit the present common manager Jatindra Mohan Ghosh is defendant No. 1 and the subsequent mortgagee Jagat Lakshmi Devi is defendant No. 2. Though the said common manager (defendant No. 1) fully represents the estate under his control and management under the circumstances of the case, yet in order to avoid possible future objections the plaintiff has applied for and has been permitted by this Court under order 1, rule 8 of the Civil Procedure Code, to sue the pro forma defendants Nos. 3 to 5, as representatives and on behalf of all persons interested in the said mortgage security and in the equity of redemption and the said suit has been fixed for settlement of issues on 15th February 1927.

Notice is therefore hereby given under Civil Procedure Code, order 1, rule 8. Any other interested person may apply if he chooses to be made a party to the suit.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Final Forecast of the Sugarcane Crop of Bengal, 1926-27.

(NOTE—On an average of the five years ending 1924-25, the area under sugarcane has represented some 7.6 per cent of the total area under sugarcane in British India.)

Character of the Season.—As indicated in the preceding forecasts the weather at planting time was generally favourable. But subsequent drought and untimely rain interfered with the growth of the crop to some extent, especially in the districts of the Presidency Division, Malda and Mymensingh. In Midnapore, the crop was slightly affected by flood in August. On the whole a fair crop has been reaped for the province.

Area.—The total area planted with the crop for the province is estimated at 200,800 acres this year as against 215,000 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to the estimates of District Officers, the average outturn of the crop for the province works out at 80 per cent. of the normal this year, as against 85 per cent. last year.

Taking 36½ maunds as the normal yield of cane-gur per acre, the gross outturn for the province is estimated at 215,400 tons this year, as against 245,000 tons last year.

Other sources of gur.—The total quantity of gur likely to be obtained from date-palm juice and others is estimated at 107,900 tons this year, as against 108,500 tons last year.

The quantity of gur for the province from all sources is thus estimated at 323,300 tons this year, as against 353,500 tons last year.

24-Parganas ...	4,600	1,400	1,400	100	75	November Normal	Normal	The weather was favourable, but the outturn fell below the normal owing to want of timely rain.
Nadia ..	10,000†	6,800	7,800	75	75	The increase in normal area is due to revision on the basis of settlement records. The weather was favourable at planting time, but want of rain was felt in May and June.
Murshidabad ...	3,100	3,400	1,500	75	75	End of November Normal.		The effects of weather on the crop were fair on the whole. Occasional drought adversely affected the growth of the crop.
Jessore ..	5,200	2,300	2,300	56	54	December Normal	Normal	Since the submission of the second forecast the weather was generally fair, but the outturn has fallen below the normal owing to insufficient rain especially in the Magura subdivision.
Khulna ...	400†	400	200	63	63	End of September Normal		The decrease in area is due to cultivation of jute on a greater scale. The weather was not favourable in the beginning but subsequent conditions were generally favourable.
Bardwan ...	11,800	15,400	15,300	83	82	Normal		The weather and its effects on the cultivation and growth of the crop had been favourable.
Birbhum ...	9,800	6,000	8,200	100	83	Will commence in February. Normal		The weather and its effects on the growth of the crop were fairly favourable.
Bankura ..	4,100	3,000	3,800	83	82	December Normal	Normal	The effects of weather on the crop were fair. The outturn would have been very good but for a long spell of hot dry weather immediately after the crop was planted.
Midnapore ...	6,600	5,800	5,200	67	67	Normal		The decrease in area is due to revision of estimates and want of rain in many places in sowing time. The weather at the outset was generally favourable, but subsequent flood and unfavourable weather reduced the outturn.
Hooghly ..	8,200	3,700	2,900	96	9	The increase in area is due to extensive jute cultivation. The weather was favourable but for a little damage by drought in the Arambagh subdivision.
Howrah ...	5,300	3,800	3,500	81	50	January Normal	Normal	The weather at the outset was fair but in July it changed for the worse as there was excessive rainfall. Since then it had been favourable.
Rajshahi ...	7,500	3,500	3,000	81	76	December	Normal	The increase in area is due to extension of jute cultivation. The weather was favourable but for damage to the extent of two units in Nator.
Dinajpur ...	30,800	30,700	35,700	88	75	End of November Normal.		The decrease in area is due to unfavourable weather at planting time. The weather was not favourable.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 30th January 1927.

Summary.—The week was dry. Preparatory tillage for jute and other autumn crops is proceeding favourably in East and North Bengal. Harvesting of winter paddy is over and threshing still continues. Cutting and pressing of sugarcane are going on. Reaping of early spring crops is progressing favourably. Outlook of standing crops is hopeful but for damage to potatoes in some districts. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 0·90 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

Minister-in-charge : The Hon'ble Mr. B. Chakravarti.

No. 253 P.H.—The 5th February 1927.—The following draft of a notification, which the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Public Health) propose to issue under sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 1 and sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 2 of the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, 1919 (Bengal Act VI of 1919), is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 30th April 1927, and any objection or suggestion with regard thereto, which may be received by the undersigned through the District Magistrate and the Divisional Commissioner before that date, will be duly considered :—

Draft notification.

In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, 1919 (Bengal Act VI of 1919), and in supersession of notification No. 922 San., dated the 28th August 1920, and erratum No. 37-P.H., dated the 18th January 1921, the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Public Health) are pleased to extend all the other sections of that Act to the whole of Bengal except Calcutta as defined in clause (ii) of section 3 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923.

2. In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (3) of section 1 of the said Act, the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Public Health) are also pleased to direct that the operation of that Act shall be limited to the articles of food mentioned below, namely :—

(a) milk, (b) butter, (c) ghee, (d) wheat flour, (e) mustard oil, and (f) tea.

3. In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (3) of section 2 of the said Act, the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Public Health) are also pleased to declare each of the municipalities and District Board areas to be a local area for the purposes of the said Act.

4. In exercise of the power conferred by clause (iii) of sub-section (4) of section 2 of the said Act, the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Public Health) are also pleased to appoint the Chairman of each District Board to be the local authority for that District Board area for the purposes of that Act.

Minister-in-charge : The Hon'ble Mr. B. Chakravarti.

No. 254 P.H.—The 5th February 1927.—The following draft of an amendment which the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Public Health) propose to make in the rules framed under section 20 of the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, 1919 (Bengal Act VI of 1919), and published with notification No. 4-P.H., dated the 5th January 1922, and subsequently amended by notification No. 857-P.H., dated the 20th April 1926, is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 30th April 1927, and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned through the District Magistrate and the Divisional Commissioner before that date will be duly considered :—

Draft amendment.

For rule 5 of the said rules the following shall be substituted, namely :—

“5. The Health Officer, or where specially authorised by the local authority which is hereby empowered in this behalf, the Sanitary Inspector or the Food Inspector, in the employ of a municipality or District Board, shall exercise the powers and perform the duties mentioned in sections 10 and 12 of the Act. In any municipality which has no Sanitary Officer, such functions shall be performed by the Sanitary Officers of the District Board of the district concerned, with the consent of the District Board.”
